Dr. William T. Foster Changes Views After Visit to European Fronts.

STRONG NAVY ESSENTIAL

President of Reed College Says German Government Is Strong and Will Continue War Until Crushed by the Allies.

HOT PLACE RESERVED FOR AMERICAN PACIFIST.

Speaking to the members of the Ad Club yesterday noon, following Dr. Foster's address, Cyrus Peirce, of San Francisco, representing the Government in Liberty bond campaign work in the field, said:

"After what I have seen and know concerning the situation in Europe, I am prepared to say that nothing the Germans could do would surprise me," declared Dr. William T. Foster, president of Reed College, just returned from the front at the junction of the Ad Club at Hotel Benson yesterday noon.

"I had completed my work and was looking for a boat upon which to return home," said Dr. Foster, "and was invited to return with Admiral Mackay. At the wharf I saw 20 sailors, dripping wet; they had just been rescued from the water, having been torpedoed. When the Admiral's ship was about to depart and saw destroyers on all sides to convey us across, I may say that whatever may have been my past sentiments regarding the Navy I was glad then that we had one." (Cheers.)

"I am prepared to say," stated Dr. Foster, "that had the American people known what I now know, they would have subscribed every dollar of the Liberty bond loan the first day." Prolonged cheers greeted this statement.

"I am not criticizing our people," continued Dr. Foster, "but am merely trying to tell facts that will in a measure bring home to the people the seriousness of the situation in Europe. With all the progress that is being made by our allies, with all the efforts that are being directed at the invaders and with all the desperate drives being made by our arms and those of our allies."

"As to the situation regarding the progress of the war, I think it may truly be said that the last month has been the most favorable to the arms of the allies of any time since the war began. More submarines have been sunk, I was told on first-class authority, than at any time since the war began. More merchant vessels were recorded, so that it may be officially related that the submarine campaign as a starvation measure, is a failure. That seems established in Europe. I may say, too, that when the words 'captured' or 'sunk' are used in official British Admiralty reports, they mean just that; the British Admiralty takes no written report of such kind as a final unless it is verified by a piece of the submarine or one or more German sailors taken therefrom.

the German situation that has been detected is as to the submarine feature. The commanders and the men are, it is agreed in official circles, inferior to those who first commanded and manned the submarines. There is no doubt that the German government is having difficulty in officering and manning these boats, and that may have something to do with the present failure of the campaign.

Views Radically Changed. "When I went to Europe, I was doubtful, skeptical, I might say, many things we have heard in this country. I was and am, as you know, a man who hates war and all that goes with it, and I think I am sure that such a government as Germany, viewed from a military standpoint, I despised. I could not bear to think that this country had in any manner imitate such a programme. For some time after reaching the battle fronts I could not bear to think that I saw and which were reported from various sources might be exceptional cases and not the rule. "I want to say, however, that after remaining there some weeks, and after conferring with my own eyes and hearing reports with my own ears as to the atrocities committed by the German army, that they could do nothing that would surprise me—absolutely nothing. Nothing fit fits into the German idea of world domination, bred in the bone of the German people, is too deep to be broken by anything that they will do. My greatest message to you is that, in order to save lives, in order to save time and in order to save money, we must pour out our men, we must pour out our money and we must put into this war every ounce of energy that we possess and we must do those things quickly. There will be great sacrifice, there will be sorrow and there will be huge losses, but the end is justified for the sake of world freedom."

THE DALLAS MAN APPOINTED MANAGER OF MOTOR VEHICLE DEPARTMENT.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Chauncey Butler, of The Dalles, has been appointed manager of the motor vehicle department in Secretary of State Olcott's office. The position was left vacant recently by the death of Edward Gray Patterson. Mr. Butler for the past two years has been connected with the Sheriff's office in Wasco County and for two years prior to that was employed by the Government on the Dalles-Celilo canal work. He is a brother of Judge L. R. Butler, of The Dalles, well-known attorney and orator. Chauncey Butler married a daughter of Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles.

MOTHER'S SEARCH ENDS

DETECTIVES LOCATE DELBERT HAWLEY AND DAUGHTERS.

Woman Who Followed Weary Trail Trying to Find Missing Ones, May Be Well Rewarded.

Mrs. Agnes Shippy, of Boise, Idaho, yesterday reached the end of the long trail over which she had traced her husband and two small daughters, and the authorities are hoping that the family may go back home reunited and happy. Detective Hawley discovered the children at the Flower Mission Day Nursery, 404 Madison street, yesterday, and found the husband, Delbert Shippy, at Twelfth and Jefferson streets. Mrs. Shippy had told the police of following her husband and children here from Boise, making a portion of the journey on foot. Mr. Shippy and the girls disappeared September 20, and the wife turned detective and started out to find them. It is quite possible, the police say that Mr. and Mrs. Shippy may go back to Idaho together. At any rate, they have decided to let the custody of the children be decided by the local courts. Mr. Shippy says he left Idaho because his attorney advised him to take the case to the courts of that state.

The Oregonian Inspires Boy to Earn Two Bonds.

Blondel H. Carleton, Age 12, Invests $100. Earned by Various Chores, in Liberty Bonds.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Blondel H. Carleton, 12 years old, and son of E. E. Carleton, Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction, is a constant reader of The Oregonian and through reading that paper gained an inspiration to purchase Liberty bonds. Upon his own initiative he asked and secured his parents' consent to purchase the bonds and he has purchased two in $50 denominations, one of the first issue and one of the second. Putting in wood, picking logberries, selling magazines and handing tile to workmen on a drainage system of a neighboring town, were some of the jobs which brought him money for the Liberty bonds. In addition, a flock of laying hens, all of his own, contributed to the fund.

CEMENT PLANT OPERATES

Gold Hill's New Industry Gives Employment to 35 Men.

GOLD HILL, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Gold Hill's cement plant began operations Monday. The plant cost $700,000 and is strictly modern. Fletcher Linn, of Portland, who reorganized the plant, says the demand for cement is greater now than ever before and in operation will continue throughout the winter. About 35 men are employed in the plant. Two quarries have been placed in operation, one adjacent to the plant and the other about two miles from the city.

TIMBER TO BE SOLD

Instructions to Applicants Are Received Here.

BUYER TO CUT IN DECADE

Application Should Show That Logging Is Being Conducted in Vicinity, Price Offered and Other Details.

Timber on isolated tracts of the Oregon & California Railroad grant lands, now reverted in the United States Government, will soon be offered for sale, according to instructions just received by the Commissioner of the General Land Office from Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane. It is understood that plans for the opening of portions of these lands to entry are under consideration by the Government, but details and dates remain to be announced.

With reference to the sale of standing timber which is maturing on more isolated tracts of the grant lands, Ernest P. Bands, special agent in charge of classification of Oregon & California Railroad grant lands, yesterday said: "A person desiring to purchase timber on isolated tracts should make application to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, furnishing all data in connection therewith, showing that the lands are isolated and that logging is being conducted in the vicinity. The price he is willing to pay should also be stated. A duplicate of the application should be mailed to me at the Custom-House, Portland, Or."

Auction to Be Held.

After outlining methods to be followed in advertising the timber to be sold immediately an order from Washington gives this information: The sale will be held at public auction at the district land office of the district within which the land is situated, and conducted by the register of such office. The right to purchase at such sale will be limited to citizens of the United States, associations of such citizens and corporations organized under the laws of the United States or any state, territory or district thereof.

Timber Must Be Cut in 10 Years.

The register, before offering any portion of the timber advertised, shall advise all intending purchasers that the patent for the timber purchased will contain a clause fixing the period within which the timber must be cut and removed by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, at 10 years, and that no timber shall be removed until issuance of a patent therefor. No timber shall be sold for less than the appraised price, the Secretary of the Interior having full authority to reject any and all bids where the price offered is deemed inadequate.

ROBERT EAKIN EULOGIZED

Eastern Oregon Bar Pay Tribute to Late Supreme Justice.

LA GRANDE, Or., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Solemn eulogies, backed with sorrowful hearts, were tonight spoken to the memory of the late Justice Robert Eakin, who died at Salem recently. The scene of the memorial services was the La Grande Courthouse, where Mr. Eakin once presided as District Judge. Circuit Judge J. W. Knowles presided, and members of the bar of this and surrounding cities and many citizens attended. Many addresses were read and letters of condolence were read from Attorney Sam White, president of the Oregon Bar Association, and from John L. Band, of Baker, both of whom once officiated as District Attorneys under the deceased jurist. The exemplary character, striking talents and splendid personality of the late Judge were emphasized in the addresses and in letters read at the memorial services.

COMPANY L BANQUETED

$161 Turned Over to Mess Fund of Departing Soldier Boys.

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Company L of The Oregonians, with wives and mothers, were royally entertained at a banquet at the Dallas Army Sunday evening. During the exercises music was furnished by the Dallas music quartet, Oscar Hayter made the first address. Judge E. C. Kirkpatrick and the Rev. D. V. Poling gave the boys some good advice, whom the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic were the prime movers in the affair. During the evening an auction of cake and fruit gave the boys $109, and, with $52 collected by the Ladies of the G. A. R., $161 was turned over to Captain Staffin for the company mess fund. Several hundred people turned out at 9 o'clock to bid the boys goodbye at their departure on the train.

WAR TAX SETS PRICE

Some Theaters Will Advance Rates of Admittance.

SOME WILL COLLECT TAX

Public Will Pay in All Places of Amusement, One Way or Another—Pennies to Be Used in Change.

In response to the Government's new war tax of 10 per cent on all admissions, John A. Johnson, resident manager of Pantages Theater, and L. C. Keating, of the Lyric, both announced increases in admission prices to become effective November 1. The increase at Pantages Theater will be 5 cents straight on every admission. Seats now selling for 15 and 25 cents will be respectively 20 and 30 cents. Manager Johnson says that this price has already gone into effect in all other Pantages houses on the Pacific Coast. The problem at this theater was complicated by the fact that, according to the union scale for musicians, this advance in admission price means an increase in salary of $250 a week for every musician. At the Lyric the matinee price will remain 10 cents, while the evening prices will advance from 15 and 25 cents to 20 and 30 cents. L. C. Keating explained that he is gambling on the outcome. If more people attend the show in the afternoon the theater will lose money, but if they come in the evening it will gain. How the Lyric, Baker, Hippodrome and Strand theaters will meet the war tax has not yet been decided, though it is expected that the public will be made to pay the tax in all four. The plan now favored at the Baker is that of penny change, already adopted by the Orpheum. The advance in prices at all theaters has been made necessary by an enormous increase in production costs. As one manager explained it, the new war tax was the "last straw" that

The Doctor's Advice

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms will apply in any case of similar nature. Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Eliwood streets, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-known drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

pains, Backaches and often have chills and fever making me real sick for a day. Answer: A good tonic, soothing and neutralizing medicine for such complaints is Loxon Tablets. Try them and continue a few weeks and I am sure you will write me of your recovery.

Mrs. C. W. B. asks: "I suffer greatly owing to too much fat. Can you advise me of a good reduction remedy?" Answer: Any well stocked pharmacy can supply you with 5 grain arbolone tablets, packed in sealed tubes with full directions for use. These tablets have proven wonderfully effective in reducing abnormal fat.

"Fern" writes: "I have suffered with a bad cough for some time and I am also weak and tired most of the time, which I think is due to the severe coughing. Can you give me a remedy?" Answer: Yes, your weakness is due to the coughing, but you should be well relieved by using the following. Get a 1/2 oz. package of essence of menthol on the bottle, then take a teaspoonful of essence three times a day after meals. This makes a full pint of the very best and safest cough syrup. The drug store does not have menthol, have him order it for you of the wholesale firm.

Mrs. X. asks: "My scalp itches terribly, is feverish and a great amount of oily dandruff is present. What is good for this?" Answer: First shampoo the hair and then apply plain yellow methyl about once a week as per directions. This relieves the itching, overcomes the dandruff and makes the hair beautiful by supplying more food-energy and give your system a chance to recuperate, when calm nerves should take the place of shattered nerves.

"Workman" asks: "I am so affected with painful kidneys that I cannot work regularly. My sleep is disturbed by frequent calls, only to void small amount and follows burning, smarting

NOTE: For many years Dr. Baker has been giving free advice and prescriptions to millions of people through the press columns, and doubtless has helped in relieving illness and distress more than any single individual in the world's history. Thousands have written him expressions of gratitude and confidence.—Adv.

To Have Complexion That Men Admire "A man may admit, with great sophistication, that powder and rouge are necessary aids to beauty," says a well-known writer, "yet deep in his heart he dreams of the woman whose loveliness needs no artificial touching. Women who appreciate this, who give consideration to the masculine viewpoint, avoid using anything that might indicate their beauty is not all their own. Such women in increasing number are acquiring the mottled wax habit. By applying the wax at night as they would cold cream, washing it off in the morning, they secure, and maintain, entirely natural complexions. Their beauty, which appears almost imperceptibly, is healthy, bright, and bears a healthy, youthful bloom not comparable with the fixed artificial color."—Adv.
