

OLD SCORES TO BE SETTLED TONIGHT

Barrieau and Darcy Tuned Up for Battle of Lives at Eleventh-Street Playhouse.

SEMI-WINDUP LOOKS GOOD

Neff and Trambitas Slated to Put Up Hurricane Fight—Other Bouts on Card Promise to Be Hard-Hitting Variety of Sluggers.

TONIGHT'S BOXING PROGRAMME. Frank Barrieau vs. Jimmy Darcy, 155 lbs. Alex Trambitas vs. Chet Neff, 135 lbs.

All is in readiness for tonight's boxing smoker at the Eleventh-Street Playhouse. It is staged under the auspices of the Rose City Athletic Club.

Barrieau is all tuned up for his battle with Jimmy Darcy (Valley Trambitas) in the main bout of the evening.

Darcy is more than anxious to get revenge on Barrieau, and says he was never in better condition for a fight than he is at present.

Alex Trambitas and Chet Neff are carded for the semi-windup. Neff fought Hanson here at the last smoker, and lost to the Portland light-weight.

Joe Swain and Pat Bradley are booked for a six-round engagement which promises to be a slugfest from start to finish.

Star Aggregations to Visit Spokane and Play in Tournament.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 26.—(Special.)—Vancouver will be represented by two teams at the Northwest bowling congress, to be staged in Spokane April 1-12.

The Vancouver team that will make the trip will be composed of the following players: Black, Jacoby, Conroy, McMillan, Ellsworth and Hodges.

BOXER TO BE TRANSFERRED. Lieutenant Earl Baird Writes of Coming Change to Berkeley.

Lieutenant Earl Baird, the Seattle Athletic Club boxer and American Athletic Union champion, who won the 135-pound Red Cross tournament recently staged at San Francisco by the Olympic Club, has written from Fort Wood, Wash., to boxing instructor George Green, of the Olympic Club, that he has been transferred from the light artillery to the aviation section at Berkeley and would like to box under the Winged "O" colors.

Idaho Football Player Enlists. MOSCOW, Idaho, March 26.—Harry Hartwell, of Buhl, Idaho, who played guard on the University of Idaho football team last season, left school to enter the United States Army flying corps.

GORDON HAT

best known as the best HAT. Lowey & Co. 286 Washington St.

CANADIAN BOXER WHO BATTLES WITH JIMMY D'ARCY AT THE ELEVENTH-STREET PLAYHOUSE TONIGHT.

FRANK BARRIEAU.

DIRECTORS TO MEET

Baseball Moguls to Confer at Seattle Today.

FIREWORKS ARE EXPECTED

President Blewett and Bob Brown, of Vancouver, Slated for Arguments; Additional City to Be Voted in or One Shaved Off.

The directors of the Pacific Coast International League will meet in Seattle today for their much-heralded pow-wow.

Five cities will be represented at today's gathering: Portland, Spokane, Tacoma, Seattle and Vancouver. B. C. These cities constitute the present Pacific Coast International League, but the directors will either vote a franchise to an additional city or shave the circuit down to four clubs.

VANCOUVER TO SEND 2 TEAMS. Star Aggregations to Visit Spokane and Play in Tournament.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 26.—(Special.)—Vancouver will be represented by two teams at the Northwest bowling congress, to be staged in Spokane April 1-12.

BOXER TO BE TRANSFERRED. Lieutenant Earl Baird Writes of Coming Change to Berkeley.

Lieutenant Earl Baird, the Seattle Athletic Club boxer and American Athletic Union champion, who won the 135-pound Red Cross tournament recently staged at San Francisco by the Olympic Club, has written from Fort Wood, Wash., to boxing instructor George Green, of the Olympic Club, that he has been transferred from the light artillery to the aviation section at Berkeley and would like to box under the Winged "O" colors.

EVENTS ARE SCHEDULED

PROGRAMME OF INDOOR MEET ARRANGED BY COMMITTEE.

One National Junior Championship Offered Northwest Games by American Athletic Union.

The executive committee in charge of the Northwest military and Olympic track and field meet, to be held at the Ice Palace, Friday night, April 26, met yesterday at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club and decided on the programme of events for the big indoor meet.

One of the National junior indoor events was offered the Northwest meet by the American Athletic Union and the committee yesterday made application for the 70-yard high hurdles to be one of the main attractions for the big championship meet.

TRIPLE AS COOLER Eastern Sport Writer Compares Pacific Coast Player With Famous Speaker.

Fielder Jones Describes Rangy Youngster as "Equal to Best Fielder I Ever Saw"—Recruit Handles All Chances.

WORK AS FIELDER PRAISED

Fielder Jones Describes Rangy Youngster as "Equal to Best Fielder I Ever Saw"—Recruit Handles All Chances.

BY R. V. WILLIAMS. SHREVEPORT, La., March 26.—(Special.)—Back in 1908 a rangy youngster broke in with the Red Sox, getting his first start, with that famous club on the Spring training jaunt.

The following programme of events was decided upon: Junior indoor National 70-yard high hurdles, 70-yard high hurdles, 70-yard low hurdles, shot, put, high jump, 70-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 480-yard dash, mile, open relay (one mile), grammar school relay, high school relay, bomb throwing, bayonet sparring, gas mask relay and equipment race.

Youngster Is Fast. In the Browns' 1918 training camp, just 19 years later, is a tall and rangy youngster, mild, will and calm lightning.

The kid in mind is Kenneth Williams, the fancy speed merchant from the Pacific Coast League. Williams may never be a .300 hitter, although he bears all the earmarks of a slugger, he may ever be rated a real big league star.

ABERDEEN SUBMITS TERMS. Grays Harbor City Will Enter Team in League Under Conditions.

ABERDEEN, Wash., March 26.—(Special.)—Aberdeen will enter a team in the Pacific Coast International League if the directors at their meeting in Seattle tomorrow, will vote to guarantee Aberdeen a start until they are at the Aberdeen club falls to be a money maker the league must make up the deficit.

PHYSICAL DIRECTORS SOUGHT. Y. M. C. A. Wants 75 Men Monthly to Send to France for Work.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Another drive for physical directors for training camps located both at home and abroad was inaugurated here today by the National war work council of the Y. M. C. A.

NEW SYSTEM PROPOSED

WASHINGTON TO HIRE ASSISTANT ATHLETIC COACH. Graduate Manager's Office to Be Done Away With and Money Spent to Further Intramural Sports.

The University of Washington at Seattle will do away with the graduate manager system and hire an assistant athletic coach.

Rumor Says Swimmer Is to Be Married Soon. Duke Kahanamoku, Hawaii's World Champion, Keeps Afloat to Himself.

A RUMOR may only be a rumor, but here is one which will interest more than the swimming public and has to do with the greatest advertisement Hawaii ever had.

Lefts and Rights. Fred Dyer, the English boxer, who was recently appointed a boxing instructor in the United States Army, will be stationed at Camp Grant, to the position made vacant by the reducing of the ranks of Danny Goodman, the Chicago boxer, former champion.

Joe Walling, who broke his hand in a recent bout with Johnny Griffiths at Akron, O., will be ready for his service during the month of April. The injury knocked him out of $4000 worth of engagements.

OREGON SPIRIT RIFE U. of O. Athletes Determined to Win Over Obstacles.

SCHOOLS PLAN BIG TRACK MEET. Gresham Grounds to Be Scene of Grand Picnic and Athletic Stunts.

TRACK SQUAD TRAINS HARD

Green Men Out to Uphold Reputation of Trainer Hayward, Whose Absence Severely Handicaps Chances of University Team.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 26.—(Special.)—Coach "Bill" Hayward's absence from the campus is not being allowed to entirely disrupt Oregon's preparations for the coming track and field season.

Reports from the Portland hospital where Coach Hayward is recuperating after an operation for tumor of the stomach indicate that he will be in condition to take up his work again much earlier than had been expected.

SUN EAGERLY AWAITED

FORT STEVEN SOLDIERS WANT TO START BASEBALL. League of Six Teams Ready to Begin Series as Soon as Weather Permits. Track Meet Soon.

Captain E. E. Lane, athletic officer at Fort Stevens, Or., was a Portland visitor yesterday and says the boys at the Columbia River forts are patiently waiting for the sun to shine so they may start their baseball schedule.

BALTIMORE MAY BE SITE

WILLARD CONSIDERING CITY FOR SCENE OF BATTLE. Champton to Ask Police as to Possibility of Holding Championship Match in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, March 26.—Jess Willard, world's champion heavyweight fighter, with Manager Colonel Miller, arrived here yesterday and will be left over from Willard's circuit.

Duffy Shows Speed When Bullets Begin to Fly. Oakland Featherweight is Wearing Hat With Hole in Crown.

JIMMY DUFFY, clever Oakland featherweight, who has overcome several times in a Portland ring, came near being tagged for a "wooden overcoat" while wandering around Oakland the other night.

NEW SYSTEM PROPOSED

WASHINGTON TO HIRE ASSISTANT ATHLETIC COACH. Graduate Manager's Office to Be Done Away With and Money Spent to Further Intramural Sports.

The University of Washington at Seattle will do away with the graduate manager system and hire an assistant athletic coach.

Rumor Says Swimmer Is to Be Married Soon. Duke Kahanamoku, Hawaii's World Champion, Keeps Afloat to Himself.

A RUMOR may only be a rumor, but here is one which will interest more than the swimming public and has to do with the greatest advertisement Hawaii ever had.

Lefts and Rights. Fred Dyer, the English boxer, who was recently appointed a boxing instructor in the United States Army, will be stationed at Camp Grant, to the position made vacant by the reducing of the ranks of Danny Goodman, the Chicago boxer, former champion.

Joe Walling, who broke his hand in a recent bout with Johnny Griffiths at Akron, O., will be ready for his service during the month of April. The injury knocked him out of $4000 worth of engagements.

Oscar Anderson, who claims he holds the heavyweight title of all Europe, has arrived in New York from Denmark, looking for new laurels. He is 27 years old, stands six feet three inches tall and weighs 205 pounds.

TONIGHT

11th-St. Playhouse ALL STAR BOXING

BARRIEAU-DARCY TRAMBITAS-NEFF WILLIS-MITCHEE SWAIN-BRADLEY HOFF-HOKE

Raised Cushioned Ring-side Seats. Tickets—Rich's and Stillers'

Sherwood, Magee, Clark and Wingo. Paddy Driscoll, former Northwestern University football and baseball star and late of the Cubs, has enlisted in the Army.

The Browns and Cardinals expect to start their inter-city series on April 6 in the day after they arrive home from their training camps.

Bob Harmon, former Cardinal and Pirate twirler, may return to the big leagues. He has asked Dreyfus for another chance and may get it at the Pirates' training camp.

Willie Stumpf, now with the Pirates, has a great throwing arm. Willie's worst fault is—he's a slow thinker—that is, when it comes to baseball.

When Casey Stengel sent his signed contract to Barney Dreyfus he predicted that the Pirates would be in the "upper four."

Max Carey, star outfielder of the Pittsburgh club, wintered on the Pacific Coast. He says he's ready to start the season now.

Washington fans are rooting hard for Bill Lamar, who went South with the Yankees. Bill is well known to folks in the capital.

Walter Johnson, Griff's star boxer, recently was ill, suffering from an attack of the mumps.

If Fielder Jones doesn't have better luck this year with the Browns, the St. Louis fans will be demanding his scalp.

The Tigers are out to get a winner this year. Coach Bill Donovan has 14 pitchers with which to work.

Now that he is on a New York team, Ping Bodie is anxious to make good. If Ping smashes down many fences this year with his big gun he'll make a great hit with the Italian population.

Manager John Ganzel, of the Kansas City club, hopes to land some players from the Giants and White Sox. John knows where to pick 'em.

A Toledo writer says that Roger Bresnahan's players are suffering from writer's cramp, as few of them have signed contracts.

Congratulations are in order for Ray Schalk, of the White Sox. The storied called recently, bringing a bouncing baby girl.

Al Holt, of the Cleveland Indians, rises to remark that his real name is Alva W. Holt. Holt was his nom de plume in the Federal League.

Hugh Bradley, formerly with the Red Sox, spent the winter traveling the vaudeville circuit with his "Baseball Four." Bradley is quite a singer.

Pitcher Hubbell, the young boxer McGraw wanted to land, has quite a reputation as a strong man.

Brooklyn schoolboys are rooting hard for Waite Hoyte, the Giant youngster. He is a product of Erasmus Hall, the school which Dick Coster, former big league catcher, once attended. The latter is now in the Army.

Howard Baker, of the Giants, worked in an ammunition factory in Bridgeport during the winter.

In Harry Thompson the Senators have a reversible pitcher-outfielder.

PITTSBURG PIRATES DEFEATED. Philadelphia Americans Win in Practice Game by 4-to-2 Score.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 26.—Although both teams annexed seven hits each and erred once, the Philadelphia Americans won today's game from the Pittsburgh Nationals by a score of 4 to 2. Each team used three pitchers.

Toledo Postmaster Sets Example. TOLEDO, Or., March 26.—(Special.)—Yesterday J. J. Galther, Toledo's postmaster, set an example of patriotic duty which if followed by the various postmasters of Oregon would soon wind up the war stamp campaign.

Centralia Girls to Play. CENTRALIA, Wash., March 26.—(Special.)—Tomorrow night the Centralia high school girls basketball team will meet the Oakville girls. The Centralia aggregation has not met defeat this season. The Centralia boys' team has closed a successful season with seven games won out of 10 played.

Right Off the Bat. SINCE becoming business manager of the St. Louis Browns, Bobby Quinn has proven himself a livewire. Bobby isn't overlooking many tricks.

John Ruskin. I'll camp or abroad—send your boy a box of John Ruskin Cigars.