CLASS I SUSPENSE BRIEF

REGISTRANTS TO LEARN SOON JUST WHERE THEY STAND.

Early Physical Examination Will Decide Degree of Military Activity That Will Be Assigned.

Registrants who land in Class I will not be long in suspense as to whether or not their physical condition qualifies them for service in the Army, says a bulletin issued yesterday from the office of the Adjutant-General of Oregon.

Provision for physical examination of Class I registrants is thus explained in the bulletin:

Just as soon as his classification has been finally determined by the local board, following receipt of his questionnaire, the board will mail him a notice to appear for physical examination within five days at a place to be designated by the board. The registrant will not be kept in suspense as to the result of this examination. As soon as he has been examined he will then and there be told by the examining physician whether he is or is not physically qualified for military service.

DAIRYMEN SEEK RELIEF

EXEMPTION FOR EMPLOYEES WANTED FROM DRAFT RULES.

Resolution Adopted Asking That Workmen Be Placed on Same Basis as Shipyard Laborers.

So that the production of milk and other dairy products shall not be curtailed, a Nation-wide movement has been started by the Oregon Dairymen's Association to have dairy employees within the draft age exempted or put in deferred classification. F. M. Elger, manager of the Oregon Dairymen's League and president-manager of the Portland Milk Producers' Association, reported yesterday that a resolution to be sent to Washington, had been endorsed by members of the two associations with which he aligned and by the State Dairy Association, which has been meeting at Corvallis.

The resolution, which sets forth the need for keeping milk production at normal or above during the war, will be presented to organizations in every state, with a request for endorsement. As soon as its intent is made known throughout the country, the resolution with the endorsements will be sent to President Wilson, Cabinet officers and Congress.

The resolution follows: "Resolved, That the Oregon Dairymen's League appeals to the Federal officers having jurisdiction in the matter for a ruling to the end that men of draft age who may be engaged in the dairy industry shall be placed in the same classification or order of call as men engaged in shipbuilding or any other industries which are designated as necessary for the prosecution of the war, and that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Secretary of War, Secretary

SAVINGS STAMP SALE BIG

Total of $175,626 in Oregon Up to December 31 Reported.

War savings stamps to the amount of $175,626.71 were sold in Oregon up to and including December 31, according to compilations made yesterday at the state headquarters office.

The sale total is rapidly mounting toward $200,000, being estimated yesterday at above $190,000.

While this is a good start and is found to compare favorably with the rate of sale in other states, C. N. Wonscott, associate director of the sale campaign in Oregon, says this early record will seem small in comparison with sale figures for the coming months.

Organization of the state campaign executive committee was completed less than a week ago. On Monday these leaders held an enthusiastic conference, at which plans for a thorough and effective state-wide crusade to familiarize every man, woman and child with merits of the combined thrift and loan system embodied in the war savings programme were framed.

MARCOLA MAN SENTENCED

Foss Maple, Former Postmaster, Must Serve 60 Days in Jail.

Foss C. Maple, former postmaster of Marcola, Or., was sentenced Thursday by Federal Judge Bean to serve 60 days in the County Jail when he pleaded guilty to charges of embezzlement of $290 and the opening of a letter which passed through his office.

Lenency was extended to the prisoner on recommendation of the Federal attorneys. Though sentenced to serve 60 days on each of the counts alleged against him, it was decreed by the judge that the two terms are to run concurrently.

It was shown that Maple has a wife and four children under 12 years of age, who will be dependent on two of his brothers, both of whom are registered men, one in Class I. He formerly conducted a drug store at Marcola, and explained that he took the $290 from money order funds to help him meet personal debts, intending to repay the amount. He failed in business before repayment was effected, it was shown.
