LONG HOUR DAY IS BASIS OF UNREST

Argument Advanced by Secretary of Labor Wilson in Report to President.

PROTESTS ARE URGENT

Discrimination Against Oregon and Washington Lumber Producers Declared to Be Clearly Apparent in Conclusions Reached.

"HOLY WAR" HUN DESIGN

SPEAKER BARES PURPOSES OF GERMANS IN TURKEY.

Campaign to House Moslems Against All Christians in Country Conceived in Berlin.

Part and parcel of the Prussian design was the plan to inflame the followers of Mohammed to a "holy war" against all Christians within the Turkish domains—a war of complete extermination.

This was the testimony given last night by Mrs. R. S. M. Emrich, for many years a Christian worker in Turkey, who spoke at the Auditorium as a preliminary to the state-wide drive for Armenian and Syrian relief to open next week.

That Germany willed such a war, in order that the Christian race might be exterminated throughout Mesopotamia, and her programme of control be complete, was brought home to Mrs. Emrich by a German, who brought her a Berlin paper, printed in English.

"It was printed in English, though published in Germany, because so many of the young Turks had been educated at our Christian universities," said Mrs. Emrich.

The Portland Chamber of Commerce yesterday telegraphed Secretary of Labor Wilson protesting against the proposed eight-hour day embargo on the logging camps and lumber mills of the Pacific Northwest.

PRESIDENT IS IN IGNORANCE

White House Clerk Says Eight-Hour Day Not Yet Talked About.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 30.—(Special)—President Wilson, according to the chief clerk of the White House, has never heard of the proposal to establish the eight-hour day in lumber mills and logging camps of the Pacific Northwest.

Senator Jones is at a loss to understand the situation, especially in light of the letter he received two days ago from Secretary Wilson, in which the reasons which he understood to be the Administration's reasons for favoring an eight-hour day in Oregon and Washington mills and camps.

JEW GETS OPPORTUNITY

EMON L. WIENR SAYS THERE IS NO "JEW PROBLEM."

Men of Different Faiths Meet in Cantonment Camps in Perfect Harmony.

Lives in the Army cantonments is giving the young Jews of America the greatest opportunity they have ever had to become acquainted with the rest of the young citizenry of the country and to familiarize the Gentiles with the better side and the fundamental principles of the real Jewish character.

Mr. Wienr came to Portland from Camp Lewis, where he is stationed, to address the men last night on the subject of the problems of the Jew in the Army. In the opening sentence

STRAND HAS GOOD BILL

SKETCH, "POWER OF GOLD," FEATURE OF THEATER'S OFFERING.

Girl Who Plays Viola, Dances and Adds Song or Two for Good Measure Pleases Audience.

A dramatic episode, entitled "The Power of Gold," which is, in analysis, an exceptionally interesting arrangement of labor and capital, tops a list of vaudeville offerings on the new bill at the Strand, with Robert Athon, well known locally, and a company of two.

The chap who plays opposite Mr. Athon, representing the workman, is an excellent young actor. Mr. Athon appears in the role of an ideal rich man. The lines are telling and elicit continued applause.

A colorful note is added in the attractive presence of petite Effie Johnson.

A dainty lass is Loretta Wolf, who plays her violin and dances merrily to the waltz. She adds a song or two for good measure.

A novel act is that of White and Lytle, a man who wanders on to the stage in the guise of a rube, and a picture-show girl who poses as a clairvoyant and "tells things." The act is rosy and funny.

INCOME TAX RUSH BEGUN

CUSTOM-HOUSE OFFICIALS BUSY HANDLING THROUGH.

Persons Liable to Tax Given Until June 15 to Pay Statement to Be Filed by March 1.

The rush to pay the war income tax at the Custom House, Park and Davis streets, has begun, and Collector of Internal Revenue Miller and his office assistants are kept busy waiting on the steady throng of callers. Many are bringing in their income statements, which must be filed before March 1. Several are paying the amount of their tax, although the actual payment need not be made before June 15.

Blanks covering incomes of over $2000 have been mailed to those who last year were required to pay the Federal income tax. Blanks for corporations have not been received, but are expected at any time, when they will be promptly mailed to all corporations liable to the payment of a tax.

Every resident of the state who, if unmarried, had an income of $1000 or more, or if married, had an income of $2000 or more, in 1917, is required to file a statement to that effect with the Collector of Internal Revenue before March 1. Such persons have until June 15 to pay the amount of their tax. They must either call in person or send to Collector Miller for the necessary blanks for making out their income statements.

Alaska Coal May Supply Coast.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 30.—Secretary of the Interior Lane, after consultation with members of the Alaska Engineering Commission, has taken up with the Shipping Board the necessity of providing tug, barges and slow steamers to carry to Alaska material needed for the Government railroad and to bring back Alaska coal to supply the Pacific Coast market. This question is now under consideration by the Shipping Board.

BELGIUM NOW HELL

Rev. Samuel Cranston Benson Visiting Father in Portland.

Address to Be Made at Luncheon Today Before Progressive Business Men's Club—Public Talk Is to Be Made Later.

EX-PACIFIST TELLS OF WAR

"Back From Hell" for a visit with his father and brother in this city, Rev. Samuel Cranston Benson, reformed pacifist, ambulance driver, preacher, writer, lecturer and witness of the rape of Belgium, arrived in Portland late last night. He will speak before the Progressive Business Men's Club at luncheon today, and hopes to gain a public audience before his departure Saturday for a talk on the liberty loan.

When the war was in its early stages in 1914, Mr. Benson left a peaceful Presbyterian parsonage in Patton, Pa., and went to France, joining the American ambulance unit at Neuilly. After his six months' enlistment in this service he returned to Belgium, where he was held as a spy. The names on the list were those of friends of Mr. Benson's and because of a list of names of people in various parts of Belgium, he was held as a spy.

While his case was under investigation Mr. Benson was paroled and told to report back at the prison in 19 days. In direct violation of orders, he employed the 10 days of grace in traveling through Belgium, investigating at first hand the tales of German atrocities.

"At Mons," said Mr. Benson last night, "I was shown where the Germans shot down 28 wounded prisoners because they could not be bothered with taking care of them."

German Order Him Away. "The Tuesday after Easter I was recaptured by German secret service agents who had been tracing me. Arraigned in the same room where Edith Cavell met her fate, when the detective walked toward me with a cloth in his hand, I thought my time had come. Finally they said to me, 'Take the 7 o'clock train for Rotterdam and never come back into Belgium or Germany.' I was at the depot at 6 o'clock."

On his arrival in Portland, Mr. Benson was met at the station by his brother, Charles G. Benson, a Portland attorney, and his father, E. Benson, and taken to his father's house at 6329

ROUND-UP REQUIRES HELP

Police to Have Assistance in Registration of Enemies.

To enable the police bureau to comply with the orders of the War Department to register all German enemies, the City Council yesterday agreed to the employment of 16 clerks and four stenographers to do the work. This force was reported by Chief of Police Johnson to be required to handle the task.

An effort will be made to utilize as many clerks and stenographers as possible from other branches of the city service. An inventory is being made of persons who can be spared from regular work will be transferred to the temporary duty. While the War Department ordered the registration of German enemies in Portland no provision was made for meeting the expense.

HOME TOUCH IS NEEDED

PORTLAND ASKED TO INVITE SOLDIERS TO DINNER.

Y. M. C. A. Fosters Movement to Entertain Uniformed Men in Homes on Sunday.

Several scores of soldiers at Vancouver military post would like an opportunity to go home for Sunday dinner with some hospitable folk of Portland. An appeal in their behalf was issued yesterday by Barclay Acheson, head of the service department of the Portland Y. M. C. A.

"More than 80 soldiers have registered their names with us as candidates for Sunday dinners," he said. "What the men want more than the dinner is the touch of home life of which they were deprived when they put on the khaki of Uncle Sam. We would like to have the hospitable families of Portland telephone at once their willingness to share their homes and Sunday dinners with these boys, many of whom are as homesick as the Portland boys in the service in camps farther away."

"We have opened up a Sunday dinner bureau" at the Y. M. C. A. Every telephoned invitation will be cordially received. Our numbers are Main 8700 and A 6561.

"We will, of course, notify each home in advance of the name of the soldier who are to entertain and we will also find out when it will be most convenient for the soldier to come. Besides the number who have already registered, there are many more who will register when they find that Portland hospitality is taking the 'Sunday dinner for soldiers' turn."

Thoroughly Cleanse the Liver and Keep Well

WHAT TO EAT!

(By Dr. L. H. WATSON.)

The poisons in man are taken care of, if man will do his part. The liver and kidneys act as the sewage disposal plants which separate and throw off the poisonous accumulations, if given half a chance. But many of us should not eat meat more than once a day. Eat vegetables, and what may be called "roughage" to stimulate bowel action, such as baked potato with the hard skin, Graham, rye or whole wheat bread, onions, turnips, carrots, even
