Coast International League Directors Begin Business Session in Seattle.

CIRCUIT QUESTION HELD UP

Action to Be Taken on Awarding of Franchises at Today's Meeting. Aberdeen Seems Likely to Be Sixth Club in League.

BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON.

SHATTLE, Wash. March 27.—(Special.)—The Pacific Coast International League waded into its business session this afternoon, and after four hours of gabfest, during which time they decided on the opening and closing dates of the season, they adjourned at 7 octook tanight for dinner.

I o'clock tonight for dinner.

It was decided to start the season Tuesday, April 30, with games at Portland, Tacoma and Seattle, closing Sunday, September 14, making a 20-week schedule. The magnates will enter into executive session after their return from dinner and start to work on the schedule, which will not be completed before Thursday night.

Circuit Question Held Over. Circuit Question Held Over.

The question of a sixth city to be admitted to the league was up for consideration, but no action regarding this matter will be taken until tomorrow. It seems as if Aberdeen has the inside track to land the franchise. Judge McCredie is strongly in favor of granting the Grays Harbor metropolis a franchise, and told the directors today they should guarantee the Aberdeen yeople against any losses during the season.

Joe Walsh, boxing promoter of Seat-tle, and Charles Sullivan, attorney, sat with the league magnates and asked that a franchise be given Camp Lewis. These men said they have assurances that the Camp Lewis team will be allowed to play its games at the American Lake cantonment, but must receive a franchise before anything official can be done toward getting the O. K. of the military authorities. Captain Wattelet, of Camp Lewis, was present, but said he had no authority to act.

Hamilton Is Signed.

Bob Brown announced the signing of Jimmy Hamilton as manager. Ham Itus managed the Mushegon club is the Central League last season and babeen an applicant to manage almost every club in the league. Hamilton will organize the Vancouver team from Central League players and, according to Brown, will schedule games and play along the route on their way to the Coast, in this way Brown capects to be able to realize enough money to make the transcriber the team to Vancouver to the team of Vancouver team of the snoted in transporting the team to Van

VETERAN MUST DELIVER THIS SEASON.

Jake Daubert, first-sacker of the Brooklyn Dodgers, will have to come through with better baseball this year if he expects to receive a big salary from the Podgers next season. In 1914 Daubert held out for a five-year contract at a salary of $9000 a year. Daubert, at one time the best first baseman in the National League, was a frost in the world's series games with the Red Sox in 1915 and fell way off in his batting last season. He soon will be 33 years old and probably has seen his best days as a big-leaguer.
