

LAST RITES SAID FOR W. W. COTTON

Dr. John H. Boyd Pays Fitting Tribute to Memory of Portland Man.

LIFE FULL OF GOOD DEEDS

Oregon and Multnomah Bar Associations Send Large Delegations to Funeral of Distinguished Member.

Seldom have the altitudes of the First Presbyterian Church heard such tributes to the departed, however indelible the impress of their lives upon that of the community.

The organ wails in prelude, then softens, as from a distance, the choral voices caught up the strains of that immortal hymn of comfort, "Abide With Me."

Pastor Draws Lesson. The organ wails in prelude, then softens, as from a distance, the choral voices caught up the strains of that immortal hymn of comfort, "Abide With Me."

Those who best knew him were familiar with his achievements and sterling personal worth, said Dr. Boyd, and of his struggle against obstacles to a place pre-eminent in his profession and the hearts of men, of his rare attributes of helpful discernment and wisdom.

Death is City's Loss. "We must recognize that our city has lost one of its largest assets, a great and genuine personality—one that any city cannot afford to lose.

Early Struggle Not Forgotten. "The success of our friend was pre-eminently his own. He climbed high, as men measure height in the world of success.

Efforts Encouraged Boys. "It was wonderful how the boys," he declared, "just occasionally to meet a man like this man, and to know that he was the head of the movement in their city."

Attendant at the services were large delegations from the Oregon and Multnomah Bar Associations, and from the officials and employees of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company.

Mr. Cotton died at Los Angeles, on Wednesday, March 12, where he had gone to recuperate his health, after an illness of several months.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

The Portland Shakespeare Study Club will give a reception and card party on Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Anton Gleibisch, 672 Hallock street.

Marshalltown Women's Club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. F. E. Crony, 131 East Sixty-eighth street.

Pierce, of Portland, chairman of the flax committee of the Chamber of Commerce. He brought many samples of commodities manufactured from flax.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club will meet today at the home of Mrs. E. H. Whitney, 1284 Missouri avenue.

The Mayflower Club held an interesting meeting last night in the Portland Hotel.

The Buckman Parent-Teacher Association will meet Wednesday at 3 o'clock.

Kerns Parent-Teacher Association will hold a war garden rally tonight.

The clubwomen of the state have had their attention called to the sunny little message of the post cards gotten out by the outside department of the Federation.

The Home-Social Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. George A. Brown, 709 Johnson street.

The members of the New England Society will meet tonight in the assembly room of the Hotel Portland.

The Corriente Club will meet today at 1 o'clock with Mrs. J. F. Kinder, of the Mallory Hotel.

The Holman Parent-Teacher Association will meet tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Multnomah County Institute, W. C. U. will be entertained at the Mattie Sleeth Union in the Oakley Green Evangelical Church.

Miss Madeline Sasse contributed generously to the programme of the Couch Parent-Teacher Association recently by singing a group of solos.

Miss Margaret E. Hodge, president of the Philadelphia Board of Foreign Missions and executive secretary of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church.

Irrington art class will meet today promptly at 2 P. M. in the Art Museum.

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE HOW TO GROW CAULIFLOWER

THE cauliflower requires a rich, moist soil, and thrives best under irrigation. It will not withstand as much frost as cabbage, but is very sensitive to hot weather.

FAMOUS HEN at CENTRALIA

"Biddy" on Exhibition by Red Cross Chapter; Fowl on Long Journey.

CENTRALIA, Wash., March 18.—(Special)—"Biddy," the famous Red Cross Plymouth Rock hen which has been started on a long journey from Red Cross chapter to Red Cross chapter throughout the country.

Those your want ads to The Oregonian, Main 7676, A 6925.

HICKORY CARTERS FOR YOUR CHILDREN'S SAKE. Astin & Co. Chicago New York

The Salvation Army Needs Additional Funds for War Work—Everyone Should Help in This Great Cause—Subscribe NOW! Daughters of the American Revolution Will Meet for Red Cross Work Tomorrow From 10 to 5 o'Clock in Auditorium, on Fourth Floor

U. S. Thrift Stamps are the safest investment in the world, for they are backed by the entire wealth of the Nation.

The Standard Store of the Northwest Olds, Wortman & King Reliable Merchandise—Reliable Methods

Easter Favors Main Floor—Make your selections now, while assortments are at their best.

The Garment Store Presents Smartest Easter Fashions The accepted modes in Women's Apparel find full expression in this Notable Collection of Suits, Coats, Dresses, Skirts and Waists.

New Khaki-Kool Sport Silks In a Wealth of Designs and Colorings Main Floor—For outdoor apparel, particularly for sport togs, khaki-kool is pre-eminently the fabric of the hour.

Women's and Misses' New Silk Dresses $12.50 to $59.50 Second Floor—Beautiful frocks for street and party wear in a multitude of charming styles.

Rug Sale! Third Floor —$25.00 Velvet and Brussels Rugs now $21.75 —Tapestry Brussels Rugs, size 9x12 feet $14.75

Opening Days in the Millinery Salons —Busy days, too, for women are anxious to have Easter shopping over with as soon as possible and realize the advantage of choosing assortments while they are at their best.

Printed Voiles and Crepes In New Batik Art Designs Lace Department, First Floor—These new Batik patterns are the 1918 adaptation of a printing method used by the Japanese in the early centuries.

New Lustre Laces Main Floor—17, 27 and 36-inch Lustre Lace Flouncings and 3 to 9-inch Edges in beautiful new designs.

New Serge Dresses $15.00 to $48.50 Second Floor—Serviceable and yet dressy, these serge frocks find high favor for street and business wear.

Grocery Specials —COX'S GELATINE—10c special, package for only —IMPORTED French Peas, special, the can 21c —ENGLISH WALNUTS, small size—special, lb. 20c

Easter Linens —The Linen Store is splendidly prepared to supply your Easter needs. Stocks are large, assortments complete and prices the lowest.

Richardson's Fine Linens —We are sole Portland agents for these celebrated Linens—the world's standard of quality for over two generations.

Garden Tools Third Floor —Turf Edgers, long handle, 75¢ —Garden Rakes priced at 35¢ —Lawn Rakes priced at only 59¢ —Women's Shovels priced at 45¢ —Grass Hooks priced now at 50¢

New Hand Bags Main Floor—Your Easter outfit will be incomplete without an up-to-date Bag or Purse. A large assortment of the season's newest shapes and styles here for your choosing.

TWO PLATOON IS UP

Firemen Renew Efforts to Change Present System. The firemen have after the two platoon system once more. A petition was presented to City Commissioner Bigelow yesterday by a committee representing the men, in which the City Council is asked to inaugurate the two platoon or two shift plan.

PETITION PRESENTED CITY

Should Council Refuse to Grant Request, Measure Will Again Be Brought Before Voters at Special Election May 17.

The firemen have after the two platoon system once more. A petition was presented to City Commissioner Bigelow yesterday by a committee representing the men, in which the City Council is asked to inaugurate the two platoon or two shift plan.

Centralia Committee Busy.

CENTRALIA, Wash., March 18.—(Special)—Preparatory to war savings day Wednesday, the Centralia war savings committee has appointed J. C. Watson and J. Shanedling to canvass local business men and ascertain who are members of war savings societies.

Keelo Minister Preaches Farewell.

KEELO, Wash., March 18.—(Special)—Rev. F. L. Fraser, pastor of the Keelo Presbyterian Church for the past two years, preached his farewell sermon at the here yesterday. His closing sermon Sunday evening was on the text, "Keep the Altar Fire Burning."

City this morning started a house-to-house canvass to enroll every woman and child in Centralia in war savings.

Davidson's Victory Breads. Quality is the Foundation of Davidson's Breads. Includes images of various bread packages like Ideal Bread, Whole Wheat Bread, Liberty Bread, Raisin, and Home Made.