That Clinchfields Could Get Contract From Board Before Existing Yards Could Will Be Investigated.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 23.—Phillip D. Sloan, pres-ident of the Sloan Shipyard Corpora-tion of Seattle, and his brother, Joseph manager of the Anacortes yard, a subsidiary of the former, arrived in Wash-ington today to appear before the Sen-ate commerce committee to reply to the testimony given by Admiral Bowles, of the Shipping Board, regarding the famous Sloan contracts.

Joseph Sloan had his hearing this afternoon, and said very little regarding the relations existing between the Sloan comparation and the Climphfield.

Sloan corporation and the Clinchfield company, of New York. Sloan based his statements on Wash-ington dispatches printed in The Ore-gonian, "purporting to quote the testi-mony of Admiral Bowles."

He asserted that if Admiral Bowles had been correctly quoted he had done the Sloan Corporation a grave injustice and was inclined to attribute Bowles' statements to misinformation furnished by Captain Blain, district officer at Seattle
