

GOETHALS GETS BIG ARMY STAFF JOB

Canal Builder to Be Head of Department of Purchases, Storage, Traffic.

RANK IS ASSISTANT CHIEF

Co-ordination of Military Work to Include Recall of Experienced Officers From France for Service in United States.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Consolidation of two of the five divisions of the general staff into a new department of purchases, storage and traffic, headed by Major-General Goethals, as an assistant chief of staff, was announced today by Major-General March, chief of staff.

The duties of the director of purchases heretofore performed by Brigadier-General Palmer Pierce are now placed under the new department and will be performed by Colonel Hugh Johnson, formerly deputy provost marshal general.

The appointment of Colonel Johnson indicates his early promotion to the rank of Brigadier-General. General Pierce is reassigned to be Army representative on the War Industries Board.

Discontinuance of the official supply department by Edward R. Stettinius, now Third Assistant Secretary of War, also was announced.

The new plan brings the old general staff departments of purchases, formerly headed by General Pierce, and storage and traffic, the latter being headed by Colonel Johnson.

In addition, the whole question of transportation, afloat or ashore, will be centralized in this new division.

As a further step toward co-ordination of the military work at home and in France, a number of the most experienced officers of the War Industries Board, designated by General Pershing to return for duty in the department, their places abroad being taken by men familiar with the work in Washington.

LUMBER DELIVERIES HEAVY

Oregon Sends 23 Trains East With Shipyard Materials.

On the dispatch of a full trainload of shipbuilding lumber from here early yesterday morning a check showed it was the 23d trainload to be sent East from Oregon since February 22. Of a total of approximately 1,000,000 feet of material ordered in the Northwest, 16,000,000 feet has been sent from Oregon and there is about 15,000,000 feet to be loaded. Some of the material has not been for ship construction, as parcels have been forwarded for the big Hog Island yard's buildings and work.

BAILEY GATZERT IS GONE

Sternwheeler Bids Adieu to River Associates on Way to Seattle.

Parting from friends of many years the popular steamer Bailey Gatzert whirled her way out of the harbor late yesterday afternoon, backing away from the Commodore dock at 5 o'clock. Getting into the stream, Captain R. N. Holbrook, who came from Seattle to take the vessel, announced three prolonged blasts on the siren whistle of the Gatzert, the farewell of the steam clans, and she was kept busy repeating them until she was below St. Johns. Captain Dick Sandstrom was pilot for the trip. It is planned to start the vessel early this morning from Astoria for Seattle. The tug Wallida will act as convoy as far as Cape Flattery and it is proposed to run up Puget Sound unattended.

COLUMBINE IS TRANSFERRED

Lighthouse Tender to Make Portland, Me., Headquarters.

There is an opportunity for several young men of the Northwest to make a trip by water to New York, as the lighthouse tender Columbine has been ordered transferred to Portland, Me., and rather than send regular Navy sailors on such a journey it is proposed to give others a chance for the voyage, which will be by way of the Panama Canal.

WAKHLAKUM ENDS BIG JOB

Government Dredge to Be Laid Up Until Freshet Season Passes.

Operations of the Government dredge Wakhlakum at the new steel shipyard of the Standifer Construction Corporation came to an end last night and the dredge was ordered here to get out of commission at the Government moorings until after the summer freshet.
