LABOR OF 2 GREAT NATIONS IN ACCORD

Federation Back of War Aims of United States and England.

GOMPERS GREETS BRITISH

American Leader Says Any Call for International Conference of Workers Will Find No Response in This Country.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—In a message of greeting cabled to W. A. Appleton, Secretary of the British Federation of Trades Unions, and other English laboring men who soon are to visit the United States, Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, declared today that the recent utterances of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George regarding the war aims of the United States and the allies have expressed the "will and purpose of the workers of Great Britain and America."

Mr. Gompers also reiterated the determination of American workingmen to refrain from participation in any international labor conference until democracy shall have been established in Germany.

Declarations Pronounced Identical.

The message follows:

"I am gratified that you and a number of other representative British labor men are coming to the United States. You and they will find hearty greeting and co-operation.

"The declaration of the December British labor conferences at Westminster is in essential principles identical with the declarations of the November convention of the American Federation of Labor at Buffalo.

"The Lloyd George declarations last week to the manpower conference and those of President Wilson yesterday to the American Congress are in accord upon the vital issues and aims in this war.

"Thus the official representatives of our governments and the labor movements of our respective countries have expressed the will and purpose of the people, the governments and the workers of Great Britain and America.

Americans Would Not Respond.

"If any call should be issued for an international conference of workers of all countries of the world, the American Federation of Labor will not participate.

"The people of Germany must establish democracy within their own domain and make opportunity for international relations, that life shall be secure and that the people of all countries may live their own lives and work out their own salvation; and unless this has been accomplished by the German people themselves the allied democracies in this struggle must crush militarism and autocracy and bring a new freedom to the whole world, the people of Germany included.

"Until these essentials are accomplished an international labor conference with the representatives of the workers of all countries, Germany included, is prejudicial to a desirable and lasting peace."

HOUSE IS FOR SUFFRAGE

broke a precedent by announcing from the rostrum that he was sure everybody in the House welcomed him back.

There were two women on the floor during the contest—Miss Jeannette Rankin, of Montana, as Representative of a suffragist state, was accorded the courtesy of not only controlling one-fourth of the time of debate, but of making the opening speech, and Miss May Offterdinger, of this city, who, as clerk of the woman suffrage committee, sat beside its chairman, Representative Raker, of California.

Mrs. Catt Not Surprised.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, said tonight:

"It is an incomparable victory which tremendously gratifies though it does not surprise us. We have felt all along that the House could be relied upon to vindicate itself as the forward-looking exponent of democratic progress which America has the right to expect its great law-making body to be.

"Not for a minute did we concede that the American Congress would lag behind the parliaments of Europe in the making of democratic history."

"We turn now to the Senate with complete confidence that our measure will be passed by that body within a very short time.

"From the Senate we shall start upon our campaign of ratifications, hoping that every state in the Union will ratify, and knowing that 36 will, New York among them. We expect that most of the 1918 Legislatures—there are only a few in session this year—will dispose of the measure favorably at an early date. The Legislatures of 41 states convene next year."

RELIEF OUTLAY IS HUGE

RED CROSS AUTHORIZES APPROPRIATIONS OF $75,000,000.

Work of Organizations in France Has Required About $37,000,000 So Far, Says Statement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Appropriations aggregating approximately $75,000,000 had been authorized by the Red Cross war council since its creation May 10 last up to December 28, the council reported tonight in a statement giving the condition of its finances as of the latter date. Of this sum $50,000,000 actually has been expended, while collections from the hundred-million-dollar war fund subscriptions have amounted to about $97,000,000.

Officials estimate that at least another $6,000,000 will be collected from the fund subscriptions, and some $3,000,000 of this fund retained by certain chapters on account of the 25 per cent which each chapter was to receive for local war relief work will bring the total of the fund to about $106,000,000.

From this sum must be deducted about $13,000,000 for local chapters' war relief fund in addition to the $3,000,000 already retained and an estimated sum of $1,300,000 to be paid to chapters out of he fund yet to be collected. This would leave available for expenditures out of the war fund about $88,000,000.

The total amount appropriated for Red Cross work in France is about $37,000,000.

CHICAGO EGG PRICES SOAR

Wholesale Lots Go to 65 Cents a Dozen and Storage to 43.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Egg prices in Chicago today reached a new high level for the season, selling up to 65 cents a dozen in wholesale lots to the retailer.

Cold storage eggs were advanced 2 cents a dozen to 43 cents and Commissioner Priebe, local representative of the butter and egg division under Commissioner Hoover, took advantage of the rise to notify dealers that any further increase would be considered as taking advantage of the unusual weather to obtain unjust profits.

RUSSIA NOT YET HOPELESS

Immediate Aid From Allies Is Declared Imperative.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 10.—Failure by Russia to receive sufficient strategic and economic support from her allies is assigned as the cause for her present condition by Alexander Bublikoff, a former member of the Russian Duma, who is in St. Louis today with the Russian mission on ways of communication. He is president of the largest railway line in Russia and vice-president of the war industrial board.

"If immediate aid is given no doubt Russia will again be arrayed against the central powers," he declared.

ALL ARMY RECORDS BROKEN, SAYS BAKER

Secretary of War Tells of Mobilizing Million and Half Men.

TROOP EQUIPMENT READY

Statement Made Before Senate Military Committee Dealing With All Angles of Nation's Preparations for Conflict.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10. — Every phase of the War Department's preparations for battle against Germany was outlined and defended by Secretary Baker today before the Senate committee.

He answered those who have criticised the Department during the committee's investigation with the assertion that no such Army as that now under the American flag ever had been raised, equipped or trained so quickly, and that never before had such provision been made for the comfort and health of an Army.

The Secretary read an exhaustive statement when he took the stand, and when it was concluded questions began to fly from every side of the committee table, launching a cross-examination that probably will continue all day tomorrow.

Chairman Chamberlain and other committeemen wanted to know particularly about delays in furnishing machine guns and rifles, and much attention was devoted to the Army's supply purchasing system.

All Troops Equipped.

Mr. Baker admitted there had been some mistakes and delays, but declared that all fighting men in France were adequately equipped and armed, and that all sent over would be.

He took full responsibility for delay in aproving a machine gun, holding that the value of the Browning gun now developed was worth it. He also said the superior weapon obtained by having the British Enfield rifle rechambered for American ammunition compensated for the delay there.

More than 1,500,000 Americans are now under arms, Secretary Baker said, and an army of substantial size already is in France ready for active service.

"I state the foregoing conditions of the War Department's problem and some of the results attained, for two purposes," he said.

People Entitled to Know.

"In the first place the American people are entitled to know of the splendid effectiveness with which they have been able to organize the man power and the material power of the Nation in a great cause; second, our Army in France under General Pershing and our allies are entitled to have the benefit resulting from the depression of the morale of their enemies which must come when the Germans realize that the American democracy has neither blundered nor hesitated, but actually brought the full power of its men and resources into completely organized strength against their military machine.

"No army of similar size in the history of the world has ever been raised, equipped or trained so quickly. No such provision has ever been made for the comfort, health and general well being of an army.

"By the co-operation of all interests and all people in the country, the Nation is now organized and set to its task with unanimity of spirit and confidence in its powers. More has been done than anybody dared to believe possible.

Errors Frankly Admitted.

"That there have been here and there errors of judgment and delays goes without saying, but I should be wanting in frankness were I to omit my own estimate of the real unselfishness and intelligence with which my associates, military and civilian, have applied themselves to this undertaking, and the results demonstrate the success of their efforts."

The Secretary gave the committee an outline of the work of the department and its various bureaus.

In summing up the War Department's work, the Secretary gave the following as its chief accomplishments:

"First—A large Army is in the field and in training; so large that further increments to it can be adequately equipped and trained as rapidly as those already in training can be transported.

"Second—The Army has been enlisted and selected without serious dislocation of the industries of the country.

Subsistence Above Criticism.

"Third—The training of the Army is proceeding rapidly and its spirit is high. The subsistence of the Army has been above criticism; its initial clothing supply, temporarily inadequate, is now substantially complete and reserves will rapidly accumulate. Arms of the most modern and effective kind, including artillery, machine guns, automatic rifles and small arms, have been provided by manufacture or purchase for every soldier in France and are available for every soldier who can be gotten to France in the year 1918.

"Fourth—A substantial Army is already in France, where both men and officers have been additionally and specially trained and are ready for active service.

"Fifth—Independent lines of communication and supply and vast storage and other facilities are in process of construction in France.

"Sixth—Great programmes for the manufacture of additional equipment and for the production of new instruments of war have been formulated."

RAILROAD HEADS BUSY

LIFE IS ONE CONFERENCE AFTER ANOTHER FOR OFFICIALS.

Government Control of Carriers Necessitates Meetings of Traffic Men of All Lines.

Life is just one conference after another for railroad officials since the Government assumed control of the carriers. President Gilman of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway, and President Farrell of the O.-W. R. & N. Company were conferring in San Francisco yesterday with President Sproule of the Southern Pacific Company and other railroad heads on the general aspects of the railroad operation problem under new conditions.

In Seattle, too, another conference was on of traffic officials of the Pacific-Northwest roads. From Portland went William McMurray, general passenger agent for the O.-W. R. & N.; W. D. Skinner, traffic manager of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway; F. W. Robinson, traffic manager for the O.-W. R. & N.; H. E. Lounsbury, general freight agent for the O.-W. R. & N., and H. A. Hinshaw, general freight agent for the Southern Pacific Company lines in Oregon.

Readjustment of train schedules between Portland and Puget Sound will, undoubtedly, be one of the problems the traffic men will tackle. The return to the former status of nine passenger trains daily in each direction, three each for the companies using one line of railway, is not wholly satisfactory and it is believed a cut can be made without disadvantage and also conserve railroad energies to some extent.

Other matters covering subjects of common interest throughout the Pacific-Northwest are up for consideration. Congestion at terminals and the maximum use of motive power and equipment will be discussed. Portland officials at the conference are expected home today.

WOMAN'S NAME ADDED

LEXY M. GRAHAM 26TH ON WOODARD, CLARKE & CO. FLAG.

Yeomanette's Enrollment Made in Letters of Gold as Tribute to Patriotic Sentiment.

On the big card, which serves the purpose of a service flag, the firm of Woodard, Clarke & Co. has inscribed a new name, the 26th to go on the list. As a special tribute to the latest recruit the name is recorded in letters of gold.

"The 26th man of our establishment to enlist is a woman," explained William F. Woodward.

"(Miss) Lexy M. Graham," reads the name.

Miss Graham is already at Bremerton, Wash., where she went the first of the week, serving her country as a "yeomanette." That's what they call the young women who enlist as yeomen in the Navy in order to take up duties as stenographers, clerks and helpers in the big Navy-yard's headquarters.

In the past week the Portland Naval recruiting bureau has sent six young women to Bremerton, on orders from the Navy-yard commandant, to serve as "yeomanettes." Acceptance of the girl recruits rests entirely in the hands of the commandant, who bases his decisions on letters and recommendations sent him by letter, only the physical examinations being conducted by the Portland Navy examiners.

4 CHILDREN DIE IN FIRE

CATHOLIC GENERAL HOSPITAL AT OTTAWA, ONTARIO, BURNS.

Heroic Rescue Efforts of Nurses and and Nuns Save Many Lives—Property Loss Is $100,000.

OTTAWA, Ontario, Jan. 10.—Four children lost their lives in a fire which today destroyed the east wing of the Catholic General Hospital in Water street, with a property damage amounting to $100,000. The victims, the oldest of whom was four years of age, were patients in the institution. One child died from shock after being carried out.

The fire broke out near the operating room in the east wing of the hospital at 10 A. M., and gradually spread to other parts of the building on the top floor. There were 158 patients in the hospital, including a number of children.

Heroic efforts by nuns and nurses saved a large proportion of the 158 patients.

A child who was strapped to a bed with weights fastened to an injured leg was burned to death.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Jan. 10.—The death list in the fire which swept a wing of the Connecticut Hospital today remains at two, with two other patients missing tonight. The damage to the building and contents is estimated at $200,000, and the cause of the fire is still to be determined.

The food bill of a family of five, under prevailing price schedules, Mr. Keenan said, could not possibly be figured at less than $12.14 a week.

Mr. Keenan's figures purported to show that it would cost a family of five $1442.80 a year to exist.
