

The Oregonian

Portland, Oregon. Entered at Portland (Oregon) Postoffice as second-class mail matter. Subscriptions: (Oregon) in advance: (By Mail) Daily, Sunday included, six months... $3.00

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of news dispatches created by it...

PORTLAND, SATURDAY, JAN. 5, 1918.

INJURY TO AMERICA'S CAUSE.

Government in a democracy is by public opinion. There can be no enlightened and responsible opinion unless there shall be knowledge...

Western Manhood. The low percentage of rejections on physical grounds of applicants at the Portland station for enlistment in the Navy need not surprise anyone.

Conserving Farm Machinery. Every practical measure that will have the effect of conserving farm machinery becomes imperative in the light of National necessity.

Restoring the Homes of a Stricken People. Restoration of the homes of a stricken people has more than a material aspect.

Family Life in Jerusalem. The National Geographic Society issues a war geography bulletin on the family life of the peasants in the outskirts of Jerusalem...

Luck Thrift Stamp for Dessert. Better Than Bread Pudding and Can Be Served Three Times a Day.

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian January 5, 1893.

Dog Law is Needed. SCOT, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—I notice your editorial comment on the article in The Oregonian...

Mr. Pittman Not Candidate. MONMOUTH, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—My attention has been called to an article in The Oregonian...

Registants' Change of Status. BORING, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—(1) Can a registrant change his occupation soon after receiving his rating...

Feem Not Original. PORTLAND, Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—In The Oregonian of January 3, 1918, you print a short poem on the editorial page...

SUGAR AS A WAR ASSET. Discussed in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. Quite as essential to the vigor of the fighting man as any other part of his carefully compiled ration is sugar.

How Goes the War?—In his answer to this oft-repeated query, James H. Collins, writing in The Sunday Oregonian, declares that the war is running on schedule...

Family Life in Jerusalem.

The National Geographic Society issues a war geography bulletin on the family life of the peasants in the outskirts of Jerusalem and elsewhere in the Holy Land...

Luck Thrift Stamp for Dessert. Better Than Bread Pudding and Can Be Served Three Times a Day.

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian January 5, 1893.

Dog Law is Needed. SCOT, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—I notice your editorial comment on the article in The Oregonian...

Mr. Pittman Not Candidate. MONMOUTH, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—My attention has been called to an article in The Oregonian...

Registants' Change of Status. BORING, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—(1) Can a registrant change his occupation soon after receiving his rating...

Feem Not Original. PORTLAND, Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—In The Oregonian of January 3, 1918, you print a short poem on the editorial page...

SUGAR AS A WAR ASSET. Discussed in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. Quite as essential to the vigor of the fighting man as any other part of his carefully compiled ration is sugar.

How Goes the War?—In his answer to this oft-repeated query, James H. Collins, writing in The Sunday Oregonian, declares that the war is running on schedule...

HER REAL UNIFORMS—Mars has set the styles for 1918, says Nina C. Marburg, through the medium of an interesting article on new and feminine modes.

WHO IS NUMBER ONE?—The train was moving swiftly; the few shots they fired flew wild; foot by foot, yard by yard, it gained on its huge quarry...

EVENTS OF WORLD-WIDE INTEREST—Here's a photograph of those genial comrades and fellow Huns—the Kaiser and the Sultan—as they appeared at a recent Kultur-fest.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION—W. E. Hill, who draws a full page of crayon characters for the Sunday issues, tilts somewhat mirthfully at the medics in tomorrow's paper.

CHURCH AND SCHOOL—A page to each in the Sunday issue, with information of their respective activities and announcements of coming events.

FIND WHAT YOU WANT—In every issue of The Oregonian, and especially in the big Sunday issue, there are features and departments intended to suit many varieties of tastes.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

The People Want Results.

A complete answer was made to all of Senator Rogers' charges that Food Administration Headquarters had exceeded his powers when the latter said: "The people want results."

OLD MAGAZINES FOR SOLDIERS. The privilege granted by the Post-office Department of sending magazines to soldiers by simply placing a one-cent stamp upon each and dropping it into the nearest mail receptacle...

AMERICAN LOANS TO THE ALLIES IN THE FIRST EIGHT MONTHS OF OUR PARTICIPATION IN THE WAR AMOUNTED TO $3,260,000,000...

IF THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

THE SENATE COMMITTEE WERE TO BRING GOETHALS AND DENNEN TOGETHER TO ARGUE THE SHIP CONTROVERSY TO A FINISH, A LARGE FUND COULD BE RAISED FOR THE RED CROSS FROM THE ADMIRALTY CHARGE.

Family Life in Jerusalem.

The National Geographic Society issues a war geography bulletin on the family life of the peasants in the outskirts of Jerusalem and elsewhere in the Holy Land...

Luck Thrift Stamp for Dessert. Better Than Bread Pudding and Can Be Served Three Times a Day.

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian January 5, 1893.

Dog Law is Needed. SCOT, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—I notice your editorial comment on the article in The Oregonian...

Mr. Pittman Not Candidate. MONMOUTH, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—My attention has been called to an article in The Oregonian...

Registants' Change of Status. BORING, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—(1) Can a registrant change his occupation soon after receiving his rating...

Feem Not Original. PORTLAND, Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—In The Oregonian of January 3, 1918, you print a short poem on the editorial page...

SUGAR AS A WAR ASSET. Discussed in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. Quite as essential to the vigor of the fighting man as any other part of his carefully compiled ration is sugar.

How Goes the War?—In his answer to this oft-repeated query, James H. Collins, writing in The Sunday Oregonian, declares that the war is running on schedule...

HER REAL UNIFORMS—Mars has set the styles for 1918, says Nina C. Marburg, through the medium of an interesting article on new and feminine modes.

WHO IS NUMBER ONE?—The train was moving swiftly; the few shots they fired flew wild; foot by foot, yard by yard, it gained on its huge quarry...

EVENTS OF WORLD-WIDE INTEREST—Here's a photograph of those genial comrades and fellow Huns—the Kaiser and the Sultan—as they appeared at a recent Kultur-fest.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION—W. E. Hill, who draws a full page of crayon characters for the Sunday issues, tilts somewhat mirthfully at the medics in tomorrow's paper.

CHURCH AND SCHOOL—A page to each in the Sunday issue, with information of their respective activities and announcements of coming events.

FIND WHAT YOU WANT—In every issue of The Oregonian, and especially in the big Sunday issue, there are features and departments intended to suit many varieties of tastes.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

Family Life in Jerusalem.

The National Geographic Society issues a war geography bulletin on the family life of the peasants in the outskirts of Jerusalem and elsewhere in the Holy Land...

Luck Thrift Stamp for Dessert. Better Than Bread Pudding and Can Be Served Three Times a Day.

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian January 5, 1893.

Dog Law is Needed. SCOT, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—I notice your editorial comment on the article in The Oregonian...

Mr. Pittman Not Candidate. MONMOUTH, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—My attention has been called to an article in The Oregonian...

Registants' Change of Status. BORING, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—(1) Can a registrant change his occupation soon after receiving his rating...

Feem Not Original. PORTLAND, Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—In The Oregonian of January 3, 1918, you print a short poem on the editorial page...

SUGAR AS A WAR ASSET. Discussed in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. Quite as essential to the vigor of the fighting man as any other part of his carefully compiled ration is sugar.

How Goes the War?—In his answer to this oft-repeated query, James H. Collins, writing in The Sunday Oregonian, declares that the war is running on schedule...

HER REAL UNIFORMS—Mars has set the styles for 1918, says Nina C. Marburg, through the medium of an interesting article on new and feminine modes.

WHO IS NUMBER ONE?—The train was moving swiftly; the few shots they fired flew wild; foot by foot, yard by yard, it gained on its huge quarry...

EVENTS OF WORLD-WIDE INTEREST—Here's a photograph of those genial comrades and fellow Huns—the Kaiser and the Sultan—as they appeared at a recent Kultur-fest.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION—W. E. Hill, who draws a full page of crayon characters for the Sunday issues, tilts somewhat mirthfully at the medics in tomorrow's paper.

CHURCH AND SCHOOL—A page to each in the Sunday issue, with information of their respective activities and announcements of coming events.

FIND WHAT YOU WANT—In every issue of The Oregonian, and especially in the big Sunday issue, there are features and departments intended to suit many varieties of tastes.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

Family Life in Jerusalem.

The National Geographic Society issues a war geography bulletin on the family life of the peasants in the outskirts of Jerusalem and elsewhere in the Holy Land...

Luck Thrift Stamp for Dessert. Better Than Bread Pudding and Can Be Served Three Times a Day.

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian January 5, 1893.

Dog Law is Needed. SCOT, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—I notice your editorial comment on the article in The Oregonian...

Mr. Pittman Not Candidate. MONMOUTH, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—My attention has been called to an article in The Oregonian...

Registants' Change of Status. BORING, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—(1) Can a registrant change his occupation soon after receiving his rating...

Feem Not Original. PORTLAND, Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—In The Oregonian of January 3, 1918, you print a short poem on the editorial page...

SUGAR AS A WAR ASSET. Discussed in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. Quite as essential to the vigor of the fighting man as any other part of his carefully compiled ration is sugar.

How Goes the War?—In his answer to this oft-repeated query, James H. Collins, writing in The Sunday Oregonian, declares that the war is running on schedule...

HER REAL UNIFORMS—Mars has set the styles for 1918, says Nina C. Marburg, through the medium of an interesting article on new and feminine modes.

WHO IS NUMBER ONE?—The train was moving swiftly; the few shots they fired flew wild; foot by foot, yard by yard, it gained on its huge quarry...

EVENTS OF WORLD-WIDE INTEREST—Here's a photograph of those genial comrades and fellow Huns—the Kaiser and the Sultan—as they appeared at a recent Kultur-fest.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION—W. E. Hill, who draws a full page of crayon characters for the Sunday issues, tilts somewhat mirthfully at the medics in tomorrow's paper.

CHURCH AND SCHOOL—A page to each in the Sunday issue, with information of their respective activities and announcements of coming events.

FIND WHAT YOU WANT—In every issue of The Oregonian, and especially in the big Sunday issue, there are features and departments intended to suit many varieties of tastes.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

Family Life in Jerusalem.

The National Geographic Society issues a war geography bulletin on the family life of the peasants in the outskirts of Jerusalem and elsewhere in the Holy Land...

Luck Thrift Stamp for Dessert. Better Than Bread Pudding and Can Be Served Three Times a Day.

In Other Days. Twenty-five Years Ago. From The Oregonian January 5, 1893.

Dog Law is Needed. SCOT, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—I notice your editorial comment on the article in The Oregonian...

Mr. Pittman Not Candidate. MONMOUTH, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—My attention has been called to an article in The Oregonian...

Registants' Change of Status. BORING, Or., Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—(1) Can a registrant change his occupation soon after receiving his rating...

Feem Not Original. PORTLAND, Jan. 3.—(To the Editor)—In The Oregonian of January 3, 1918, you print a short poem on the editorial page...

SUGAR AS A WAR ASSET. Discussed in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. Quite as essential to the vigor of the fighting man as any other part of his carefully compiled ration is sugar.

How Goes the War?—In his answer to this oft-repeated query, James H. Collins, writing in The Sunday Oregonian, declares that the war is running on schedule...

HER REAL UNIFORMS—Mars has set the styles for 1918, says Nina C. Marburg, through the medium of an interesting article on new and feminine modes.

WHO IS NUMBER ONE?—The train was moving swiftly; the few shots they fired flew wild; foot by foot, yard by yard, it gained on its huge quarry...

EVENTS OF WORLD-WIDE INTEREST—Here's a photograph of those genial comrades and fellow Huns—the Kaiser and the Sultan—as they appeared at a recent Kultur-fest.

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION—W. E. Hill, who draws a full page of crayon characters for the Sunday issues, tilts somewhat mirthfully at the medics in tomorrow's paper.

CHURCH AND SCHOOL—A page to each in the Sunday issue, with information of their respective activities and announcements of coming events.

FIND WHAT YOU WANT—In every issue of The Oregonian, and especially in the big Sunday issue, there are features and departments intended to suit many varieties of tastes.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.

A Nickle and a Nod Will Buy THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. He has not.