Dog Proves Friend to Befriender of Dogs.

John James' Story Not Believed but Court Is Lenient.

S A MAN a vagrant, and does he transgress the law just because he inters a disorderly house?

John James, aged 56 years, friend of dogs, caterer to their health, and man-about-town, contended that he was not a vagrant, and that he did not fracture our statutes when he called at the lodging-house conducted by Clara Le-Raine, 218 Couch street, Monday. James, sometimes known as "Doc," was before Municipal Judge Rossman

James, when asked to state his case, "but I deny breaking the law. I was there to doctor the dog."

"What was the matter with the dog?"
asked Judge Rossman.
"Overfed," replied James, "just as most dogs and most people in this country are; he needs to Hooverize." "Had you administered to this dog as a doctor?" queried Deputy City Attorney Deich. "I administered two doses of castor "I administered two doses of castor oil," James replied.

"Then I've get half a notion to prosecute you for practicing as a veterinary without a license," said Mr. Deich, "What do you mean by thus shattering our good laws?"

HAROLD BAUER LAUDED BY SAN FRANCISCO CRITIC.

Sonata in C Major, Op. 53," by Beetho ven, and Schumann's "Scenes From Childhood" Are on List.

Harold Bauer, the distinguished planist, who plays at the Heilig tonight under direction of Steers & Coman, has just finished his engagements in gagement at Heilig Theater To-

San Francisco, where he won much praise. The critic says of the recitals:

"The great pianist, Harold Bauer, whom all musical San Francisco esteems highly, gave his last recital of the season at the Columbia Sunday, when a remarkable programme of the classics was played. Mr. Bauer on this visit more than ever has established his place among the really great exponents of the piano, and his sensational recitals will live long in the memory of music lovers!"

Mr. Bauer's programme tonight will include among other numbers: "Sonata in C Major, Op. 52," by Beethoven: Schumann's "Scenes From Childhood" and compositions by Chopin, Rameau, Couperin, Alkan and Lisst.

JOE HOWARD'S COMPANY BIG FEA-TURE AT ORPHEUM.

Spectacular Number to Be Seen for Last Time This Afternoon-Mr. Howard's Own Songs Used.

"A Musical World Revue," the vehicle of Joseph E. Howard, star of this week's Orpheum show at the Heilis, will be seen for the last time here this afternoon, as the Harold Bauer conafternoon, as the Harold Bauer con-cert engagement prevents the Orpheum from giving an extra performance to-night. Mr. Howard's act is listed as the biggest musical act booked in vaudeville this season. He is supported by a company of 25 persons and is as-sisted principally by Ethlyn Clark, who makes more than a dozen changes of costume while the act progresses. Howard's company includes 10 darkies, who sing and dance, espesially in the levee scene. One of the spetacular features of the act is a thun-der, lightning and rain storm, the staging of which taxes every bit of room on the Hellig Theater stage. In-termittently in the act Howard's own quartet of male voices entertains and

NORMAL SERVICE RESUMES Nine Trains to Operate Daily Between Portland and Seattle.

Normal passenger service between Portland and Puget Sound will be resumed on all three rail lines, the O.-W. R. & N. Company, the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, this merning. This means the operation of nine trains each way daily, in effect before the recent flood troubles interrupted traffic to the north, will be restored. The announcement was made by the rail lines yesterday. The reduction in passenger service to the north was due passenger service to the north was due to flod conditions and not to any order to cut service by the new Government control of the roads. The question of curtailment of service from Portland north will be considered later.

GUIDANCE BUREAU SOUGHT

Ordinance Urged Licenses All Classes of Restaurant Workers.

The Consumers' League at the open meeting held in the Library yesterday sent a letter to the Board of Educa-tion urging the formation of a voca-tional guidance bureau in the school system and promised support of the league if the bureau is founded.

By resolution the league also gave MEHLIN—PACKARD—BOND PIANOS.

MOTHERS ENABLED TO WORK IN FRENCH MUNITION PLANT.

Dr. Eather Pohl Lovejoy Describes Arrangement and Letter to Given Nation-Wide Publicity.

Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy, who is now working for the Red Cross in Paris, has won recognition for the effective-ness of her efforts in behalf of the children's bureau of the Red Cross. Dr. Anna Shaw, chairman of the coman's committee of the Council for efense, has given National publicity a letter received from Dr. Lovejoy which describes a model nursery, main tained by a Paris munitions plant, for babies of mothers it employs.

The gist of the letter is given in this paragraph: "Six thousand women are employed at this place and there is a model nurs-ery for the care of infants. When the mothers return to the factories after their confinements their infants are taken, free of cost, and cared for by Fred Hellig, a well-known attorney of this city and Scattle, and Mrs. Mary Covey, formerly of this city, have given Cardle, general freight and passenger our good laws."
