Better Meals at Less Cost if You Own a South Bend Malleable Range
Perfect baking with a small amount of fuel is the most essential requisite in a range. The South Bend Malleable fills this important requirement. The body has a sheet of asbestos between 2 heavy sheets of Keystone plate. It is built like a boiler—riveted tight, stays tight.
The heat is kept inside the oven and range, where it belongs. For this reason it takes less fuel and, with reasonable care, will last a lifetime. Better meals, a saving of food, less labor and fuel costs are assured if you buy a South Bend Malleable Range.
Make Your Own Terms
Any person purchasing a South Bend Malleable Range will be allowed to make their own terms. Six-Floor, Fifth Street.

LOGANBERRY IS TOPIC
ADVERTISING CREDITED FOR BIG MARKET FOR OREGON DRINK.
Governor Withycombe at Rotary Club Luncheon Predicts Great Future for Commonwealth.
Fame of the loganberry was proclaimed by speakers, including Governor Withycombe, at yesterday's luncheon of the Rotary Club, held at the Hotel Benson. H. S. Giles, of the Pleasant Company, manufacturer of the juice which has already gained wide attention, also spoke, telling of the wonderful and varied field for this industry. The drink was served on the tables.
Besides detailing how his company has built up the industry until it is one of the greatest in the state and covers a wide field, Mr. Giles credited much of the success of the undertaking to judicious advertising, saying that his firm has expended large sums to make its product well known all over the world and is continuing to use newspaper and magazine space freely.
Governor Withycombe, responding to his name, declared that he had always been rated as a dreamer and is still a dreamer.

"I had a dream fully 20 years ago," said the Governor, "that Oregon would some day do a dairying business of $50,000,000 a year. By many I was laughed at, but we have already made it an annual industry of $20,000,000 and I am willing to wait a while and see the realization of the remainder of the dream; it will come."
"I have another dream concerning our great Willamette Valley, with its vast and fertile acreage. I can see 2,000,000 people living on small tracts of that valley, in plenty, and other sections of the state equally well populated. There Oregon will take her place, as she should, as a great commonwealth in the Union."
"To bring about the realization of these dreams, it is necessary for us to apply ourselves to the natural resources God has given us and to develop them, as has the company represented here today. I say, all honor to any one who will go about the big tasks of the day in this state as the men back of this company have done."
Negro Women Will Aid.
Negro women Monday night organized an auxiliary to the American Red Cross, meeting at the home of Mrs. William Tibbs, 824 East Pine street. The auxiliary starts with 20 members and all are enthusiastic and will do active work for the soldiers.

JACKSON PIONEER DEAD
JUDGE C. C. GALL PASSES IN HIS 85TH YEAR AT GOLD HILL.
Life Linked Actively With District Since 1852 and Tales of Indian War Brought Many Thrills.
Letters received by friends in this city announce the death of Judge C. C. Gall, pioneer of Oregon and Jackson County, who passed away on Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Isora Hodges, of Gold Hill.
Judge Gall was a veteran of the Rogue River Indian War and his tales of the stirring early days in Southern Oregon will long be remembered. Few men have enjoyed the general and affectionate respect which was given to him and his visits to any of the Southern Oregon towns, where he was equally well known, were always welcomed with genuine pleasure.
Judge Gall was nearing the close of his 85th year and had been a resident of Jackson County since 1852, when he pitched his first camp on the banks of the Rogue River, near Gold Hill. He was born in Franklin County, Missouri, and was the son of Jacob Gall, of Virginia, and Roxana H. Gall, of Kentucky.

He is survived by the following children: Albert L. Gall, Medford, Or.; Elam R. Gall, Sams Valley, Or.; Mrs. Carrie L. Smith, Pilot Rock, Or.; Mrs. Isora Hodges, Gold Hill, Or.; Ellis E. Gall, Ashland, Or.; Mrs. Minnie A. Rowe, Vallejo, Cal.; Mrs. Anna L. Myer, Ashland, Or.; Mrs. Dora V. Callor, Sacramento, Cal.; Mrs. Ardilla M. Newland, Roseburg, Or.; and Mrs. Cora E. Hargrave, Parma, Mont.
Judge Gall was one of the first settlers of Sams Valley, which derived its name from Chief Sam, of the Rogue River tribe of Indians, who was Judge Gall's personal friend. Gall's Creek, a small tributary of the Rogue, was named in honor of Judge Gall.
Funeral services for the pioneer were held yesterday at Gold Hill, with interment in Sams Valley Cemetery.
Fuel Investigation Wanted.
A special fuel commission to investigate and report upon the needs of Portland, exclusive of the other sections of the state, is recommended by the Chamber of Commerce to the State Fuel Commission. It is believed this might result in bringing about relief in the fuel oil shortage situation.
