SPT SUSPECT PLEADS NOT GUILTY.—Arraigned before United States Judge Wolverton yesterday, Silvio Bertolo Dal Bon, alias William Dolfin, former cook in the Third Oregon regiment and German spy suspect, pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging him with perjury. The court appointed Oscar Furuset to defend the accused man whose trial will be held next Wednesday. Dolfin's indictment on the perjury charge followed his confession to his nationality and his right to be in the United States.

day afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Rev. John H. Boyd officiating.

Members of the Multnomah and Oregon Bar associations will meet in the Courthouse lobby, Fourth-street entrance, at 1:15 P. M., on Monday, to march in the First Presbyterian Church. Employees of the O-W-R. & N. Company, represented by departmental heads and members, and the general committee, the employees' clubs, will also proceed to the church in marching order.

Our Boys' Department is growing in popularity—it is keeping up with the growing boys. It is the very kind of a place mothers like to come to, for it has the distinction of being the most comfortable and convenient department for boys and juveniles in Portland. On the street level—no elevator.

For boys from 6 to 16 years and for juveniles from 2 1/2 years up, we have everything to outfit them complete—from the ground up.

And right now you'll find all the new ideas in Boys' Suits, Hats, Blouses, Shirts and other things for Spring wear. And mind you—East-er is not very far off—it's well to give a thought to selection now.

Upward of 150 junk dealers of almost every race, creed and color were on hand to participate in the scramble. The result was fabulous prices for a lot of stuff the city considered worthless.

Division street was lined for blocks with junk wagons and the city storehouse was a veritable city of Babel with the collision of languages, gestures, odors, etc.

Competition became intense as soon as paper sold not to contain more than 200 pounds was bid up to $110. A miscellaneous collection of stuff which was not even at the sale was put up and netted $24.50 without ever having been sold.

Mr. Peterson was with the "Rain-bow" Division enlisted from Minneapolis. He trained in Kansas last Summer and went to France in the Fall. The family has received letters from him frequently, the last being dated February 19. The young man was 21 on February 17. He had studied in the University of Minnesota and had entered business life in a grain office in Minneapolis shortly before he enlisted.

Injuries sustained three months ago by Thomas Gallagher, who was struck by a zelwood truck ran him down on the street in Portland, eventuated Wednesday in his death. For 23 years Mr. Gallagher had been an employe of the
