Hulet M. Wells and Three Other Seditious Conspirators Convicted.

WAR WORK ON IN EARNEST

Anti-Sedition Campaign of Special Assistant U. S. Attorney-General Well Under Way and Results Are Expected.

SEATTLE, Wash, Feb 22.—(Special.)

The conviction of Huiet M. Wells, Representative Lenroot, of Wisconsim Sadier and Jee and Morria Pass in the Federal Court on a charge of the bill in the House today, declaring Sam Sadler and Jee and Morris Puss in the Federal Court on a charge of Sam Sadier and Jee and Morria Pass in the Federal Court on a charge of seditious conspiracy marks the first victory for Clarence L. Reames, Special Assistant United States Attorney-Gen-eral, who resigned as United States District Attorney for Oregon to assume the new and more responsible position of handling this class of Government Tried in the Federal Court last September, Wells and some of his asso-ciates escaped conviction, the jury, afteach an agreement. It took Mr. Reames just four days to secure a jury and obtain a conviction. The jury was out about four hours.

Interest in the Wells case was Na-tional, because of the prominence of the defendant and his associates. Wells, the defendant and his associates. Wells, as a former President of the Seattle Central Labor Council, former Government employe in the postoffice and one time candidate for Mayor of Seattle, when he received nearly 11,000 votes, and always a leader among the Socialists here, was recognized as the ring-sleader in the circulation of the anti-conscription circular which caused his indictment. Sam Sadier, husband of the Sate Sadier. Nationally known as a Kute Sadler. Nationally known as a Socialist agitator, is a member of the board of control of the Seattle Union Record, official organ of the Scattle Central Labor Council. The Pass brothers are allens.

Sadler's Ball Raised.

Immediately after the verdict was an-nounced the bail of Sadler was raised from $2500 to $5000, and the bondamen Morris Pass withdrew. Sadier and as have been neid in the city jail ca. Wells is at liberty on bonds in sum of $5000, his sureties being Fass have been hearders. Wells is at liberty on bonds aince. Strong and Charles W. Doyle, business agent of the Seattle Central Labor Council. Miss Anna Louise Strong, daughter of Dr. Strong, a ments of sugar for manufacturing purposes during the coming season. This applies particularly to packers of fruit, and herself subject to a recall to be voted on March 5, was one of the principal witnesses for the defense. She admitted having attended the mesting at which the anti-conscription circular for usage in preserving purposes. When car shortage is relieved supplies of sugar will be available for necessary. That it would not export to the central powers any of its cwn products for usage in preserving purposes. When car shortage is relieved supplies of sugar will be available for necessary. That it would not export to the central powers any of its cwn products. That it would init its exportation of fish and fish products to the central powers to 48,000 tons annually.

Guarantees Are Required.

the conviction of Wells marks the beginning of the Government campaign on the Pacific Coast to scotch the snake of sedition. Mr. Reames became the big power, backed by the Government in this work, and all other Federal officers are subject to his instructions in the prosecution of the work assigned him.

Renmes' Field Broad One.

His commission is broad, embracing the supervision of all prosecutions or clamation relating to enemy allens; diately ordered the arrest of this agent the prosecution of all violations of of the piotters. States law relating to treason and sedition and the enforcement of provisions, and section 9 of the ship-In a statement to the press, Mr.

Reames said: "In a few weeks we built the largest cantenment in this country, and I will may that we can build enough jalls over-night to accommodate all of the allens, sympathizers and I. W. W. agitators in this country.' The jails of Seattle and King County have been filled to overflowing already with I. W. W., enemy allens and slackers, but the conviction of Wells and his associates is the beginning of a ferreting out of Government enemies that will know no letup from now on.
