HIBERNIANS ELECT OFFICERS.—The following officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians were unanimously elected last Monday evening to serve for the ensuing year: President, E. H. Deery; vice-president, John R. Murphy; recording secretary, Edmund J. Murrane; financial secretary, T. R. McGulgan; treasurer, John B. Coffey; sergeant-at-arms, Thomas P. Dougherty; sentinel, Robert B. Day; standing committee, Thomas Tuohy, chairman; J. H. Drennan, P. J. Ferguson, J. P. Kerby and J. Kelly.

ABATEMENT CASES DUE TODAY.—Temporary injunctions against six of the 17 houses named in abatement proceedings started a week ago by District Attorney Evans, will be sought at a hearing this morning before Presiding Judge Kavanagh. It is alleged the houses are used for immoral purposes and the District Attorney seeks to have them closed for this purpose pending the final determination of the abatement proceedings.

SMALLER CANDY MEN FORCED TO COMPLY.—According to reports received by Assistant Police Commissioner Evans, well, all of the smaller candy manufacturing establishments in the city are now living up to the 50 per cent cut on the amount of candy which they are held by the Government. It was necessary, however, for an order to be issued to force compliance with the law.

BOY'S CASE IS SET.—Presiding Judge Kavanagh yesterday set December 12 as the date for hearing the mandamus petition of Mrs. Wm. J. McMillan against Juvenile Judge Tazwell and Will F. Spencer, of the Juvenile Court, which the attorney alleges the officials are attempting to "railroad" her 15-year-old son to the state training school and are keeping secret all records in the case.

BOOTH LOWREY ENTERTAINS.—Booth Lowrey, the Blue Mountain philosopher, entertained the members of the Rotary Club at their luncheon in the Hotel Duquesne yesterday afternoon. He presented sketches and laugh-provoking "stunts." He lived up to his advance notice as "A laugh-producer of unusual merit."

SCHOOL BOARD IS SUED.—Suit to recover $2548 from the Portland School Board was started yesterday in the Circuit Court by D. H. McKelvey, a landscape gardener who was employed to improve the grounds of the Franklin High School. The school board refused to pay him in full for his services, which included a number of "extras" in addition to the regular contract.

ANOTHER TONG CASE SET.—The second of a long series of trials for complicity in the recent Chinese tong killings will be started Friday morning in the Circuit Court when Judge James H. Hin, president of the Suez Sing tong, will be placed on trial for second degree murder. The first trial against Gong Woo, secretary of the tong, resulted in a directed verdict for acquittal by Circuit Judge Gaten.

COLONEL DISQUE TO SPEAK.—Colonel Eric P. Disque, commanding the spruce production division of the Signal Corps, with headquarters at Portland, will be the speaker at the meeting of the members' council of the Chamber of Commerce at noon next Monday. He has not announced his formal subject, but it probably will relate to his work in getting out of the plane stock.

COMPLAINT IS DEFECTIVE.—Because of a defective complaint, District Judge Jones dismissed the charge against John Fletcher, who was accused of publishing false advertisements in connection with the sale of automobiles. He is alleged to have advertised and sold as new machines, a consignment which had been damaged in transit from the factory.

MAN AND WHISKY TAKEN.—Lorenza Beers and a suitcase laden with 12 quarts of whisky were intercepted at an East Side depot yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Christofferson and Ward Beers. They had just arrived from San Francisco. He was taken to the County Jail and held under a charge of bootlegging.

ESTATE VALUED AT $38,000.—An estate valued at $38,000 was left by the late H. Wolf, Portland merchant, according to the court inventory filed yesterday by the appraisers. The estate consists mainly of cash in the bank and numerous small promissory notes, all of which are appraised at their full face value.

LABEL SUIT ON TRIAL.—Trial of the suit of Johanna Kovick against Caroline Bukovi was started yesterday in the Circuit Court. The plaintiff demands $5000 in damages for the alleged defamation of her character by the Bukovi woman. She alleged false charges against her chastity had been made to many people.

EMBEZZLEMENT IS CHARGED.—George Moss, a former employe of R. J. Jones, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Constable Dorn on a charge of embezzling $18 from his former employer. It is alleged he collected $18 from a creditor and failed to account for it. He is held for District Court action.

REED LECTURE SCHEDULED.—The first lecture in the Reed College course on "International Organization" will be given tonight at 8 o'clock, in Library Hall, by Paul H. Douglas on the subject of "Nationality and Geography." This lecture is open to the public.

SPOKEN BRASS RECOVERED.—About 80 pounds of brass found in the possession of stolen within the last two months from the Pacific Marine Works, East Main and East Water streets, were recovered yesterday by Detectives Graves and Hellyer.

Paul Laurence Dunbar, the famous colored poet, who died two years ago, and it was the publisher's assistance that first set the struggling versifier on the road to fame and renown as one of the foremost of all American poets. Mr. Carroll came to Portland in August, 1902, becoming managing editor of the Oregon Journal, a position which he occupied until May, 1908, when he became managing editor of the Evening Telegram.

Among his many accomplishments for Portland are numbered the annual Rose Festival and the public market, which was named by municipal authorities "Carroll Market" in his honor. Portland business men yield to him the credit for the inception of the Rose Festival, and maintain that his tireless energy in behalf of the famed floral show was a determining factor in its establishment, and that his efforts for the public market, as in all things he undertook, was marked by a thoughtful and zealous application that had for its goal the ideal of civic improvement.

Rotary Club Pays Tribute. At a session of the Rotary Club yesterday afternoon, the members, by a rising vote, adopted a motion to prepare resolutions of sorrow in the loss of their friend and fellow townsman. "A fair fighter, a square friend and a constructive, broad-visioned citizen and publisher," was the tribute paid to his memory by Marshall N. Dana, at the Rotary Club meeting.

To his task as a publisher and the accomplishment of his constructive ideals Mr. Carroll brought the full power of wide and well-selected reading, a general knowledge of all literature, a thorough familiarity with the best and a keen understanding of economics.

He was held to be an authority on the fine arts and brought to their consideration a true love of the beautiful. Etchings, rare rugs and tapestries, porcelain—whatever portrayed the genuine expression of art—were his favorite studies and themes of his leisure hours.

Rank High in Masonry. John Francis Carroll was born at St. Clair, Pa., June 15, 1858, the son of Ideals Mr. Carroll and Catherine (Jordan) Carroll. On May 1, 1888, he was wedded to Florence Hurlbut, of Denver, Colo. He was a member of the Scottish Rite Masons and the Mystic Shrine.

He is survived by his wife and eight children. Residing at the family home in this city are Margaret, Edwin, Walter and Gerton. Mrs. Manton Mitchell.

COCK OF WALK IS TARGET Rooster Controversy Finds Its Way to City Council.

The rooster controversy which has raged for months in the "letter" column of the newspapers has shifted at last to the City Council. An ordinance has been sent to the Council to oust the roosters because of their crowing.

The measure as presented makes it "unlawful to feed any rooster on any city lot in any city block having eight or more dwellings thereon or on any lot in any double block having 16 or more dwellings thereon, from the first day of May to the first day of January each year, unless written consent is obtained from each and every resident within a radius of 400 feet in each direction from the lot on which said rooster is being fed."
