ULSTER OPPOSES HOME RULE PLANS

Dublin Convention Delegates

THE 50th sweater for the 50th soldier boy friend of May Robert took on form and outline and her Declare Non-Concurrence in Draft Report.

FISCAL QUESTION STICKER

Approach to Agreement Declared to for national debt on the plea of over-taxation in Ireland in the past, but admitting the principle of a small annual contribution to the imperial ex-"Fifth, denial of the right of the im-perial Parliament to impose military service in Ireland, unless with the con-A. C. Frame Arrested on Advice sent of the Irish Parliament." Fiscal Question Big Obstacle.

Over the fiscal question," the reporcontinues, "no approach to an agree continues, "no approach to an agree-ment was possible, and the real object of the proposals was clearly apparent in the official reply to questions by the chairman, signed by Mr. Redmond, the bishop of Raphoe. Mr. Devlin and George Russell, in which they emphat-ically insisted upon their demand for fiscal independence and crystallized arguments in the following terms: "Self-government does not exist

Self-government does not exist where those nominally entrusted with

The report declares in opposition to Ulster takes a firm stand on the basis of the peoples' common prosperity and maintains that the fiscal unity of the United Kingdom must be preserved intact, carrying with it, as it does, the sovereignty of the imperial Parliament and due representation therein."

Taxation Views Differ.

The report points out that while Ireland's contribution to Imperial taxation for the current year was about f12,000,000, an important section of the Nationalists opposed any contribution, but a majority favored a contribution ranging from $12,500,000 to $14,500,000 to $15,500,000 to $15,500

Tailing any evidence of an approach to the narrowing of our differences, and in view of the new demands of the Nationalists, we were finally forced to declare that Ulater is unable to participate in any scheme of self-government for Ireland. We cannot overlook the strong probability that the controlling to arrive here. Judge Rossman has force of such would today be the reforce of such would today be the republican or Sinn Feln party, which is openly and aggressively hostile to Great Britain and the empire."

PECULATION MAX TOTAL $4500

ENGINEERS' MASCOT LOST

Bulldog Strays From Home of Captain Fred A. Mitchell.

Peddie, the bulldog mascot of the Fourth Engineers, strayed away from the home of Captain Fred A. Mitchell, 343 Hast Thirty-seventh street South, where she was living quietly with Mrs.

to join her regiment for the big adventure abroad.

Feddle was the pet of the engineers until last January, when the boys left for Camp Greene, N. C., where they were when last heard from.

for Camp Greene, N. C., where they were when last heard from.

Feddie is described as a seal-brown bulldog, with white face and breast and a pink ness. She wears a collar on which is inscribed. "Peddie, mascot of Fourth Engineers. Master Engineer country. Title to the stock was can-fred A. Mitchell." Anyone who finds Peddie should call Tabor $604. ground that it had been fraudulently

VANCOUVER MAN CONVICTED

Victor Hill Found Guilty of Offering Bribe to Exemption Board.

TACOMA, Wash, April 12.—Victor Hill, of Vancouver, Wash, was con-victed by a jury in the United States District Court today of offering a bribe Officer Grewalle, New on Force, of $15 to E. S. Blessecker, chairman of the Clark County Exemption Board, to change his classification from Class 1.

The grand jury reported a not true bill against Rev. J. E. Cartien, of Aberdeen, charged with selflicus utternances; John Ulmer, of Monteene, where the typical Wild West bad man when he entered the looky of the Oregon the reward in a French base hospital.

William Cramley, arrested for alleged violation of the espionage act.

Officer Grewalle, New on Force, Pershing and has been in the front line trenches. Not long ago a soldier who had returned from the front came into Mr. Alfred's store and told him that his brother's leg was blown off somewhere in France and later another soldier brought the news that Leonard was in a French base hospital.

Read The Oregonian classified ads.

May Robson Knits 50 Sweaters for Soldier Friends and Writes to Many of Them to Help Make Their Lives in France More Cheerful.

BY LEONE CASS BAER busy needles clackety-clicked holes in our conversation. Since the holes were conversation, and not in the sweater, it was all right. Miss Robson is tremendously in earnest about her knitting and about everything else she can do to help out. She has dug up her recipe for the famous May Robson giogurbread, in answer to an appeal from some Hooverish committee in Washington, D. C., which is getting out a cock book in which the contributors are famous folk.

Approach to Agreement Declared Be Impossible—Figures Green and a strict of the strict of Arizona Officers.

Embezzlement and Probably Will

Be Returned to Prescott to Answer Charges.

Joe Young, of Prescott, arrested Mr. Frame at his home yesterday after-

Operations of A. B. Frame Said to

"BAD MAN" INVADES HOTEL

he entered a telephone booth. By this and wholeheartedly concerned for the time a crowd had gathered and R. Myers, auditor at the Oregon Hotel, became alarmed.

"Send up some detectives," he shouting to get in communication with his friends. Inspector Swennes caught up with him at Broadway and Washing-BAIL IS FIXED AT $25,000 "What do you mean by creating all that disturbanceT' he asked. Prisoner Is Accused of Perjury and

"No, not a great deal-only you had us placing hurry up calls all over the beat to prevent a murder at the Ore-Officer Grewalle is new on the beat.

Charges of embezzlement and per- GALE TIES UP TRAFFIC

NEW YORK, April 11 .- Ninety-six ranging from £1,500,000 to £4,500,000 may be a majority out of the convention. The sport continues:

"We regard as excessively dangerous the nationalist claim that the Irish nationalist claim that the Irish end of the war, instead of remaining under imperial control for six years.

"Frame will be remembered as the engineer, and it is thought that it was his work in a mine adjoining Prescott which has brought about the arrest. Mrs. Frame last evening said her husband's arrest was absolutely without cause the nationalist claim that the Irish Persont trouble, she said, had been in the balance for several years. Mr. Frame will be remembered as the engineer who supervised the work of the war, instead of remaining under imperial control for six years.

"Falling any evidence of an approach to the narrowing of our differences." Frame. hours of Wintry weather in April came to a climax today with a storm of al-ternating snow, sleet and rain. The snow turned to slush immediate-sey towns where Government work is Hunt.

WASHINGTON, April 12—A small naval patrol boat was driven aground in home waters by yesterday's storm, the Navy Department announced today. Efforts to refloat her are in progress It is certain it will be saved. are is certain it will be saved. No lives were lost. Several other naval auxiliaries were endangered.

The Navy Department also announced that a mine sweeper went ashore in the storm off the Atlantic Coast and that one member of the crew, J. N. Con

Have Been Extensive.

PRESCOTT, Ariz, April 12—(Special.)—A. B. Frame, promoter of the Portland Mining Company in the Jerome district, is wanted here on two charges, embezzlement of $150 and perlury. His peculations from the company are alleged to amount to more pany are alleged to amount to more than $4500, but the specific charge is based on the first named amount. The perjury charge is based on his alleged representations to the State alleged representations to the State Carporation Commission last year that the vessel was in no important that the vessel was in the important th mediate danger.

LEG LOST ON WEST FRONT

Tacoma Merchant Learns Brother Is in French Hospital.

Mexican trouble was in progress and erty loans and why she still refused served all through the affair on the to subscribe to the third liberty loan. border. At the outbreak of the present war he went to France with General librarian, stating our errand, and asked Pershing and has been in the front line her whether she felt it would be best trenches. Not long ago a soldier who for her to ascertain from Miss Hunt had returned from the front came into the facts we were seeking or whether in the facts we were seeking or whether in brother's leg was blown off somewhere in France and later another sol- would prefer us to see her, as she feit

MISS LOUISE HUN CLEARED BY BOARD

Assistant Librarian Exonerated of Accusation That She Is Disloyal.

ATTITUDE IS SET FORTH

In Statement to Members of Board of over the telephone.

"There is a fellow up here with a gun four feet long and from his actions he seems bent on murder."

Tom Swennes, of the inspector's squad, rushed to the seems and when he arrived all was quiet at the Oregon. It is increasingly a source of pride to me that in this conflict our Grewelle had made his exit after falling to get in communication with his dera above the statesmen of the other. ders above the statesmen of the other warring nations.

"His aims and ideals and those of other earnest people with whom I disagree are my aims and ideals. The disagree are my aims and ideals. "No disturbance I he asked." The life of the control of the contro 'obstructionist,' I merely wish to claim the constitutional American right pri-vately to hold a minority opinion."

Board Issues Findings.

After considerable study last night,

GOVERNMENT WORK ON ATLANTIC COAST FORCED TO SUSPEND.

Snow, Sleet and Rain Continue for 16 Bours and Several Boats Are Reported as in Danger.

After considerable study last night; following the formal meeting, the board of directors of the Library gave out the following statement:

"The board has carefully considered the charges brought against Miss Louise Hunt through the press and by affidavit. After such consideration and a thorough examination of Miss Hunt as to her position in the premises, the board finds that Miss Hunt is not chargeable with any overt act of opposition or criticism of the policy of funds the same manner in which the Oregon & California lands are being sold. Representative Hawley made the principal argument, contending for a group of our Government.

of our Government.

"Miss Hunt is a faithful and valuable public servant. She is in opinion of public servant. She is in opinion opposed to all war at all times. Most and Douglas counties, 25 per cent to members of the board have long been cognizant of these views; they have not been publicly expressed. The expressions complained of were elicited from her in a manner which did not permit. her in a manner which did not permit her to state them with clearness. They ware given in answer to questions and not volunteered. These sintements were so construed and published as to give war times, when the Government is in them a meaning not intended by Miss dire needs of funds, the entire receipts

Conduct Not Obstructive.

"Her conduct has never in any way countles' share. Such a plan the Ore-bstructed, or tended to obstruct, the activities of our Government. She is, on the Oregon & California plan. The in principle, opposed to any such obin principle, opposed to any such ob-struction or to any encouragement or incitement to obstruction in others. "Her duties in carrying out the war savings stamps campaign in the Library have been conscientiously and efficiently performed. None of the board shares in any degree her opin-ions. However, the board feels that the right to one's own conscientious opinion is the very foundation of human freedom, and we are not willing H. Hays, chairman of the Republican officials said here tonight that section to give up, or to compel others to give up, in advance the very thing for which the best and bravest of us are now fighting, and which our ancestors risked their lives to win for us."

United States Attorney Haney declared yesterday there was no possibility of prosecution of Miss Hunt, because there is no law that will compel any citizen to purchase a liberty bond. However, he held there is a moral obligation to uphold the Government that up, in advance the very thing for which the gation to uphold the Government that is even greater. In his opinion, he said, such a one should not be permitted to hold a public position whether she were within her legal rights or not. Men Issue Statement.

G. M. Locke, of Lang & Company, and C. L. Wilson, of Hartman & Thompson, were delegated by the liberty loan committee to call upon Miss Hunt and ascertain why she did not subscribe to liberty bonds. The result of the interview was a sworn statement yesterday by the two men which detailed what occurred as follows:

obtained.

Frame left here in December before a decision was rendered. It is charged that he took all the money in the company's safe and disposed of personal property at the company mines and pocketed the proceeds.

TACOMA, Wash, April 12.—(Special.)

"We were requested at headquarters to call on Miss M. Louise Hunt, who is assistant librarian at the Central in France.

Alfred enlisted in the Army when the Alfred enlisted in the Army when the the facts we were seeking or whether the programmet she preferred us to see Miss Hunt ourselves. Miss Isom informed us she would prefer us to see her, as she felt she had exhausted all of her arguments and also expressed her grief to think that Miss Hunt had not and would not subscribe. She thereupon Read The Oregonian classified ads.

"After stating our mission to Miss Hunt, she said the reason she had not subscribed to the first and second liberty loans was because she was on sick leave and was traveling for her health, but would not have subscribed health, but would not have subscribed anyway, nor would she subscribe to the third one because she did not believe in war and refused to support it. "We then asked Miss Hunt if she was a citizen of this country, and she stated that she was and came from Portland, Me. We then asked her if she did not think it was the duty of every citizen to support the United States at this time and to buy liberty bonds to the extent of our re-States at this time and to buy liberty bonds to the extent of our resources to help the Government in keeping our Army in France, who were there to fight for her protection as well as our own. She replied that she did not feel that she had to put patriotism above her personal feelings, and that she had seen her attorney.

Richard Montague, who had advised her that she did not have to subscribe unless she so desired.

"She further asked if we were trying

Interests of Country, but Says
She Opposes Present Methods.

She Opposes Present Methods.

Taxed with disloyalty because she declined to buy liberty bonds when ursed to do so by a committee of workers, denounced by them in an affidavit, and quirzed by the Department of Justice, Miss Louise Hunt, assistant to Miss Mary F. Isom, librarian at the Central Library, last night was completely exonerated by the board of directors of the library association, which held a special meeting to consider charges against Miss Hunt.

W. B. Ayer, presided last night. Other directors of the special meeting to consider charges against Miss Hunt.

W. B. Ayer, presided last night. Other directors of the sascolation, presided last night. Other directors of the sascolation, presided last night. Other directors and the sascolation, at the Huns were doing and had done in France and Belgium, the structured and were trying to coerce her to buy a bond. She was absolutely no thought of coercion, but we were three to till was absolutely no thought of coercion, but we were there to tell, with all the force of language at our command, that it was her duty as well as all others, to support the Government in this crisis, regardless of what their personal beliefs might be a good business in trying to take anything from her, but was simply asking her to loan it may be a good trate of interest. She had a good rate of interest, she replied that it might be a good business proposition more than from patriotic feelings, but she would not subscribe under any circumstances.

She Was then asked if we were t at the police station the officers said he probably was insane. His only ex-planation for the shooting was that his wife called him a slacker and that everybody on the street called him a slacker and coward. He is held on an open charge pending an examination as to his mentality and further investigation into the

OREGONIANS URGE PASSAGE OF PENDING MEASURE.

Representative Hawley Favors Division of Funds According to O. & C. Grant Settlement.

should go to the Federal Treasury, failing in that, all receipts save counties' share. Such a plan the O

MR. HAYS AT SACRAMENTO

Republican Chairman Refuses Recognize Party Factions.

and visited Governor William D. Stephens and met other state officials at the Capitol.

In party meetings here he said he would "recognize no factions" and added: "It is the duty of the National com mittee to elect candidates, not to select

Wheat Off Dining Cars.

OGDEN, Utah, April 12.—Effective Sunday, April 14, a new food schedule, providing for the elimination of all wheat foods, will become operative on all dining cars of the Union Pacific system, including the Oregon Short Line Railroad. This was the announce-ment made here today by F. E. Lewis, manager of the Union Pacific dining car service.

LONDON, April 13 .- Thirty-five airplanes, 21 of which were destroyed, were brought down by British aviators on Thursday. The official statement on 35 German Airplanes Downed.

aerial activities reports the dropping of bombs on military targets behind the battlefront and on a railway station at Whitman Debaters Win Out.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 12 .-Whitman College tonight defeated the University of Idaho in debate on the question of adoption of the programme

PARIS AFTER DARK

Shells From Big Cannon Are Hurled Into French Capital for First Time at Night.

AIR RAID IS ATTEMPTED

Two Boche Planes Succeed in Flying Over Paris District and 11

mid was made on the east coast of England this evening.
One or two of the raiders succeeded in penetrating further inland.
Field Marshal French, commander of the forces of the United Kingdom, issued the following report on the raid:
"Some hostile airships crossed the east coast this evening and proceeded to attack certain east midland districts.
One or two raiders succeeded in penetrated further inland, where some trated further inland, where bombs are reported to have failen. Fur-ther details are not yet available. The raid is still in progress."

PARIS, April 12.—German airplanes attempted a raid on the Paris district tonight. They dropped a few bombs, but it is not known whether there are any casualties.

The official statement on the raid The official statement on the raid proposed which might modify the d says:

"German airplanes crossed he lines to have neither part nor let in an Iri going south. Only two succeeded in flying over the Paris district, dropping a few bombs. The warning was given at 10:10 o'clock and 'all clear' was sounded at 10:40."

Eleven persons were kfiled and 50 injured in the air raid according to going south.

official information.

ENLISTMENTS IN BASE HOSPITAL CLOSED TO APPLICANTS.

More Than 200 Men Offer Services, Out of Which Number 50 Will Be Selected for Active Duty.

Once more Oregon has kept its stride responding to the call for men for ar service. When the list of applicawar service. tions for 50 additional members of Base Hospital No. 46 was closed yesterday, more than 200 men had offered their more than 200 men had offered their services. Of that number, the applica-tions of 90 were received, and from them the desired 50 recruits will be se-lected. Following a preliminary ex-amination here, each man goes to Camp Lewis for the final physical test.

Merie G. Campbell, private in the hospital unit, came to Portland from Camp Lewis and opened an office in the Corbett building last Tuesday ites of the Irish Parliament. The diffic the Corbett building last Tuesday ites of the Irish convention may morning. Between that time and late summed up in two words: 'Ulster' a vesterday, more than 200 men applied | 'Customs for the 50 available places.

least 189 who, rejected for service in seme other branch before, hoped they

MAJOR TAKEN IN CAMP

JOHN BIRKNER ARRESTED UNDER ESPIONAGE STATUTE.

Prisoner Is Native of Germany and Has Been in the U. S. Military Forces for More Than 30 Years.

DEMING, N. M., April 12.—Major John M. Birkner, 127th Field Artillery, was arrested at Camp Cody today charged with violating the espionage act. Major Birkner, who is a native of Germany, has been in the United States military forces for more than 30 years. A technical charge against the offi-cer was violation of section 3, title 1, of the espionage act. He was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal George Ramsey on instructions from United States Marshal Andrew Hud-He will be taken to Santa Fe Sunday to appear before United States District Judge Colin Neblett, any offense which consisted in interfer ing with or obstructing the military operations of the Government.

HOME RULE SEEMS NEARER

(Continued From First Page.) rder that an Irish Parliament be established, to postpone legislative de ision on the question,

Public Opinion Important.

"I recognize," writes Sir Horace that action in Parliament on the re-"that action in Parliament on the result of our deliberations must largely depend upon public opinion."

He adds "that the work of an Irish which was passed unanimously today the Yakima liberty loan campaign settlement is now felt to admit of no ers at their noon luncheon, declaring further postponement. In the domin-sympathy and have come to this course of the United States, as well as further postponement. In the dominons and the United States, as well as tor both as regards war effort and peace aims."

The scheme of the majority as described in the chairman's letter provides for establishment of a parliament for the whole of Ireland with an executive responsible to it and with full powers over all internat legislation, administration and direct taxation.

Came, and that the remainder of the property should be confiscated and sol for the benefit of the American sol diers."

The reclamation town of Rimrock, if the Tieton, today reported that it has quadrupled its quota of,55000 and aske for an honor flag with three stars of the towns in the county outside.

Exchequer Board Proposed.

Pending decision of the fiscal questrong the passed their quota of Yakima have passed their quota for, it is provided that imposition of Swam.

Swam. duties and excise shall remain the imperial parliament, but that the whole of the proceeds of these taxes shall be paid to the Irish exchequer.

A joint exchequer board would be North Central High School of Spekan constituencies. The Irish parliam would consist of two houses, a Sen of $4 members and a House of Co mons of 200.

The principle underlying the co position of the Senate is represention of interests. This would be fected by giving representation to comerce, industry and labor, county cocils, churches, learned institutions

Unionists Offered Guarantee.

Sir Horace remarks that in constit ing the House of Commons the Nati-alists offered to guarantee 40 per co of its membership to the Unionists. adds that it was agreed that in south of Ireland adequate represe south of Ireland adequate represent tion for Unionists could only be seen by nomination, but "as Ulster's re-sentatives had informed the conv tion that those for whom they sp-could not accept the principle of no Ination, provision was made in scheme for extra representation Ulster by direct election."

Minority Report Adopted.

Minority reports were adopted bo by Ulster Unionists and minority N tionalists. In explaining the report adopted by the majority, Sir Hora

BRYS "The public is thus provided with majority report in the sense of reasoned statement in favor of co-clusions upon which the majority a agreed, but it is felt to gather from t narrative of the proceedings what contents of such report would h

"On the other hand, both Ulst Unionists and the minority of Natio lists have presented minority repor covering the whole field of the condons' inquiry. The result of this preduce is to minimise the agreem Neither time nor effort, continues chairman, was spared to attain un "a portion of Ulster where a jority claimed that if Ireland had right to separate herself from the of the United Kingdom, they had same right of separation from the of Ireland. Ulsterites Declared to Be Hoping. "But the time has gone by when a other section of the Irish people we accept partition of their country, ev as a temporary expedient. Hence t Ulster unionist members of the co vention remained there only in ho that some form of home rule would injured in the air raid, according to the convention was confined to the "Long before the hope of comple unanimity had passed the majority the convention were considering pos-bilities of an agreement between it Nationalists and Southern Enjonists.

"Lord Middleton was the first make a concrete proposal to this en The report shows that in Novemb-he outlined to the grand commit-and in December brought before it convention what looked like a work able compromise. It accepted sel government for Ireland.
"In return for special minority re-resentation in the Irish Parliament a ready conceded by Irish Nationalist it offered to that Parliament comple power over internal legislation as the convention were considering po it offered to that Parliament comple power over internal legislation as administration and in matters of anance over direct taxation and excise but, although they agreed that cu toms revenue should be paid into the instance over the Southern Union ists insisted upon the delegation to imperial Parliament of power to a rates of custom duttes.

Customs Issue Difficult. "By far the greater part of our tir was occupied by this one question Whether imposition of customs duti

Remarking that "The Ulster difficu "I was surprised at the high class of the whole world knows," Sir Hor men offering their services," said Private Campbell last night. "Included among those whose applications were accepted were a number of professional strictions in respect of naval and metallic strictions in respect o men, registered pharmacists and college tary affairs," the Nationalists, seeking raduates, and they all realize, too, that they are entering the service as privates.

"We were obliged to turn away at claim for home rule upon a demand for the service as constant the service as privates.

unrestricted fiscal power. "Without separate customs and elected Ireland would, according to the view, fail to attain a national state like that enjoyed by the dominions the chairman continues.

Separate System Questioned.

The Nationalists were prepared agree to free trade with England, b both the southern Unionists and i Ulster Unionists were apprehensi that a separate system of customs co trol, however guarded, might impa the authority of the United Ringdo over its external trade policy. Neither could they consent to ar settlement which was in their judgmes incompatible with Ireland's full pa-ticipation in a scheme of the Unite Kingdom's federation should that con As far as the Nationlists and t southern Unionists were concern "neither side was willing to surren principle, but both sides were willing in order that a Parliament might is mediately be established, to postpolegislative decision upon ultimate of of customs and excise. same time each party has put of record in separate notes subjoined the report its claims for final settle ment of this question." Change Indorsed by Majority.

"The decision having been reached the cardinal issue, the majority of the convention carried the series of resolutions which together form a complete scheme of self government."

"Is it too much to hope," Sir Hora. asks, in conclusion, "that the schen embodying the agreement will forth with he brought to fruitlon by thos to whose call the Irish convention no has responded?"

DEPORTATION IDEA LAUDE

Yakima Would Send Pro-German Back to Fatherland.

lons and the United States, as well as the other allied countries, the unsettled Irish question is a disturbing factor both as regards war effort and peace aims."

sympathy and have come to this countries, the unsettled Irish question is a disturbing factor both as regards war effort and the sum of money they had when the came, and that the remainder of the Three other towns in the county outsi

Walla Walla Loses Debate,

set up to determine the Irish true revenue and Ireland would be represented upon the board of customs and excise of the United Kingdom.

Irish representatives in the Imperial bate was held at Spokane.

