ANTILLY AUXILIARY TO MEET

A benefit dance and card party, in the midst of which will be served a hot lunch, will be given by the Oregon Field Artillery Auxiliary tomorrow night at Log Cabin Assembly Hall, Ivy Street and Vancouver avenue. The committee in charge is Miss Margaret Howatson, chairman, and Messdames R. L. Adams, Harry Livingstone, M. F. Whitney and T. S. Loughlin. The funds will be used for Batteries A and B, 147th Field Artillery.

SLIDES ON RAILROAD.—Small slides on the line of the Tillamook branch of the Southern Pacific Company, near Wheeler, were reported yesterday to General Superintendent Dyer as blocking the road and holding up trains. The work of clearing away mud that covered the track as the result of recent heavy rains was going forward actively yesterday and it is expected conditions will be restored to normal this morning.

FORECLOSURE SUIT STARTED.—Appointment of a receiver and foreclosure of a $25,000 mortgage are demanded in a suit filed yesterday against the Central Heating Company by the Illinois Savings Bank, trustee for the stockholders of the alleged defunct concern. The suit is based on the alleged failure of the company to meet payment of interest on its $25,000 in bonds which were issued in April, 1914.

HOY IS HURT BY ELEVATOR.—William Greenfield, 18, employed in the wholesale department of Sherman, Clay & Co., was severely bruised about the face yesterday afternoon when he burst his head into the freight-elevator shaft to ascertain the position of the elevator. He was hit by the roof of the elevator, rising from below. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

DAMAGES OF $7000 ASKED.—Damages amounting to $7000 are asked in a personal injury suit filed yesterday by Leah Zovis against A. Rossi for alleged injuries sustained when she fell when Rossi's son drove his machine into a car in which she was riding. She alleges she sustained serious and permanent internal injuries as a result of the accident.

CHANUCA SERVICES SET.—Services will be held at Congregation Ahavah Shalom, Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8 o'clock; tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. Chanuca, the feast of lights, will be celebrated by the children of the Sunday school. A special program had been arranged. Rabbi R. Abrahamson will officiate.

CAR PARKS TO BE TOPIC.—A general discussion of the question, "Should the Realty Board join in the request that the streetcar company be granted relief?" will be held at the luncheon of the Portland Realty Board in the Crystal room of the Benson Hotel today. All members are requested to prepare to express their views on the subject.

EDITOR-EDUCATOR VISITS PORTLAND.—A. E. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education, and an educator of national reputation, was in Portland yesterday on his way south after having spent some time in the Pacific Northwest. Mr. Winship called upon Superintendent Alderman of the city schools, an old friend.

SYNAGOGUE TO GIVE PLAY.—"Chanuca," or the feast of dedication, will be concluded with appropriate exercises at the Sixth Street Synagogue on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. In connection with the program will be featured a comic play in which cast will include some of Portland's talented young folks.

PASSENGER AGENT IN CITY.—C. E. Benjamin, general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific, of Montreal, Limited, trans-Pacific lines, of Montreal, was in Portland yesterday, calling upon passenger men with headquarters here. Mr. Benjamin expects to reach Chicago for Christmas.

TRAFFIC MANAGER HERE.—Charles S. Fee, passenger traffic manager for the Southern Pacific, who has been in San Francisco, reached the city last night from Puget Sound on his way back to headquarters. He will be in this territory several days. He is at the Portland Hotel.

BENEFIT SALE ARRANGED.—The Oregon Coast Artillery Auxiliary has arranged for the sale of home-made pastry and cake, also home-made jellies and preserves, in the Bay City Market, at Yamhill and Fourth streets, on Saturday, December 15.

PARADE IS ANNOUNCED.—The women of the First Spiritualist Church on Sixth and Montgomery streets will give a bumper and country store today and Saturday beginning at 10 o'clock this morning and continuing until tonight.

HOOPER DINNER AT SUNNYSIDE.—The Ladies Aid of the Sunnyside Congregational will serve an excellent Hooper dinner, with chicken pie, in the dining room of the church this evening from 6:30 o'clock on.

REBEKAHS TO MEET.—Columbia Rebekah Lodge No. 3 will have their last initiation of this term on January 5, when the installation of the new officers will be held.

CHINESE MURDER CLEARED

"China Sam" Divulges Name of Man Who Killed Roseburg Chinaman. Roseburg, Or., Dec. 13.—(Special.)—That "murder will out" was illustrated here yesterday when an aged Chinaman, known as "China Sam," informed the officers that he had knowledge of the man responsible for the murder of a Chinaman in this city about two years ago. The victim was killed during the night and his body was found the following day by officers.

WOMEN DEMAND "SMOKES"

Kelly Butte Problem Passed On by Mayor to Other Officials. Here's one of the hard ones Mayor Baked now has to face. City Health Officer Parrish reported yesterday that the women confined in the city's detention home for women at Kelly Butte demand the right to smoke. Dr. Parrish says the great majority of these women are addicted to the tobacco habit and insist that they be provided with cigarettes and pipe tobacco. Some, he says, roll their own while others either smoke pipes or fancy cigarettes.
