JOHN E. KELLERD APPEARS IN "HAMLET" AT HEILIG TONIGHT

Eminent Shakespearean Actor Upholds Best Traditions of Stage—Supporting Company Declared to Be Strong One and Productions Correct.

Miss Margaret Bulkeley, Miss Georgianna Wilson, & Portia.

JOHN E. KELLERD, eminent Shakespearean actor, tonight will open an engagement of three days at the Heilig in Shakespearean repertoire. Mr. Kellerd, who was born at Kensington, England, was for several years co-star with Mrs. Modjeska, appearing with her as Benedict in "Much Ado About Nothing." Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice" and as Macbeth during their world tour in that great tragedy. He is an actor of commanding impressiveness and an upholder of the best traditions of the stage. His work, according to leading critics, is marked by a certain grandeur and a certain great effect at times by sheer repression, whilst at others he rises to heights that display dramatic genius. His Hamlet has been pronounced by so great a critic as William Winter to be most brilliant and illuminating. In his Shylock there is absolutely nothing of caricature. The old man is not an incarnate money-lover. He is an avenger of his race; and when he is undone and departs, the sympathy of rank injustice, he carries with him the sympathy of the audience.

Mr. Kellerd has surrounded himself with a company of unusual strength. His productions are most elaborate and correct historically to the most minute detail, great care having been taken to secure faithful reproductions of both the scenic investiture and the costumes of the several periods. The bill for tonight and "Hamlet" is the bill for tonight and "Macbeth" for tomorrow night. "The Merchant of Venice" will be played Saturday matinee and "Othello" Saturday night.

SCHOOL TO BEGIN DRIVE

District 45 to Strive for 100 Per Cent Red Cross Membership.

The Junior Red Cross project and the proposed sale at the school in the near future of War Saving Stamps, were the subjects mainly considered at the last meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of District 45 Schoolhouse, January 11.

Principal Aker announced that a meeting would be called soon at which a speaker from Portland would address the association and the people of the district generally showing just what is being undertaken in the two projects and how best to proceed with the work of enrolling the youngsters of the country in the service of the nation.

The association and the school are committed fully to the proposed campaign and if District 45's performance in the past count for anything it is a foregone conclusion that the drive in the near future will have a 100 per cent Junior Red Cross membership, with every child in the district a War Saving Stamp creditor of Uncle Sam.

29 YEARS LONG ENOUGH

MAY COOLIDGE ASKS DIVORCE AFTER QUARTER CENTURY. Three Others Seek Freedom, Giving Cruelty as Grounds for Requested Release.

For more than 29 years May Coolidge has stood the cruelty of Charles A. Coolidge until it has become so unbearable she is compelled to seek her legal freedom, she alleged in a suit for divorce filed yesterday. They were married at Vancouver, Wash., in 1889.

Because John Blank refused to let her mother and brother live at their home even though she worked to provide the necessities of life, Esther Blank believes she should be given a divorce. The firm round of their marital difficulties was fought out before District Judge Bell this week, when the lower court jurist refused to grant Mrs. Blank's husband. They were married in Russia in 1904 and came to Portland in 1905.

Ruth Kinney wants a divorce from Jesse Kinney on grounds of cruelty and desertion. The plaintiff alleges cruel treatment up until the time her husband deserted her in 1913. They were married in 1907.

Ada Cullum, in a suit for divorce from Union Cullum, alleges she was compelled to get work while suffering from the measles in order to keep herself and baby from starving to death. She seeks the custody of their small son. They were married at Vancouver in 1916.
