CZEK BAZAAR NOVEMBER 24-26.—The Czeks (Bohemians) of this city will hold a bazaar November 24 to 26, in Bohemian Hall, East Fourteenth and Duke streets, for the benefit of the Bohemian soldiers and their families. A local Bohemian said yesterday: "There are about 20,000 Czeks fighting in the armies of the allies. Nearly all are deserters from the Austrian and German armies. They are fighting against their old oppressors, the Germans. They are fighting for the freedom of their country, Bohemia. They see a chance to get free from the rulers and gladly sacrifice their lives. The Czeks in Bohemia are starving. All the men between 16 and 60 are drafted." All who wish to help these people are invited to visit the Bohemian bazaar, which will open Saturday.

DR. FOSTER TO SPEAK.—Dr. W. T. Foster, president of Reed College, will address public meetings at Corvallis today, Oregon City tomorrow and Hood River November 27. He will leave for California November 28. He will meet engagements at Grants Pass and Ashland November 30, Red Bluff, December 2; Marysville, December 3; Sacramento, December 4; San Francisco, December 5; Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, December 6; Berkeley, University of California, and Oakland, December 7; San Francisco, December 8. Between December 9 and 14 he will meet engagements in Southern California and will speak at Roseberg December 16 on his way back to Portland.

CORPORAL LOHKAMP WOUNDED.—Information received here by Mrs. E. R. Lohkamp, 481 Mason street, states that her husband, Lance Corporal E. R. Lohkamp, now with the Canadian forces in France, who was recently reported wounded in action, has been committed to the Third Australian Receiving Station at a base in France. Mr. Lohkamp enlisted in the Canadian army in January, 1917, in Vancouver, B. C. He left Canada in February. Previous to enlisting he was employed by the Wells-Fargo Company, and before that was for five years with the Great Northern Express Company.

BOOTLEGGER PAYS FINE.—Payment of $250 by C. J. Dean, of the Holly Lodge roadhouse, yesterday saved him from a term in the County Jail. He was fined $300 some months ago on a bootlegging charge and had paid only $50 of the fine. Yesterday he was haled before Presiding Judge Kavanaugh and given until 2 P. M. either to pay the fine or serve it out in jail. His attorney appeared shortly before the appointed hour and paid over the money, and further prosecution was dropped.

EXPERIENCED SALESMEN ARE SCARCE.—A shortage of experienced, well-trained salesmen exists throughout the country, according to a statement by J. S. Knox, well-known author of business books, who spoke at the Rotary Club luncheon in the Hotel Benson yesterday. He cited in support of his declaration a report of the Russell Sage foundation, which showed that 95 per cent of American men are inefficient in business.

WHISKY DESTROYED AS THIRSTY LOOK ON.—While thirsty souls peered longingly from the windows above, Sheriff Hurlburt yesterday directed the destruction by his deputies of approximately 150 gallons of liquor which had been seized from Portland bootleggers during recent raids. The liquor for the most part was contained in quart bottles, although several 15-gallon barrels were broken open.

"STAR ATHLETE IS FINED.—"Pudge" Brown, Franklin High School's star athlete, who was arrested Monday night for violating the ordinance prohibiting the frequenting of poolrooms by minors, was fined $7.50 by Municipal Judge Rossman yesterday afternoon. Several of Brown's frat brothers who had accompanied him to court pooled their resources and he departed, a sadder and a wiser youth.

TERMINAL COMPANY SUED.—Damages amounting to $2500 are demanded from the Northern Pacific Terminal Company and the American Can Company in a personal injury suit filed yesterday by John H. Gunilly, a former employe of the American Can Company, who alleges he sustained serious injuries October 2, last, when he tripped over a spike while working in a freight car on the railroad siding.

LONGSHOREMAN IS ARRESTED.—Ed Anderson, a longshoreman, was arrested early yesterday at his room, 348 East Fifteenth street North, by Special Agents Scott and Jeffries on a charge of bootlegging. About ten quarts of whisky were found in his room. Anderson is said to have admitted his bootlegging operations.

AD CLUB TO VISIT STOCK SHOW.—Members of the Portland Ad Club will meet at the Hotel Benson at 11:30 o'clock this morning. Automobiles will be supplied to take them to the Livestock Exchange Hotel in North Portland, where luncheon will be served at noon. Later, they will be shown through the show by special guides.

MASS MEETING WEDNESDAY, 21st inst, 8 P. M. at Turn Hall. Speakers will explain why miners of Butte were denied affiliation with A. F. of L. Questions answered. Benefit of families of striking miners and smeltermen. Craft unionists especially invited. Admission free.—Adv.

COMPANY C BOYS TO BE REMEMBERED.—An important meeting is to be held at the Central Library tonight at 8 o'clock to arrange for packing a Christmas box for the boys of Company C. All members and friends are requested to attend.

L. K. DICKSON TO LECTURE.—Tonight at 7:30 L. Klaer Dickson will speak on "The Mark of the Beast." This will be one of a series of lectures which Mr. Dickson is delivering in the clubhouse. The public is invited. Admission free. There will be special music.

CREDIT MEN TO MEET.—The Portland Association of Credit Men will hold its monthly meeting in Hotel Benson tonight, beginning with a dinner at 6:30. Special music will be furnished and Private E. G. Hannah will relate his experiences at the front.

THEODORE TRAUTMANN DEAD.—A message received yesterday by Mrs. G. Castendiek, 345 Sixteenth street North, announces the death of Theodore Trautmann at his late residence in Chicago, after a lingering illness of more than six months. Mr. Trautmann was well known in Portland as proprietor of Trautmann's Cafe, having at one time been identified with the Arlington and Commercial clubs. He was born in Germany and came to Portland 33 years ago. In 1893 he was married to Miss Minna Winter, a niece of Mrs. Castendiek. Mr. Trautmann was a prominent member of the Portland Social Turnverein, the German Benevolent Society, Multnomah Lodge and Knights of Pythias. In May, 1916, Mr. Trautmann left for Chicago to establish himself in business again, and a few months later was joined by his wife and two boys, Fritz and Theodore, Jr.

PORT WILL BE ASKED TO PAY.—The city will demand of the Port of Portland that payment be made the city for repairs necessary to a large sewer which has been mashed in for a length of 700 feet by a fill made in the Goldsmith tract on the East Side by dredges of the Port of Portland. City Commissioner Barbur called the proposition to the attention of the City Council yesterday. He says the dredges pumped sand and gravel into the track covering the sewer so deep that it was mashed by the weight over it. It is said to be an almost complete wreck. The damage will amount to about $5000, Mr. Barbur estimates.

MAN INJURED AND LOSES WHEEL.—Ed Singh, a foreman for the Bridal Veil Lumber Company, is out of luck all around. Not only did he sustain painful injuries in a smash-up on Columbia River Highway Sunday evening, but he also lost his motorcycle. After having been taken to the hospital by the automobile party which crashed into his motorcycle, he was assured that his motorcycle would be brought to the city for him. After remaining at the hospital over night Mr. Singh was unable to locate his motorcycle, which bears Oregon license M. 87. He has asked county officials to assist him in his search.

INVENTORY CLERK PROPOSED.—An inventory clerk to keep tab on all city property, including machinery, equipment and supplies, may be created by the City Council. A proposal along this line was made at a meeting yesterday, it being the opinion that such a man could save many times his salary in a year by handling stuff discarded by one department and available for another. The tentative plan is to assign this work to C. F. Wiegand, now chief clerk of the Department of Public Utilities. Mr. Wiegand, it is said, could handle the work and take care of the city museum. His present position of chief clerk would be abolished.

L. W. FREEMAN FOUND DEAD.—L. W. Freeman, proprietor of a little tailor shop at 305½ First street, was found dead yesterday in the shop, which has been his residence as well as his place of business. Neighbors noticed a lack of activity about the shop yesterday morning, and early in the afternoon broke into the place. They found no clues either on the dead man's clothes or about the premises to establish further identity. Mr. Freeman was about 50 years old. His death is ascribed to natural causes.

H. H. MOORE IN WASHINGTON.—H. H. Moore, secretary of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, has been in Washington, D. C., the past week, where he is working with Major Snow, who is in charge of sex education work in the division surgeon's office of the Army. Secretary Moore was sent on to Washington by the executive board of the society to get into the closest possible touch with the military authorities so that co-operation along these lines might prove effective.

HOME VISITS URGED.—"Home for Thanksgiving" will be the slogan of the Southern Pacific passenger department and all points on its lines in Oregon will enjoy the benefits of special round trip rates. A heavy travel is anticipated. Sales dates for holiday rates from Oregon stations to California points are November 24, 25, 26 and 27, with a final return limit December 15. Sales dates for reduced fares between stations in Oregon are November 28 and 29, with a return limit of December 3.

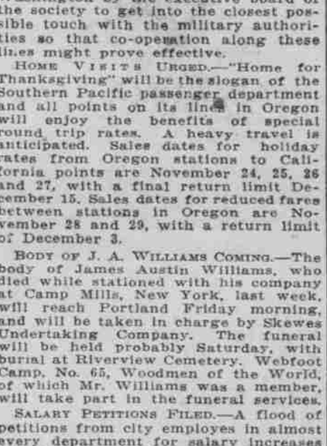
BODY OF J. A. WILLIAMS COMING.—The body of James Austin Williams, who died while stationed with his company at Camp Mills, New York, last week, will reach Portland Friday morning, and will be taken in charge by Skewes Undertaking Company. The funeral will be held probably Saturday, with burial at Riverview Cemetery. Webfoot Camp, No. 65, Woodmen of the World, of which Mr. Williams was a member, will take part in the funeral services.

SALARY PETITIONS FILED.—A flood of petitions from city employes in almost every department for salary increases will be consigned to the official files today by the City Council. The budget has been fixed for next year, and the petitions are to be given no further consideration. Among them are petitions from the firemen and policemen for 25 per cent increases, and petitions from dozens of other employes for increases ranging from 10 to 50 per cent.

R. B. KNIGHT UNDERGOES OPERATION.—R. B. Knight, pioneer druggist of Portland, who has been ill at his residence, 235 Chapman street, for the last month, underwent an operation last night. At a late hour he was reported rallying, and the outlook was for a reasonably quick recovery, according to Dr. R. J. Chipman, who performed the operation. Mr. Knight is 69 years old.

COLORADO SOCIETY TO ENTERTAIN.—The Colorado State Society will give a card party Friday evening, November 23, on the second floor of the Oregon building, Fifth and Oak streets. Women are requested to bring sandwiches. All former residents of Colorado are cordially invited to attend.

WAR FORCES GREAT VIOLINIST BACK TO STAGE.



Ysaye, Belgian Master.

Good news, not only for lovers of the violin, but for all serious musicians, is the announcement that Ysaye, the world's recognized "greatest violinist," will give a concert here November 28. This will be the wonderful musician's positive farewell tour of this country, and on his trip across the continent he is receiving one great ovation after the other.

Ysaye is a Belgian, and before the war he had retired to his home near Brussels to enjoy the fruits of his life's work and to settle down in contentment with his family. Then came the invasion of his country, his sons were called to the colors, his home devastated and his competence gone,

Manufacturers of State Meet to Discuss Problems.

EXHIBITION IS NOTABLE

Various Kinds of Ice Cream and Machinery Used in Manufacture Are Shown—Programme to Be Continued Today.

Ice cream makers of the state to the number of 63 rallied to the second annual convention of the Pacific Northwest Ice Cream Manufacturers' Association at the Hotel Portland yesterday. The meetings will continue today and tomorrow. In addition to business there are numerous entertainment features.

An "ice cream clinic" was held, at which many of the problems that arise to vex the manufacturer of the frozen dainty were considered. Many hints were given that were of great value to those who took part in the meeting.

Bert H. Walker, of Spokane; S. Stray, Seattle; J. C. Peck, Portland; H. Menzell, Everett; A. M. Embrey, Great Falls; S. S. Morse, Montesano; H. E. Almond, Vancouver, Wash.; A. N. Henderson, Denver; J. W. McCalder, Eureka, Mont., and A. F. Bird, Seattle, were speakers.

Reception Is Held.

Last night a reception was held in the exhibition hall on the ground floor of the hotel, where various kinds of ice cream making machinery and similar displays are on view. Equipment and supply men were in charge.

The convention opened yesterday with a complimentary breakfast at the Broadway Hazelwood at 8:15 and at 9:30 in the blue room at the Portland the address of welcome was given by Mayor Baker. T. S. Townsend, of the Portland committee of arrangements, responded.

Business of the convention was followed by the address of the president, P. N. Martin, of Spokane. J. D. Mickle, State Dairy and Food Commissioner, discussed the industry as a whole and C. W. Dorman, of Los Angeles; F. B. Flood, of Spokane; Dr. George Parrish, City Health Officer, and E. W. Wheeler, of Eugene, made addresses.

Programme Is Diverse.

Today's programme follows:

9:30 A. M.—"Value of Knowing Your Mix," T. Mojonier, Chicago, Ill. Discussion introduced by H. R. Hoefler, Astoria, Or.

"Condensed Facts," C. E. Rogers, Detroit, Mich. Discussion opened by E. G. Emery, Courtenay, B. C.

"Conserving Materials Used in the Manufacture of Ice Cream," Carl Schallenger, Hazelwood Company, Portland, Or. Discussion introduced by S. J. Simonson, Cascade Creamery, North Yakima, Wash.

"Uniformity of Containers and Packages," E. W. Ellis, Mutual Creamery, Seattle, Wash. Discussion introduced by Victor Sampsell, Yellowstone Creamery, Billings, Mont.

2:30 P. M.—Round table talk (members only).

Reports of committees and election of officers.

"Symposium," Lessons from the National convention.

5 to 6 P. M.—Meeting of directors.

Wednesday evening—Entertainment features to be announced.

HARRISON BROCKBANK IS WELL KNOWN IN PORTLAND.

Baritone Who Achieved Signal Success in Grand Opera Has Important Role in "Miss Springtime."

Harrison Brockbank, who sings the baritone role in Klaw & Erlanger's big musical show, "Miss Springtime," which comes to the Heilig Theater next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, has a host of friends in Portland through his splendid playlet, "The Drummer Boy of '75," in which he was a vaudeville headliner for two seasons. Mr. Brockbank is an Englishman and had won a distinguished place in grand opera before he was brought to America several seasons ago to sing at one of the Cincinnati musical festivals.

He sang the original baritone role in "Pagliacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" in London and was one of the leading artists in Sir Augustus Harris' Royal Opera Company at Covent Garden. Also he was the original baritone with the first Hungarian orchestra to visit London, and he made concert tours throughout the principal cities of Europe with Patti, Melba and the Joachim quartet.

Mr. Brockbank's eldest son, a lad of 19, was killed at La Basse a year ago. He had enlisted in the 19th Middlesex Regiment at the beginning of the war.

OREGON RANCHER SUED

PLAINTIFF IS WASHINGTON ATTORNEY WHO TRIES TO COLLECT FEE.

Payment Resisted on Ground That Representative Sinnott Secured Passage of Act That Gave Settlers Their Money.

Trial of the suit of Samuel Herrick, a Washington, D. C., attorney, against Charles W. Barzee, a Sherman County rancher, was concluded yesterday before a jury in Circuit Court Judge Gatens's court. The case involves the years of efforts of Sherman County settlers to secure relief from the Federal Government after certain lands which had been thrown open for settlement were taken over by the Government for The Dalles military road. The case was given to the jury last evening. If a verdict is reached it will be returned this morning.

After the settlers were required to give up their land, they employed Herrick to represent them before Congress and the Land Office officials in their efforts to secure financial settlements. On August 11 last a special appropriation bill was passed by Congress appropriating $90,000 for the benefit of these settlers. This bill was introduced and piloted through Congress by Congressman Sinnott, who is now in Portland as a witness in the litigation.

The bill provides that Barzee should recover $1900, and Herrick is now suing for $380, claiming that he had a contract with the defendant to recover 20 per cent in commission for securing the desired relief.

The defendant refuses payment on the ground that the attorney did not aid in having the bill passed by Congress, his contention being that the bill was passed in spite of Herrick. Congressman Sinnott is here as a witness for the defendant.

Several letters written by Barzee to Herrick, in which the writer made frequent laudatory reference to Victor Berger, Wisconsin's Socialist Congressman, were introduced in evidence. The letters referred to the "down-trodden people" and "anti-capitalists."

ESSAY CONTEST ATTRACTS

Long List of Prizes Offered by Home Industry League.

The essay contest on "Home Industries," in which the high school students and the sixth, seventh and eighth-grade pupils are engaged will close Saturday night.

Unusual interest is being displayed and the young people, notwithstanding the fact that many other contests have made a bid for their attention, are finding time to visit many local factories and are gaining valuable impressions of the worth of payrolls and the necessity on the part of our citizens in patronizing the Oregon manufacturer.

The long list of prizes offered by the local manufacturers through the Home Industry League will be awarded by a committee of judges made up of the advertising managers of Portland's daily papers.

GOLD HILL, Or., Nov. 20. — (Special.)—Merle B. Kellogg, of Gold Hill, who enlisted in the aerial service early in the war and was assigned to the Eighteenth squadron stationed at the San Diego training grounds, has been made a Corporal. In writing to his father, A. E. Kellogg, at Gold Hill, he said: "I don't think there is much chance of my getting to fly until after the war as it looks now as if I will be kept in the shops as an instructor, on account of the scarcity of motor mechanics."
