Yesterday's Results.

McCoys, 124, defeated Astoria, 117. Woodburn, 122, defeated Heppner, 118. Pendleton, 118, defeated Astoria, 111.

High Individual Scores.

Frank Trach of Vancouver, 25. W. S. Short, of Vancouver, 25. Ralph Riggs, of McCoys, 25.

The third round of the Oregonian's Columbia-Willamette telegraphic shooting tournament was held yesterday.

and some excellent scores were turned in by the eight Oregon and Washington clubs entered in the tournament. Scores of the clubs were greatly handicapped by the weather, particularly those in Eastern Oregon and on the coast.

The shooters gathered from all around and shot at McCoys on Sunday.

The Vancouver Gun Club turned in the next highest score, which was 122. The Woodburn Gun Club, members of whom won the championship of the Columbia-Willamette telegraphic shooting tournament last year, made a score of 122 yesterday.

The result in yesterday's matches were: McCoys defeated Astoria, 124 to 117; Vancouver defeated Aberdeen, 123 to 118; Woodburn defeated Heppner, 122 to 114; and Albany defeated Pendleton, 118 to 111.

The Pendleton Gun Club had the worst luck, the members of that club hardly saw the clay pigeons in the rain and dust storm.

The rest of the 1918 schedule for the Columbia-Willamette tournament is as follows:

Sunday, March 24—Astoria vs. Vancouver, Aberdeen vs. McCoys, Woodburn vs. Pendleton, Heppner vs. Albany.

Sunday, March 25—Astoria vs. Vancouver, Aberdeen vs. Albany, McCoys vs. Heppner, Vancouver vs. Woodburn.

Sunday, April 7—Astoria vs. Albany, Aberdeen vs. Woodburn, McCoys vs. Pendleton, Heppner vs. Vancouver.

Sunday, April 14—Astoria vs. Heppner, Aberdeen vs. Pendleton, McCoys vs. Woodburn, Vancouver vs. Albany.

Secretary of the clubs are reminded to get the results in as early as possible to the Traps Shooting Editor of The Oregonian.

STORM HINDERS PENDLETON

Marksmanship is hampered because of dust obscuring targets.

Pendleton, Or., March 17.—(Special.)—With a dust storm blowing all afternoon, the Pendleton Gun Club, shooting today against Albany, fared badly, shooting but 111 marks.

The men making the team were: Y. Bowman, 24; Baum, 22; Nelson, 22; Farnsworth, 21; and Earl, 21. To date the Pendleton club has had but one good day shooting and has been greatly handicapped by the weather conditions.

Pendleton will shoot against Woodburn Sunday, March 24.

Astoria Scores 117 Targets.

ASTORIA, Or., March 17.—(Special.)—The Astoria Gun Club scored 117 targets out of a possible 125, shooting against the McCoys Gun Club, of McCoys, Or., in the Columbia-Willamette telegraphic shooting tournament. Nine shooters turned out in the rain and wind, the latter blowing at a velocity of about 45 miles an hour, and making it very hard to get a line on the bluerocks. The high gun for the Astoria Gun Club went to Charles Walker, 24; Henry Fink, 23; and C. Davis, 22. The local winners will shoot against Vancouver next Sunday.

Woodburn Tallies 122 in Shoot.

WOODBURN, Or., March 17.—(Special.)—The Woodburn Gun Club, last year's champions of the Oregonian-Columbia-Willamette telegraphic shooting tournament, shattered 122 blue rocks out of 125 here yesterday, shooting against the Heppner Gun Club. There was a slight rain, but the air was still. The individual scores were: Pete Whitney, 25; Charles Leith, 24; Charles Keller, 24; E. G. Hawman, 23; and E. R. Riches, 23. The Woodburn team, consisting of 25 in a row at the Portland Gun Club. The Woodburn crack shoot will compete with Pendleton next Sunday.

Heppner Shots Face Dust Storm.

HEPPNER, Or., March 17.—(Special.)—One hundred sixteen clay pigeons out of 125 was the score made by the Heppner Gun Club, shooting against the Woodburn Gun Club, yesterday in the Columbia-Willamette telegraphic shooting tournament. The Heppner shooters, expecting a high score, met dust storm, which kept down the score. The high gun was: C. A. Minor, 22; Dr. McMurdo, 24; B. R. Patterson, 23; Albert Baker, 23; and J. W. Hays, 23. The Heppner Gun Club is scheduled to shoot against Albany next Sunday.

Washington State Fair Recognized by Eastern Association.

YAKIMA, Wash., March 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made yesterday by Frank Meredith, secretary of the Washington State Fair, that the Percheron Society of America will offer the 118th annual silver medals and reserve ribbons, for displays of this class of stock at the State Fair here next fall. The awards are the same as those offered by the society in connection with the state fairs of New York, Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana.

Other livestock associations which have been recognized by the Washington State Fair are the American Sheep Raisers' Association, the American Hampshire Breeders' Association, the American White Swine Record Association, the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association and the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

SERIES TO BEGIN WEDNESDAY

Hockey Champions of East to Meet Western Title-Holders at Toronto.

Next Wednesday night at Toronto will mark the first world's series hockey championship game between Toronto winners of the National Hockey League, Vancouver, Pacific Coast Hockey Association champions, for the 1918 Stanley cup.

Vancouver left for the East last Thursday night and the squad was reported as being ready for a hard battle. With "Cyclone" Taylor in great shape the Vancouverites will give the N. H. L. winners a stiff argument from start to finish. Taylor is a wonder at scoring and easily led the P. C. H. A. players at netting the puck last season.

Mackay, Cook and Lehman are the other Vancouver men who will help give Toronto a run for the world's championship honors.

The first game will be played with six men.

DOG SHOW MAY BE GIVEN SOON

Proceeds of Event to Go to Red Star, Dog Red Cross Auxiliary.

If the plans of the Oregon Field Trials Club and Portland Kennel Club do not go amiss, Portland dog fanciers will most likely witness a bunch show next month, the net proceeds to go to the Red Star, the dog auxiliary of the Red Cross Society.

Miss H. H. Hargrave, secretary of the Humane Society, is very active in fostering the movement and the officers and members of the clubs mentioned are co-operating in the plan to make the affair a huge success, both from an entry and financial standpoint.

The committee representing the various clubs in the contest are: Dr. S. W. Giffin, chairman; H. H. Hargrave, secretary; and C. B. Johnson, treasurer.

SPOKANE BOY STAR ATHLETE

Carl Johnson Shines in Michigan-Chicago Track Meet.

SPOKANE, Wash., March 17.—(Special.)—Carl Johnson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, of Spokane, and former star athlete of Lewis and Clark High School, was the sensation of the University of Michigan-Chicago University indoor track meet held at Ann Arbor Saturday night.

The Spokane youth, who is only 19 years old and a sophomore, easily annexed the individual honors by scoring 122. He bested the tape ahead of a fast field in the 50-yard dash, topped the high hurdles in close to record time for another first place and led with two of his teammates for first place in the high jump.

RED SOX DEFEAT DODGERS

Boston Americans Gather 11 Runs Off 5 Brooklyn Pitchers.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 17.—(Special.)—In the first practice game of the season today at the Brooklyn stadium, the Boston Americans, 11 to 1, the Red Sox used four pitchers, all of whom proved effective.

The score: Boston, 11; Brooklyn (National), 1; 4 D. Batteries—Burb, McCabe, James, Wyatt and Agnew; Mayer, Hellman, Platt, Krueger and Wiza.

The Portland Gun Club shooters were in the best of form yesterday and shattered 125 bluerocks out of 125 for a perfect score against Boise, in the Northwest telegraphic traps shooting tournament. The members of the Portland Gun Club who made up the team breaking 25 clay pigeons in a row were: E. G. Hawman, Frank Templeton, C. B. Handy, Dr. C. F. Cathey and Abner Blair.

Taking the shooting straight through yesterday, the best scores of the year were turned in. Although it rained slightly, there was no wind, making it ideal for traps shooting.

Mrs. Ada Schilling won the fourth of the series of seven merchandise prizes, being staged by the Portland Gun Club by breaking 98 birds out of 100. With two birds as an added handicap, it made Mrs. Schilling a perfect score of 100. Ten Ninros were tied for first prize in the merchandise shoot—Ada Schilling, Frank Templeton, C. B. Preston, W. H. Newland, H. H. Veatch, C. B. Handy, C. R. Caldwell, A. L. Zachrisson, C. B. Handy and F. C. Jackson, with 98 each, and Mrs. Schilling won the event in the shootoff.

When the Portland Gun Club registered 125 clay pigeons out of 125 against Boise, it not only made a perfect score, but set a record for the Northwest traps shooting tournament this year.

WOOD GETS CHANGE

Pitcher to Try Infield if "Come-back" Fails.

Wood, more than any other person in the world, has taken his failure to "come back" to heart. He worked like a Trojan down South last Spring and when he went north again and turned loose he found his trusty right arm was not to be depended on. It was discouraging, and he felt miserable to think he would be the object of a big investment and had failed.

But Wood coaxed Manager Lee Fohl all through last year to give a chance at some other job. He showed himself a corking good infielder, and at bat stung the ball with the twang of a Lajoie. Fohl had all his positions filled, however, and there was nothing for Wood to do but warm the bench.

This Spring it is different. Al Klepper, Joe Harris, Louis Guisto, Josh Billings, Bill Wambuzans, Henri Deberry and several others have either enlisted or been drafted. There are many holes on the Cleveland club to patch up, and Lee Fohl, it is said, plans to give Wood a chance at one of these gaps in the event Wood's arm again fails.

With only a young recruit to try for the first-base position, Fohl feels discouraged and places his faith in Wood if he needs him there. The recruit who will make a try at the job is a big fellow from South Carolina. His name is Ballinger and, while he is said to be a slinger of the Joe Jackson type, he never has shown much class as a fielder and probably will not do.

That's where Wood will get his chance. Word from Cleveland said he would be Manager Fohl's best bet for the first-base position.

GIRLS' SHOW SUCCESS

O. A. C. MAIDS PRESENT STUNTS TO PACKED HOUSE.

Third Annual Event Nets Fifty Sum for Y. W. C. A.—Delta Alpha Is Winner of Trophy.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 17.—(Special.)—The girls of the O. A. C. were in the spotlight at the third annual show and dance given by the O. A. C. was given last night before a packed house. Twelve acts showed a marked variety of talent. The show was given for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A., and about 1500 people attended, so it is estimated that a big sum of money will go to the association.

Patriotic numbers, Icelandic stunts, campus and college hits, an Oriental number and others were given. A rule of the show required that only three minutes be allowed between acts and seven minutes for the individual acts. Dean Mary Fawcett originated the idea of having the show, and offered a stipend to the organization putting on the best stunt. The award was made to the Delta Alpha, the same sorority to which the honors were given last year.

Second mention went to Clouthorn Hall. The winning stunt was entitled "Every Dog Has Its Day," and was a clever skit in which all the dogs belonging to the fraternities were represented by girls in costume. A trainer kept the dogs through various antics scoring prominent students and members of the faculty.

The Clouthorn stunt was called an "Esko Tragedy," and was a melodramatic farce telling the love story of some Eskimoes. Girls concealed beneath a huge white cloth represented a restless iceberg as a background for the stunt.

Perhaps the outstanding feature of a new radio-controlled torpedo, the invention of a young wireless experimenter, was shown last night at the University of Oregon. The inventor, a young man named J. PROGRESS IS RAPID Trapshooters' Association Includes 1502 Clubs.

MEMBERSHIP IS 60,000

Amateur Organization Has for Its Purpose the Encouragement of Shooters in Sport and Medals Offered Highest Averages.

BY C. C. GRAHAM.

Secretary of American Amateur Trapshooters' Association.

The American Amateur Trapshooters' Association, of which Lieutenant John Philip Sousa is president, was organized in December, 1915.

It is composed of amateur trapshooters, pledged to the policy of advancing the interest of individual amateur trapshooters, and of local trapshooting clubs. In the two years of its existence the association has made remarkable progress.

During 1917, 212 gun clubs applied for affiliation with the A. A. T. A., bringing the total number of affiliated clubs up to 1502. These clubs represent a total membership of over 60,000 men and women, who are interested in the sport of trapshooting. During the year 1516 individuals joined the association.

The A. A. T. A. has been worked up so well that it now has organizations in 47 states, six Canadian provinces, in Alaska and Hawaii, 52 Canadian clubs are enrolled. The officers of the association bested: Mr. Sousa, president; Charles W. Billings, of Oceanport, N. J., first and second vice-presidents; and the writer, secretary and treasurer.

The president of each affiliated state association is also a National vice-president.

Medals Are Offered.

To encourage the individual shooter to improve his scores, and to raise his average, the American Amateur Trapshooters' Association offers a series of Proficiency Medals, which to win, the shooter must turn in a certain number of scores of a certain average in each class.

A bronze medal is awarded in the 75 per cent class, a German silver medal in the 80 per cent class, a sterling silver medal in the 85 per cent class, a 10-karat gold medal in the 90 per cent class and a 14-karat solid gold medal in the 95 per cent class.

During 1917, a total of 1049 proficiency medals were awarded by the association for scores made in club shoots. Five hundred and forty-five new contestants entered the A. A. T. A. medal race during the year.

The plans of the A. A. T. A. for 1918, are broader in scope and will accomplish more than ever before the purpose of the association—to encourage regular club shooting and to stimulate increased proficiency on the part of individual shooters.

Plan is Revised.

CARELES SBAKERS WARNED

Failure to Use Wheat Substitutes to Result in Closing Order.

SPOKANE, March 17.—Bakers who are not using the required 20 per cent of wheat flour substitutes in bread and rolls by March 20 will be forced by the Federal administration to cease baking those products. It is declared in a telegram received at the office of the State Food Administrator here tonight from Charles Hebbard, Food Administrator for Washington, who is at Washington, D. C., attending a conference of food administration officials.

Mr. Hebbard urges that bakers use potatoes as wheat flour substitutes as generally as possible by spontaneous combustion. Air facilitates oxidation, really fanning the warm dust into a blaze. Keep air damp and quiet to avoid a fire.

Ventilation Causes Combustion.

Spontaneous combustion is caused, chemist tell us, by floating in particles of coal dust or other inflammable material floating in the air. If the particles are not removed by ventilation, they will rise until their temperature to the ignition point. If this explanation is correct, it would appear as if such a fire could be prevented by perfect ventilation. Such, however, is not the case, for ventilation may actually help to bring about fire by spontaneous combustion. Air facilitates oxidation, really fanning the warm dust into a blaze. Keep air damp and quiet to avoid a fire.
