BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

SOCIETY women are so deeply engaged in war work and in the preparations for the allied bazaar that will open in December, as well as Red Cross work, and the Superfluous Shop, that there is little time left for social functions. But these affairs are being converted into social affairs in a small way, for the matrons and maids gather at the homes of one or the other daily and pass many hours in a delightful manner working hard and fast, while they chat merrily and partake of tea and refreshments in accordance with the latest requests of the Food Commission.

There is one young maid, a clever artist, who devotes practically every afternoon to painting and decorating furniture to be sold at the Allied Bazaar, and she has corralled a number of her artistic friends to assist her in this work. They have solicited donations from large manufacturers of furniture, and they proceed to make it beautiful and colorful, so as to aid the soldiers of all nations who are giving their lives for their countries.

One of the most important events on the social calendar for today is the wedding of Miss Helen Sharpstein and Frank Clark White, of Spokane. The ceremony will be read at 8:30 o'clock in Alexandra Court, and it will be attended by a number of prominent Portland folks as well as a great many out-of-town relatives and friends. Dean McCollister will officiate, and the couple will be attended by Mrs. Ralph J. Hurlburt and Dr. Lawrence Quilliam, of Seattle. Miss Sharpstein is a charming and attractive young maid, and has made hosts of friends during her brief sojourns in this city. She is an ardent golfer, and gained distinction in the golf tournament at Gearhart last Summer. A dear old friend, Miss Brown Caswell, formerly of Walla Walla, will give the bride in marriage.

The Thursday Subscription Club has issued invitations for its second formal dance to be given Thursday evening of this week at the Elks hotel, corner Twenty-third and Washington streets. The club will give a series of five or six dances, but members will not be required to obligate themselves for the entire series, each affair being given as a separate party.

Rebekah Relief Board will give a 600 party in I. O. O. F. Temple, First and Alder street, at 2:30 P. M. today. All Rebekahs are invited to attend with their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels came from Medford for a few days and are registered at Hotel Portland.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—One of the prettiest luncheons of the season was given in this city on Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 6 o'clock by Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford and her sister, Mrs. Harold Swafford, at their home at Twelfth and Washington streets. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Charles Leonard, of Seattle, Wash., formerly Miss Ruth Brightbill, of this city, who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brightbill. The many friends of Miss Ford were taken by surprise. As they entered the reception hall, they were met by Mrs. Margaret Swafford attired in a red, white and blue frock, who presented them with a tiny silk flag to which was attached a card announcing the engagement of Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford to Garland E. Hollowell, of Gladstone. He is stationed at Camp Lewis, American Lake, with Battery D, Field Artillery. The date of the wedding has not been set.

Miss Ford was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. Harold Swafford, Mrs. Charles Leonard and Miss Nina Hollowell, sister of Mr. Hollowell. Assisting in the reception-room were Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence and Miss Nellie Rose.

Miss Ford was attired in a pale pink crepe meador and Georgette tulle with touches of apple-green. Mrs. Harold Swafford wore an attractive gown of red satin; Mrs. Charles Leonard, pale blue silk embellished with gold; Mrs. Rose, brown silk and chiffon; Mrs. Lawrence, white lace. Corsage bouquets of heliotropes, Cecil Brunner roses and maidenhair ferns were worn by those receiving.

Assisting in serving during the afternoon were Mrs. E. E. Brodie, Mrs. George Swafford, who presided at the table, and by Mrs. Viola Gordon Wright, of Portland; Mrs. T. W. Johnson, of Portland; Mrs. B. F. Ford, of Stayton, Or.; Mrs. O. J. Brown, of Portland; Miss Louise Walker, Miss Evelyn Harding.

Miss Ford is one of the well-known pianists of this city. She was born in the south, and comes from a prominent southern family. She has resided in Oregon most of her life. At Eugene Miss Ford was assistant piano instructor of the University of Oregon. Since taking up her residence in this city she has been organist of the Methodist Church, of which her father, Rev. T. B. Ford, was pastor for some time.

It was while organist in the church in this city that Miss Ford and Mrs. Hollowell's romance commenced. He was tenor soloist of their choir until enlisting at Camp Lewis. Miss Ford has appeared on many occasions in this city in concert, and has a host of friends here, as has also Mr. Hollowell.

Mr. Hollowell is the son of J. M. Hollowell, of Gladstone. He attended the O. A. C. and while a student of that institution was a soloist of the Glee Club, and was also a member of the Apollo Club of Portland during his residence there. He also spent some time in Hood River before taking up his home in the former city. He is a native of Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston W. Smith and daughter, Lacey Stutz, have returned from an extended visit of several months in Spokane and other cities, and they will make their home in this city for the Winter.

Dr. Arthur Van Dusen and George Judd of Astoria, spent the week-end in Portland at the Multnomah Hotel. Mr. Judd left Sunday for a visit with his mother in Salem, and plans to return today to Astoria.

WELL-KNOWN OREGON GIRL WHOSE ENGAGEMENT HAS JUST BEEN ANNOUNCED.

of the English army, and her home is in Edmonton, Alberta. Mrs. Biggs left Saturday for the East, to join her husband.

Friends of Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt are rejoicing with her family over her convalescence from a serious operation at St. Vincent's Hospital.

The Iowa State Society has completed arrangements for a large and elaborate function to take place tonight at the Multnomah Hotel. Dancing and cards will be the features of the programme, the assembly hall and tea gardens to be used. Mrs. Jennie Rhinehart is in charge of the affair.

Miss Vada Newton, of Corvallis, became the bride of Walter G. Carson, of Irigon, on Saturday morning at the home of the bride's parents in Corvallis. Mr. Carson is well-known Oregon man, and is employed in the United States Government Geological Survey. He is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College and is popular among a large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Carson left for a trip to Southern California, and later will make their home in Paso Robles, where the former is to take up his work.

Several prominent college women are due to reach the city today from Pullman en route to Corvallis where they will install a chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity. As a special courtesy to the visitors, a number of well-known Portland women who are active in sorority circles, will entertain with a tea tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the University Club. All members of the sorority are requested to attend the tea and extend greetings to the honor guest, Miss L. Pearl Green, of Ithaca, N. Y., secretary of the sorority; Mrs. Ford, vice-president, of Chicago, and Mrs. C. C. Dodge, of Weiser, Idaho, district president. These women have been installing a chapter in Pullman State College where they also have been entertained delightfully by their sorority sisters.

A wedding of interest to many Portlanders was performed Sunday, November 4, at Hood River, where Miss Leona Lauterbach, formerly of Portland, was united in marriage to Norman W. Mays, of Hood River, by Rev. J. L. Herzhner. The wedding was a simple affair, only a few intimate friends being present. The young couple will make their home in Hood River for a while.

The Cadet Club of Oregon Assembly, No. 1, United Artisans, will give a dance Thursday in W. O. W. Hall at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Florence Haddon is instructor and she has appointed the following committee: Esther Gibson, Margaret Hoffman, Clarissa Candlish, Helen Candlish, Daisy Russell, Mildred Wilhelm, Ellen Pearson and Bell Curtis. Special prizes for the card players.

Miss Bertha Matin and Harry A. Herzog were married Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Matin, Rev. A. Rosenkrantz officiating. The couple were unattended. It was a charming, although simple affair, with only relatives and closest friends attending.

The drawing-room was effectively decorated with gaily hued autumnal foliage. The wedding march was followed by Mrs. Sadye Evelyn Ford. The bride was attractive in a simple gown of white satin, embellished with pearls. Her veil was adorned with a band of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding supper was served. The evening was spent in dancing and music.

The young couple are domiciled in the Houseman apartments and are at home to their friends after November 10.

An event that is attracting considerable interest this week is the benefit dance and free concert by the Elks Band at the Multnomah Hotel Saturday night.

The affair has been arranged by the Knights of Columbus for the purpose of purchasing books for their recreation halls at the Camp Lewis cantonment. The popular affair will be headed by the Elks' Band in the lobby of the hotel between 8 and 9 o'clock after which there will be dancing in the two large ballrooms. John P. Cahalan has charge of the arrangements, assisted by C. P. Barrette, James F. Clarkson, Ray A. Sullivan, P. J. Hanley, James Fennell, Francis Bacon, A. F. Wain and Frank Whalen.

Utopia Rebekah Lodge will confer the Rebekah degree on Thursday evening, November 8, in Orient Hall. The degree staff will drill on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. C. M. Heaton, of Columbus, O., is to spend the Winter in Portland at the Elks' Hotel. Mr. Heaton is connected with one of the largest piano houses in the country.

Miss Ailsa MacMaster, chairman of the Portland branch, Girls' National Honor Guard, announced yesterday that all the girls in the organization are invited to attend the reception to be given on Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock in compliment to Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall.

The reception will be held on the mezzanine floor of the Multnomah Hotel and will be one of the most important events of the season. Captain Marshall is honorary vice-president of the Girls' National Honor Guard, he is particularly interested in the growth of this organization and success in Oregon and will be glad to meet all the members.

Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Breckenridge will arrive here tomorrow with H. W. Phelps, vice-president of the American Can Company, of New York, to spend a few days at the Multnomah Hotel. They will be entertained here by prominent folks with trips on the Highway, luncheons, dinners and theater parties.

Captain Meidell entertained with an elaborate dinner party previous to sailing for Norway. The affair was given at the Multnomah Hotel and was delightful in every detail. One of the private dining-rooms was used for the occasion. The table was adorned to represent New York Harbor and a Norwegian harbor, with ships, lighthouses, sailing vessels and wild flowers. Captain Meidell's guests numbered 16 men who are well known in shipping circles. He has been in Portland on several occasions in connection with the newly finished ships.

Today the MacDowell Club will entertain with a guest meeting at the Multnomah Hotel. The affair gives promise of interest and considerable enjoyment. The program has been arranged. Dr. Jonah B. Wise will read Tennyson's "Maud," while the alluring lyrics will be sung by Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke at the piano.

Mrs. Fletcher Linn left last week for New York, where she went as a delegate to a conference of college student secretaries of the women's board of the Methodist Church. These student secretaries are engaged in fostering religious life in girl students of colleges and universities and the purpose of the conference is to arrange methods of carrying on the work more effectively. Mrs. Linn will visit in Philadelphia and Chicago before returning home.

UNDER the general topic "Serve by Saving" the United States Food Administration has issued a series of articles containing suggestions that are most helpful and should be clipped by the housewives and pasted in their up-to-the-minute cook books. The latest one offers ideas for the use of oatmeal. Clubwomen are asked to read these at their conservation meetings, you make this matter of saving wheat offers much food for thought, doesn't it? Incidentally offers much tempting food for our palates.

Fortunately saving our wheat does not mean going without bread. It only means that we will be given the chance to get better acquainted with all the wheat substitutes that are grown right here in our own country, but which we have hitherto been inclined to slight because of the greater popularity of wheat.

Take oatmeal, for instance. Most of us have heard that found its way to our mouths—which was probably in the nursery. Then why don't you make oatmeal more than an occasional vis-
