Enthusiastic Meeting Held in This City and Canrosign Planned to Raise Money to Be Expended in Cause of Soldier Recreation.

While the various auxiliaries are providing sweaters, wristlets, bandages, supplies and many other different articles for the comfort and care of the men emlisted under the colors, their social life is not forgotten. Yesterday in the interest of the important factor primarily, one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the year was held in the Multnomah Hotel.

L. C. Gilman presided and general plans were made for the establishment of Army and Navy recreation centers, for the strengthening of the work of the Women's War Council and for the While the various auxiliaries are Portland Last to Act.

At all of the larger concentration camps work for the moral and physical welfare of soldiers is well under way and Portland happens to be the last large city near a barracks to provide a clubhouse for soldiers at leisure. For this purpose $25,000 has already been pledged by Mayor Baker on behalf of this city. This sum is included in the budget which is to be submitted to subscribers.

THOMAS STRONG TESTIFIES AS TO MRS. FAMING'S CONDITION.

Witness Admits Writing Letter to For-

This is the only occasion during the year when the beautiful Scottish Rite Cathedral, at Lownsdale and Morrison etreets, is open to others than members of the order and all blue lodge members are invited to take advantage of the occasion.

The entire building will be epen for inspection, and a lunch will be served. The Cathedral Guards will have charge of the building and will see that all visitors have a good time.

Last year several hundred Blue Lodge Masons visited the cathedral during the afternoon. The reception will be held from 2 to 5 o'clock on New Year's day.

Witness Admits Writing Letter to Former County Clerk in 1911, in undertaker.

The witness admitted writing a letter to a former County Clerk in 1911, in which he had to guarantee the genuineness of Mrs. Faling's signature to some legal paper. He said this was necessary because of her nervous condition, which made her writing appear unnatural.

Vesterday was the seventh day in which Mr. Strong has occupied the the chief beneficiaries of the $500,000 estate now under contest by W. Tyler Smith, of Sheridan, Or.

Mr. Strong said that he had made out a number of wills for the late Xarlfa Jane Faling in 1911 and one legal paper. He said this was nome legal paper. He said this was necessary because of her nervous condition, which made her writing appear unnatural.
