German Plan Discounced.

The first reports of infantry fighting were indicative of an attempt on the part of the Germans to drive hrai salient, isolate the British troops further east and regain the Hindenburg line, from which they were friven on November 22, 1917, by Genaral Byng's sudden blow.

Subsequent dispatches have proved that this was, indeed, the plan of the eo German general staff. The fighting but a side issue to the terrific onof the salient.
