urday broke the record for issuance of temporary automobile licenses in Portland, according to tabulations made yesterday by H. P. Coffin, of the made yesterday by H. P. Coffin, of the Safety First Commission. A total of 125 temporary licenses were issued by his office Saturday. The highest num-ber in any previous day was 101. So great is the rush for licenses for new and old machines the supply of tem-porary tags has run out. Persons hav-ing received permanent tags are urged to return the temporary tags imme-diately.

STANDING AUTO CAUSES ACCIDENT.—
The police records are covered with accident cases due to speeding automobiles, but here is a new one—a man injured by a standing auto. F. H. Kuemeyer, a butcher, residing at 292 Madison street, walked into the rear of an auto owned by C. M. Dilley and suffered a bad cut on the ear and a fractured right arm. Mr. Kuemeyer took tured right arm. Mr. Kuemeyer took full responsibility for the accident, say-ing he is blind in one eye and there-fore did not see the machine.

ABBEST OF AUTOIST SOUGHT.—John Hughos, aged 54 years, appeared at po-lice headquarters yesterday seeking the arrest of G. L. Cole, of 933 East Thirtysixth street North, whom he charges with running into him Saturday night with an automobile at Fifth and Alder streets. According to Mr. Hughes, he had just stepped from the curb when the auto struck him and continued on without stopping. He was not seriously hurt. The case is being investigated by the police.

Miss Harriet Wood, of the Central Library, is interesting college women of Oregon in the training camp for nurses to be conducted at Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 24 to September 12. This camp will be known as the College Women's Plattsburg. It as the College Women's Plattsburg. It will be sponsored by the Council of National Defense and the Red Cross.

The Red Cross Society has donated $75,000 to cover operating expenses of the camp. The trustees of Vassar offered the use of the grounds, buildings and equipment for the training of students in nursing. The Red Cross contribution was taken from the general fund and not from money given for relief.

The course will equal one year of regular training. Credit for a full year will be given to graduates of the camp. The age requirement is practically from 21 to 31 years. All applicants must be in sound health.

It is said these birds follow the tail end of smelt runs for the purpose of picking up the dead and sick fish. There were many fishermen on the river yesterday. They caught some fish, but it was nothing like it has been for the past week. Probably today there will be no smelt in the stream.

In the week the run lasted hundreds of tons of fish were caught.

If the bread you receive from your baker this week seems to contain more wheat substitute than that which you have been accustomed to in the past, you may congratulate your baker for his partfolism and be thankful that you reside in Oregon.

At a meeting of the bakery men of the state Saturday night at the Chamber of Commerce, called by W. B. Ayer, Federal Food Administrator for Oregon, it was decided that hereafter all bread furnished hotels, restaurants and other catering establishments should contain approximately 40 per cent of wheat substitute, and that, in view of the fact that on April 14, 25 per cent of exheliting will be required in all bread.

wheat substitute, and that, in view of the fact that on April 14, 25 per cent of substitute will be required in all bread, any baker who wished to display his patriotism, might go "over the top" before that time. All present expressed a wish to do so.

A number of patriotic talks were given at the meeting, and each speaker emphasized the necessity of conserving wheat. It was declared that the 20 per cent substitute loaf which has been made up to present time has proved very successful, and that the proved very successful, and that the spirit of dissatisfaction which pre-valled when the use of substitutes in bread was inaugurated, has practically disappeared. disappeared.
