

CLIPPING NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

YESTERDAY was replete with a varied assortment of diversions, sufficiently gay to please everyone. First was the Visiting Nurses' Association Valentine tea. The sunshine came out to cast a benediction upon the affair and to add zest to the dispositions and spirits of those who attended the many affairs.

It is difficult to realize that yesterday was the first day following the opening of the Lenten period. It was so brimful of gala functions. There was the elaborate formal dance of the Al Kader Temple at the Multnomah Hotel, which called forth one of the largest and most brilliantly attired throngs of the season. They filled both the ballroom and assembly hall of the Multnomah, and the gowns of the women were wonderful. Colorful gowns, shimmering with sequins and trimmings, made a brilliant scene. Crisp tulle, soft clinging satins, brocades in silver and gold tones, all combined with tulle or filmy lace, made one of the most artistic ensembles of the season. A delightful programme was given, preceding the ball, in the lobby of the hotel. Mrs. Fred L. Olson being assisted by the chorists of Al Kader. She also contributed solos, with band accompaniment, the entire programme featuring patriotic airs and medleys. This function was for Shriners only, local and visiting, and will go down in the social history of the organization as a banner event.

E. J. Zenger was in charge of the east ballroom, assisted by G. Patrick Kramer, C. E. Patterson, A. E. Robinson and Dr. R. McDonald. The committee in charge of the west ballroom was Herman von Horstel, A. T. Bonney, W. R. McDonald, Alex Oliver and A. C. Callan. Tables were arranged for the non-dancers in the Japanese tea garden, and many of the men and women enjoyed several rubbers of bridge. Colonel Willard F. Andrews was in charge of this part of the affair, and those holding high scores received handsome prizes.

The Visiting Nurses' tea was delightful, and exceeded the expectations of those in charge, in point of attendance and artistry. A musical programme was given by Fritz De Bruin under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke. A charming feature of the affair, and one that commends itself to every member of the organization, as well as all patriotic citizens of the city, was that the hostess, Mrs. Corbett, adhered strictly to the rules of the food conservation committee, and at the same time prepared a delicious menu for the throngs of guests who availed themselves of this annual opportunity to greet friends and relatives at any other social affair during the season.

The tea table, decked with an artistic arrangement of spring flowers, was presided over by Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Elliott H. Corbett, Mrs. Sigmond Frank and Miss Failing. Mrs. Alan Green, assisted by a bevy of girls, served in the drawing and dining rooms. Candy tables laden with war candies were presided over by Mrs. A. Morrison and Mrs. J. D. Honore. They also were assisted by a group of girls, who were successful saleswomen. A large sum of money will swell the fund of the association, the work of which needs no further explanation, as it is far-reaching and well-known throughout the city. The demands, however, this winter, due to the need of assisting families of soldiers, have been much greater than in previous years, and an effort was made to have this year's tea larger in attendance, so as to increase the funds available.

Miss Marian Smith and Thomas Kerr will plight their troth on Saturday, February 23, at the residence of the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Josephine Andrews. Mrs. Lovelle D. Winters will be matron of honor, and Miss Dorothy Strowbridge will be bridesmaid. A number of informal affairs are filling the days for the bride-elect and her fiancé, including evening functions, dinners and theater parties with supper-dances. Miss Virginia Menefee will entertain tomorrow with a luncheon for Miss Smith.

Herbert W. White and Miss Martha Sturchev were married at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Congregational Church Saturday afternoon, February 9, the Rev. J. J. Staub, D. D., officiating.

The Fourth United Brethren Church will give a banquet tonight for the men and boys of their community in celebration of Fathers' and Sons' week. All men and boys over 12 years are invited.

Mrs. Ralph Harris entertained a group of friends informally at tea on Wednesday at her home, 474 E. 11th avenue. Miss Alice Judd added to the pleasure of the hour by her charming rendition of a number of songs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. York entertained the Letter Mail Club of Franklin High at their home, 3183 East Fifty-sixth street, Wednesday evening. A regular business meeting of the organization also was held. The following members were present: Fred York, Jerry Gillis, Edwin Hobson, William McCormick, Pudge Brown, Ben Popham, Harry Thomas, Garret Stiele, Robert Tucker, Edwin Thompson, Verne Dudley, Arthur McKenney, Karl Friess, Hosi Peake and Wardle Kearns. On account of the absence of Mr. Barber and Mr. Haslip, a new president and vice-president will have to be elected at the next meeting, which is to be held at the Portland Hotel. Entertainment for the evening was furnished by Messrs. Thompson, Thomas and Tucker, who sang several original songs.

The younger contingent of Rose City Park are planning a merry Valentine party for tomorrow night at the Rose City Park Club. The affair will be from 7:30 until 10, and the evening will be gala with games of various kinds. Among the features to be introduced is the exchange of valentines, all those attending having been requested to bring a Valentine to place in the basket provided for the purpose. Music, refreshments and various novelties will make the evening merry.

The marriage of Harry C. Hays, well known Portland automobile man, and

"Next Time We Go To the Theater"

F. Lila, I'll Show You Cherry's."

Surely you have noticed their sign on the front at 345-351 Washington street, in the Pittsburg block just in front of St. Lawrence. A regular treat to go there and browse around among the pretty things they have to show in Spring apparel. It's not like going to the cash shops, where you see beautiful things but know that you can't have them because you know you haven't the price.

At Cherry's anything you fancy or need is yours to wear home by paying ever so small a first payment and completing the balance in small weekly or monthly payments, just as may be convenient. Besides, you are well dressed the whole time you are paying for the clothes. Think that over. It's surely been a boon to me and I don't intend to ever buy my clothes the cash way any more. —Addy.

ATTRACTIVE PORTLAND GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF PROMINENT AUTOMOBILE MAN.

Mrs. Harry C. Hays (Lillian O'Brien)

Miss Lillian O'Brien took place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the rectory of Trinity Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Morrison. The wedding was a simple affair, only the closest friends of the bride and bridegroom being present. Charles L. Campbell, of Seattle, formerly of Portland, was best man, and Mrs. Campbell attended Miss O'Brien. Mr. and Mrs. Hays left Portland last night for Seattle. They will be at home after March 1 in the Irving Apartments. Mr. Hays is territory man for the Overland-Pacific branch here and is a member of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club and of other organizations.

Mrs. N. E. Ayer and daughter, Miss Margaret Ayer, who have been in Honolulu for a year and a half and also in California, have returned to their apartments at the Benson Hotel. Mrs. Ayer and Miss Ayer were guests of the former's brother-in-law and sister, Colonel and Mrs. Richard Schofield, at Fort Schofield in Honolulu, and they were joined in San Francisco by Mrs. E. D. Smith and Miss Laura Smith, who returned with them to Portland.

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Smith, whose wedding took place while the bridegroom was in quarantine with scarlet fever, are rejoicing over Mr. Smith's recovery. The couple are now passing their delayed honeymoon at Clatsop beach. They will return the end of the week, when Mr. Smith will report to his company at Camp Lewis. He is attached to the ambulance corps. The wedding took place six weeks ago at the home of the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. O. A. Lyman.

The Junior members of the Portland Hunt Club will hold an exhibition drill and masquerade ride at the Portland Riding Academy tonight, starting at 8 o'clock. The drill, lasting 20 minutes, will be given first by James Nicola's class, whose members are from 6 to 11 years of age. Friends are invited.

Hunt Club members and their friends who are to attend the dinner dance tomorrow are reminded that the dinner hour is 6:30 P. M. and that dancing will begin at 8 P. M. and continue until 11 P. M.

Motors are to be parked by the attendance in charge, outside of Hunt Club entrance. For further particulars inquire of James A. Beckett, 205 Seiling building, telephone Main 1216.

WOMEN'S PATRIOTIC SERVICE

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

THE Fulton Army and Navy League will give a silver tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. David Bodway, 1263 Hood street, from 2 to 4:30 o'clock, for the benefit of the Oregon boys. Everyone is cordially invited.

Lents Parent-Teacher Circle will meet today. Mrs. E. Perry will demonstrate the making of new breads from 1 to 4 P. M. and Miss Alice Joyce of O. A. C. will give a talk on gardening at 2:45 P. M.

A successful benefit for the Oretown Red Cross Auxiliary was given at the Oretown Grange Hall recently. The committee in charge, under the able leadership of Miss Irene Parsons, deserves great credit for their prompt and successful response to the call for financial help.

Oretown is the central point of what is known as the Little Nostucca country, comprising the country surrounding Meda, Oretown, Neskowin and Slab year. At 2 P. M. today one of the series of lectures, an address by Professor Lawrence on "Architecture," will be the attraction at Library Hall. All are welcome.

In planning for the university extension lectures, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell and William D. Wheelwright are meeting with splendid response from the society women. The fund will be for the women's building of the University of Oregon. The first lecture will be by Lieutenant-Colonel John Leader, formerly of the Royal Irish Rifles. He will speak on "The European War." Season tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Burrell. There now is $15,000 subscribed toward the fund, and $5000 of this is paid up and invested in liberty bonds. If one has a season ticket he may use as many coupons as desired at one time.

BANQUET EVENT TONIGHT

Fathers and Sons Will Enjoy Each Others' Society at Westminster.

The Fathers' and Sons' banquet at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Irvington will be a big event this evening.

Dr. Edward H. Pence will act as toastmaster and the committee has been fortunate in securing as the speaker of the evening Major Calvin S. White, who will have a wonderful story to tell from Camp Lewis. The boys will have quite an important part in the programme, which follows:

C. W. Platt, "Gas"; Elwood H. White, Jr., "When I'm a Dad"; Glenn P. Husted, "It's Hard to Remember When I Was a Boy"; Raleigh Myers, "What I Think of the Postmaster"; Walter A. Goss, "Bewitched Camouflage"; Fred Reed, "How Long Before I Can Liek Dad?"; Howard Smyth, "You're It"; H. R. Albee, "Breakfasting Together"; Gene Whitten, "The Ladies"; Major Calvin S. White, "Uncle Sam Needs Boys—What Kind?";

The ladies of the church, under Mrs. Karl V. Lively, have charge of the banquet and the committee agrees to furnish a father for every boy who desires to attend.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY KEPT

Bedecked Store Windows and Heavy Mail Mark Sweethearts' Day.

St. Valentine's day has slipped into the calendar whence it came—an inconspicuous little numeral amid a multitude of dead months. If shop windows have the drawing attraction they used to have, when decked with the paper symbols of friendship and affection, the day was surely honored by common observance in Portland. Postmen told not a little harder yesterday, for the mails were heavy with the valentine missives, and their addresses led to every section of the city.

Junction City Honors Soldier.

EUGENE, Or., Feb. 14.—(Special).—The public schools and business houses at Junction City closed Monday in honor of Earl Llewellyn, the first boy from that town to give his life to his country. Llewellyn, a son of Frank Llewellyn, 23 years of age, was born in Lane County. He was a member of the 23rd Aero Squadron and had been stationed at Waco, Tex. His death resulted from a complication of diseases—measles, scarlet fever and pneumonia.

Here's a Helpful Conservation Hint to Housewives for Meatless Days

This recipe will amply serve six people:

1 package KING'S Soup Vegetables (soaked and cooked until tender), 1 cup of boiled rice, 1 cup bread crumbs, 1/2 cup crushed nuts, 1 egg.

Place all ingredients in mixing bowl and season to taste, with a little milk to moisten if necessary. Shape into loaf, roll in bread crumbs and bake same as a meat loaf, basting occasionally with butter.

A little tomato, green peppers, mushrooms or oysters make a delicious variety of seasoning for this loaf.

Women's Clubs

The Frances Willard Memorial meeting of the Albina W. C. T. U. held at the home of Mrs. Christensen Tuesday was largely attended and much enjoyed by those present. The programme consisted of a "quiz" on the memorial fund, and the collection for the fund more than made up the offering. Mrs. M. Frances Swope, state president, spoke on Frances Willard as a missionary. Mrs. R. A. Lucie sang "All's Well" and for encore "The Best Little Mother That God Ever Made." The next meeting of the union will be held in March, with Mrs. Palmer, state superintendent of Americanization work, and a special speaker will be secured to speak on this subject.
