11/1/11

MOVING PICTURE NEWS

Offarlie Chaplin, in The Adventurer al Star Theater

Organ Recitals at Liberty.

Commencing tomorrow the Liberty Theater management will inaugurate a special Sunday musical programme, with Albert Hay Malotte, one of the best-known young organists of the West, in a half-hour recital on the big Wurlitzer Hope-Jones unit orchestral organ.
The musical programme, which will have a programme of varied appeal,

When Mary Garden first invaded the notion picture studio she received this one from Oscar Hammerstein, her old director:

irector:

iy dear Miss Garden:

Here is to your first appearance in the sew and georious werld of the sursen.

"When you sang "Thals first it was a turnuit and a joyous scream.

Your Thais' on the scream will be memorial an everlasting dream."

Both will never be forgotten.

Your old director and admiring comrade,
Occar Hammerstein.

No claim is made for a niche for Hammerstein in the poets hall of fame.

phrase "doing our bit"

Hamilton Revelle and Crauford Kent phrase doing our bit because too many people take it literally and do a little when they ought to do a let,

Clifford Bruce, the well-known actor
now with Metro was injured seriously ecently when his automobile backed down an elevator shaft. The verdict is at least two weeks in the hospital,

Some dyed-in-the-weel film fan, long on nerve and short on brains, heard that Louise Hoff had the ukeldle fever and wrote to her asking how she was getting along and if it was a seriamong Miss Garden's supporting oliga Petrova says she dislikes the

because too

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES.

Star-Charlie Chaplin, "The Adventurer"; William Russell, "Sands of Sacrifice."
Sunset-"Les Miserables."
Majestic-"Jack and the Beanstalk."
Columbia - Herbert Rawlinson, "Come Through."

"Come Through." Liberty — Belle Bennett, "The Devil's Decoy. Evelyn Nesbit, "Re-

Peoples - demption C Trois - Charlie Chaplin, "The Count."

........ Majestic.

66 TACK AND THE BEANSTALK"

Malf-million-dollar William Fox visualization of the fairy tale so dear to the children of the English speaking race, will be seen at the Majestle Theater, commencing today.

Few photoplays have been so lavishly sprinkled with superlatives as has "Jack and the Beanstaik" by Eastern reviewers. It's a speciacle story, said to appeal ailke to young and old. The first of the "Fox Kiddle Features," it has a cast of 1300 children, averasing 5 years of age, and the leading roles are taken by two juvenile prodigies, Francis Carpenter as Jack and Virginin Corbin as the Princess.

In contrast with these diminutive players is the Giant of the photoplay. J. M. Tarver, eight feet six inches tait and weighing 471 pounds, is said to be the biggest man in the world. They say that Tarver is so big that he frightened the children, and had to tell them storles of the giants and pigmies to get their confidence.

Star.

"The Adventure," that final Charlle Chaplin Mutual comedy, which has been overdue many weeks, will be flashed on the Star Theater screen commencing today along with "Sands of Sacrifice," a five-reel Mutual-American starring athletic Bill Russell.

"The Adventure," that final Charlle chaplin with the Star Theater screen commencing today along with "Sands of Sacrifice," a five-reel Mutual-American starring athletic Bill Russell.

"The Adventure," is a chase pleture, with Chaplin wearing a convict garb during much of the action. Big Eric Campbell is again his rival for the affections of the girl. Edna Purviance. They say there's more than the usual amor, the struggle between Chaplin and Campbell, with the latter having the advantage because he recognizes in his rival the escaped convict, permitting of many new bits of comedy "business." Charlle is a life-saver, a rescuer of eminibility from a watery grave, then a suitor for the hand of the rescued one's daughter, and finally a successful evader of the minlons of the law.

frightened the children, and had to tell them stories of the giants and pigmies to get their confidence.

Two hours of riotous fun, thrills and gobs is what Fox promises for those who witness this production.

At 9 o'clock this morning Owner-Manager J. J. Parker will be bost to the children of the various orphanages and homes of the city at a special showing of "Jack and the Beanstalk."

Peoples.

"Redemption." the much-talked-of motion-picture production, presenting as its star Evelyn Nesbit and her son, Russell Thaw, among the supporting players, commences an engagement this morning at the Peoples Theater.

Miss Nesbit, who was in Portiand at the Orpheum last season in a dancing act, has been highly commended for her acting in "Redemption," a story based, it is said, upon her own life. Her son and Clifford, her husband, are brought into the picture, while there when Mary Garden first invaded the when Mary Garden first invaded the

SUNDAY in the great

ORGAN RECITAL

ous enough sickness to keep her from playing in Paramount pictures. As a matter of fact, Miss Huff does think that the playing of this so-called instrument is a disease and thinks herself fortunate that so far she has not caught it, but if it's contagious she will be in great danger as everyone around the studio has it

Juliette Day, who quit the stage to appear in several Mutual pictures, is doing a novel "bit." She is sending weekly letters and packages to six

Theodore Kosloff, noted Russian dancer and formerly of the Russian Imperial Ballet, supports Geraldine Farrar in "The Woman God Forgot."

Pauline Curley is Harold Lockwood's new leading woman

Virginia Vaill, who supports Bryant Washburn in "The Fibbers," danced her way into pictures. She was picked up from a Chicago theater to do a dancing bit in an Essanay picture and photographed so well that the director realized that he had a "find." A tempting offer caused Miss Valli to desert interpretative dancing for the glare of the studio lamps.

CLIMBING PERFORMANCE FEATURE

Plans Completed for Raising $25,000 for Relief of Oregon Soldiers

ing the performances and exercises Honor Guard Girls will sell tickets for the Auditorium performances next band from Vancouver Barracks will play.

At the close of the exercises, Charles Willis, known as the "Human Fly," will scale the wall of the 12-story Failing building at Flfth and Alder streets, Mr. Willis has contributed his services for the benefit of the campaign.

Sale of tickets is reported to be meeting with big success throughout the city. The performances will begin Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Public Auditorium.

At each performance there will be at the cantonment camp at American Lake, Washington.

Lake, Washington.
Every noon next week a special programme will be carried out at Fifth and Morrison streets to stir up interest in the Campaign to raise $25,000 for the relief of Oregon soldiers and sailors in all cases of need.

is a suggestion of the Stanford White-Harry Thaw affair.

The story deals with a girl, once an actress, who, at the opening of the picture, is a happy wife and mother. A former admirer looms up, and meeting her again after a number of years, and in full knowledge of her domestic happiness, persists in annoying her until she is compelled to have him arrested but to avoid publicity she does not press the charge and he is released. Shortly after this hor husband dies and she and her son are left penniless. After the luncheon of the City Club yester-

Shortly after this her husband dies and she and her son are left penniless. After months of struggle she establishes herself in business and earns enough money to send her boy to college. Her redemption finally comes through his success.

Star.

the legal firm of Carey & Kerr, below to luncheon of the City Club yesterday at the Hotel Benson.

The measure discussed comprises 50 printed pages, replete with the edicts of wartime taxation. Mr. McCulloch gave a synopsis of the law and discussed the various provisions in detail, giving examples. The war income tax, as distinct from the previous in-misunderstanding by which many pros-pective donors refused to contribute because they believed the fund was for the use of the hospital staff only.

Contingent Extended.

1300 Wonderful Children

The biggest man in the world, J. M.

10—BIG ACTS—10 Have You Bought Your Bonds?

Tarver, 8 ft. 6 ins. tall, weight

A Fairy Village in the Clouds.

471 pounds.

Cost $500,000.00

to Produce

Direct from p h e n o menal success at the Globe Theater, N. Y., at $1.00 admission. Prices here-Children, 10c. Adults 25c. Shows at 11, 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9 P. M.

The Fairyland Photoplay Spectacle Supreme! The biggest and most stu-pendous photoplay achievement of modern times.

By Cyrus Townsend Brady

Of an American who fought for France and Freedom.

The most timely and exciting war story of the year.

SUNDAY NORMA TALMADGE

COMEDY-ALSO

in the romance of a moonlit garden-one night of madness-six years of sorrow—the drama de luxe

Phone Your Want Ads to THE OREGONIAN Main. 7070. A 6095.

Beginning TODAY

EVELYN NESBIT AND HER SON

tion of Evelyn Nesbit. She now tells her true story to the world. It is a picture you will remember as long as you live. A gigantic and stupendous story of a woman's life.

Redemption

AT THE

Ince feature. Narrow Trail

SUNDAY NOON

the studio lamps.

Asserting that C. Gardner Sullivan wrote "The Narrow Trail," the Bill Hart-Arteraft pictured story, Triangle, through the New York Motion Picture Corporation, secured a temporary court order preventing the New York exhi-bition of this picture. Triangle claims that Sullivan was under its contract when he wrote the story.

CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN

OF TODAY'S PROGRAMME.

and Sailors.

With a big patriotic programme and a spectacular building-climbing per-formance, the campaign to raise funds for the Oregon soldiers and sallors emergency fund will start at noon to-day at Fifth and Morrison streets. Durweek.

Robert L. Adams will be in charge of the exercises today. Edward Fraley, Frank Hilton, Charles Freeman and ex-Mayor Albee will be speakers. Leah Cohen will sing and the 14th Regiment band from Vancouver Barracks will

At each performance there will be shown 8000 feet of thrilling war film furnished by the War Department. There also will be shown 2000 feet of film taken especially for the occasion expect more drastic measures, for the page of the page of the measure is less taking delicacles for the patients in the hospital and in supplementing supplies for the hospital staff.

HOSPITAL UNIT GETS $400

The campaign, which was to have closed October 15, has been extended until November 1. The change, the committee announced, was due to a misunderstanding by which was to a misunderstanding by which many tree. HOSPITAL UNIT GETS $400

Campaign for University of Oregon

tax, as distinct from the previous income tax, and the war excess profits tax, were fully explained.

"In certain individual instances, the measure will cause a great deal of instances, the main it is very fair. People must of collectors, it was announced last for the use of the hospital staff only.

Four hundred dollars has been turned in to the committee in charge of the campaign for the use of the hospital staff only.

Fire on Umpqua Mountains Report.

GOLD HILL, Or., Oct. 19.—(Special.)

—Deer hunters returning to Gold Hill from the headwaters of Evans Creek report a raging fire unobstructed dev-

RUSSELL THAW