Socialists Get Some Comfort (Through Carrying Dozen Assembly Districts.

HAPPY WOMEN EMBRACE

Suffrage Headquarters Scene of Near-Hysteria as Returns Come In—Total of 26 Republican Mayors Are Elected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—This city gradually is recovering from one of the bitterest campaigns in its history and Judge John F. Hylan, Tammany victorious candidate, is busy receiving the congratulations of his supporters, Mayor Mitchell and others.

Judge Hylan's plurality, based on virtually completed returns today, was 148,178. Mayor Mitchell's plurality four years ago was 121,209. With 27 election districts missing, the vote for Mayor stood:

John F. Hylan (Dem.), 297,282.
John Purroy Mitchell (Fusion), 149,207.
Morris Hillquit (Socialist), 142,178.
William M. Bennett (Republican), 53,678.

Socialists Get Comfort.

Aside from the overwhelming Tammany victory, the outstanding feature of the Mayor's election today was the great increase in the Socialist vote. In 1913 Charles Edward Russell, the Socialist candidate, polled but 22,100 votes. At the Presidential election last year Allan L. Benson, Socialist candidate for President, received 21,783 votes.

The Socialists, while disappointed because their vote was short of expectations, got some comfort out of the fact that they carried 12 Assembly districts, three of which are expected to send Socialists to the Assembly at Albany.

At both the city and state suffrage headquarters scenes approaching hysteria were enacted as the women showered embraces, kisses and congratulations upon each other. Then, as if sobered by the realization that other states still withheld the vote from their women, the leaders immediately set about pushing the campaign for the Federal amendment.

Republicans Cinch Offices.

While interest in the state centered in the suffrage question, the contest between Morton E. Lewis, Republican, and Devoe O. Hodson, Democrat, for Attorney-General brought out a heavy vote. Lewis brought to the city a plurality large enough to overcome Hodson's heavy lead and with 823 election districts missing today he had a majority over Hodson of more than 99,000. John Block, a Socialist, ran a poor third.

In addition to Attorney-General Lewis, the Republicans elected 98 of the 150 members of the 1918 assembly.

The Democrats elected 42 members and the Socialists nine. The 23d district of Kings was a tie between the Socialist and a candidate endorsed by both Republicans and Democrats, leaving the result to the soldier vote.

The Republicans also elected 26 Mayors in upstate cities.

Jacob Panken, Socialist, was elected to the Municipal Court in the Second District of Manhattan in yesterday's elections by a plurality of 587, according to returns compiled tonight.

out of a total vote of 244,914. The election was held to choose 12 Judges of the Superior Court and two Judges of the Circuit Court.

Fusionists commented on the "split vote" in the German-American sections of the city. In several districts heavily populated by persons of German birth the vote was overwhelmingly for the bipartisan candidates and in other German-American sections the Socialists were returned the victors.

POSTAGE RISE HITS STATE

Many War Taxes Do Not Apply. Stamp Cost to Jolt Candidates.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—While the state has exemptions from the main impositions of the new war tax law, it is becoming apparent already that the increase of 1 cent an ounce on first-class postage will make a serious raid on funds of several of the departments. It is even possible that the Emergency Board will be called in to bolster up the declining appropriations of a few of the departments.

The state is exempt from tax on freight rates, passenger or Pullman fares, deeds and certificates for sale of state lands, express charges and similar war taxes. Under the law also agricultural societies which do not pay returns to stockholders are exempt from the amusement tax, and this will save the state fair and numerous county fairs that receive state aid.

DRY ORDINANCE DRASTIC

Mere Possession of Liquor in Aberdeen Made a Crime.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—A new dry ordinance passed by the City Council tonight places the minimum fine at $50 and the maximum at $500 or 90 days in jail, or both fine and imprisonment. Heretofore fines ranged from $1 to $100, with or without a 30-day jail sentence.

On second conviction, the police judge must sentence the offender to pay a fine not less than $100 or more than $500, or 90 days in jail or both. The city announced its intention of employing secret agents to run down dry-law violators and passed an ordinance making the mere possession of liquor, except by a druggist, a crime.

Here's the "fake ad" law of Oregon

We put it there to convince skeptics that our claims are correct. Notice the fine for misleading statements. We never have been fined and never will be, because our statement is TRUE.

Here's our statement

Here's how we do it

- LOW RENT—Our upstairs rent is about one-fifth of the ground-level rent clothes.
- LOW PROFIT—Our values enable us to sell ten suits while others sell one. Obviously we can do business on about one-tenth the profit necessary for them.
- BUYING POWER—The enormous combined turnover of our stores in Portland and Seattle gives us a purchasing power that makes a lot of difference in the cost price from manufacturers.
- NO CUT-PRICE SALES—We have no out-of-season cut-price sales, at which we sell to others for $20.00 the same suit you paid $30.00 for in season. We sell you clothes when you want them at less than the ground-floor man sells them, when you DON'T want them.
- NO CREDIT—We sell for cash, only and always, and so avoid the necessity of adding 10 to 15 per cent to our selling price to cover losses from poor credit.
- NO EXPENSIVE FIXTURES—to pay interest on.

No matter how much you are THEORETICALLY convinced of the possibilities of our proposition you will never be PRACTICALLY convinced until you come up and see.

Our Stock of 5000 Garments Includes:

- Belted Overcoats—All latest styles.
- Conservative Overcoats—All styles, satin lined, sleeves silk lined.
