LYLE EDITOR IS MISSING

MR. HOLSMAN, WHO BORROWED GUN FRIDAY, DISAPPEARS.

Investigation Being Conducted to Ascer tain Whereabouts of Man Who May Have Met With Accident.

GOLDENDALE, Wash, March 25 GOLDENDALE. Wash, March 15—(Special.) — Word reached Goldendale this afternoon that Editor Helsman, of the Lyle News, has been reported missing since last Friday, on which day he borrowed a gun of W. V. Crans, supposedly to go hunting. As he has not returned and nothing has been heard from him, there is much conjecture as to whether he mest with an accident, foul whether he met with an accident, for lay or took his life.

The Lyie News was recently estab-lished by Mr. Holsman, and he has stated that he was doing well. There was no issue of the paper last week, which should have come out on Fri-

The missing man had been selected to take charge of the manual training department at the Lyle schools last week, and supplies had been ordered for him. He is a man of family. The disappearance is being investigated.

LIVESTOCK MEN CALLED

Annual Convention of Breeders Will Be Held at Ontario.

BAKER, Or., March 25.—(Special.)— William Pollman, president, and S. O. Correll, secretary of the Cattle and Horse Raisers' Association of Oregon, today issued the call for the annual convention of the association, which will be held at Ontario April 23 and 24. A number of speakers have been se-cured from different sections, some as far East as Missourt River points, and many subjects of interest to livestock growers will be discussed and consid-

The Ontario Commercial Club and the stockmen of Malbeur County are in charge of the arrangements for the convention and the entertainment of members, delegates and visitors. The brand-adjusting board for the state of Oregon will be in session also in Ontario during this convention.
