OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

Corvallis, March 20.—(Special.)—The controversies over the wrestling match between the Oregon Agricultural College and the University of Oregon which was held at Eugene have caused investigations to be made by college authorities and have been discussed profusely in the editorial columns of the rival school papers.

The whole trouble arose over the referee for the meet. Eddie O'Connell, the Multnomah Club wrestler, had been agreed upon by both institutions. As the meet was to be held in Eugene, Manager Leach, of the Corvallis institution, left the matter of securing O'Connell in the hands of Tiffany, of Eugene. Just two days before the meet, however, Tiffany wrote that he could not get O'Connell and that he knew of no able man to take his place.
