GAINS AND LOSSES.

The shipbuilding strike is happily over, and an assessment of gains and losses, may now be made.

The losses are even easier to appreciate. There is a reduction in the loss of wages, approximating probably a million dollars, and the shipbuilding programme of the Government has been delayed, so far as Portland and the Columbia River are concerned, by more than thirty days.

But cheer up. What has happened may happen again, but it will not be repeated.

perience presents an impressive parallel to that of Kerensky, whose party motto was "Peace with honor."

Here is the authentic testimony of an Associated Press dispatch, vindicating a great group of patriotic citizens from the aspersions cast upon them by Kaiserism.

It is the same all over the United States. A great wrong has been done men and women, of German blood and ancestry, here by their own volition and not by accident.

It is in New York, so it is everywhere throughout America. Look over the list of German names in the army and Navy volunteers.

IF YOU ARE A BONDHOLDER, actual or prospective, the market value of all standard bonds, especially Liberty bonds, is of concern to you.
