CAPITAL IN DEMAND BY BUSINESS WORLD

Problem of Financing Government's War Needs Confronts American National Wealth.

BANKING SYSTEM BIG AID

Captains of Industry Forging Ahead in Effort to Offset Feeling of Hes-Itaney That Manifests Itself Among Some Wealthy Citizens.

CHICAGO, March 16 .- (Special.) -With money working exceedingly close and time funds difficult to obtain on a per cent basis, and with the demand for capital far in excess of the available supply, it is not surprising that a feeling of hesitancy manifests itself in the business world. The feeling, however, is offset to a certain extent by the captains of industry, who are showing the proper American spirit and courage and are pushing shead in the effort to support the Government in the National

The friction between Admiral Dewey and Admiral von Diederichs arose over the German officer's disinclination to observe the rules of blockade estabished by the American commander in Manila Bay.

Admiral Dewey insisted that the warships of the neutrals entering the bay should report to the Americans, and was upheld in this contention by the British naval commander. The Germans, nevertheless, sought to evade the rule and on several occasion

MURDERER MUST

SLAYER OF SHERIFF ROACH, OF CHEYENNE, TO PAY PENALTY.

Governor Guuter, of Colorado, After Report of Board of Alienists, Refuses to Interfere With Sentence.

CANTON CITY, Colo., March 10 .-Clyde B. Pearson, condemned to be hanged in the state penitentiary here during the week of March 10 for the murder of Sheriff Roach, of Cheyenne. Wyo., lost his last chance for legal assistance when a commission of allenists appointed by Governor Gunter re-ported he was of sound mind. Pearson s 23 years old.

Three members of the pardons board questioned his sanity and recommended a commutation of sentence. This was declined by the Governor, but to make sure an injustice was not being done on this score he appointed th allenists to make the examination. Roach was slain after he had chase Pearson and a companion, Peter Burn known also as Cornellus Gray, acros the Colorado-Wyoming line into Lari-mer County. The place where the shooting took place was Webster County, early in 1916. Roach had organize a posse at Fort Collins, Colo., to pur sue the two men. One member of the posse, Niels Nelson, was shot and killed. Burns was accused of this and convicted and sentenced to life im risonment. Sheriff Roach had no warrant which he could serve on the two men in Colorado and was out of his jurisdiction in the chase at the time he was killed This fact was used by lawyers in Pear-son's trial, in arguments in an atempt to prove it was the Sheriff's plan to kidnap the two men and take them back to Wyoming.

Pearson was born in Indiana. He was sentenced to death June 30, 1916. Judg-ment was affirmed by the Supreme Court November 6, 1917, and the week of February 24 set for the hanging. Recently Governor Gunter extended a reprieve until the week of March 10. Burns is 22 years old. He was sento life imprisonment June 7. 1916.

Sheriff Roach was one of the most popular men in Wyoming, and it is said there were movements in some quar-ters to run him for Governor of the state. His funeral was one of the larg-citizens de est ever held in the state. Recently a intentions. delegation of Wyoming people, Roach's widow among them, appeared before the pardons board of Colorado to ask that justice be done the state of Wyo-ming and on behalf of the widow.
