THE ROUTE OF YOUR WANT AD

Few persons realize the number of hands through which a want ad must pass after it is brought in or telephoned to The Oregonian office.

1-The telephone or counter clerk receives the ad; 2-Checker goes over the ad to correct any errors in spelling or classification; 8—Copy boy carries it to composing-room; 4—Foreman of classified sorts by classifications and distributes to linotype operators;

-Linotype operator sets ad into type; 6-Printed proof of ad goes to proofreader to be read for typographical errors;

-If any errors, ad goes back to machine for correction; Goes back to proofrender;

9-When "OK," goes to make-up man for distribution into form under proper classification; 10-Page, when made up, goes to stereotypers, who cast it into solid plate; 11-To pressmen, where papers are run;

12-To carriers, newsboys, newsdealers and mail, for distri-

If YOUR ad for The Sunday Oregonian is received LATE Saturday evening you are making it very difficult for every one of these workmen to give perfect service by forcing them to work under a heavy strain and at high tension, for besides your ad there will be hundreds of others received at the last

It is the desire of The Oregonian to render PERFECT SERVICE, but, with a heavy volume of business passing through so many hands, some errors are unavoidable. How-ever, with YOUR co-operation in the matter of furnishing EARLY copy, the percentage of error can be reduced to a
