

HAINES MAN KILLED BY HIS SON-IN-LAW

William Roseberry, Shot Down by Charles Spearman, Dies at Hospital.

CROWD VIEWS TRAGEDY

Shooting Said to Have Been Result of Family Quarrel—Man Slain Well-Known Sawmill Operator 50 Years of Age.

BAKER, Or., April 14.—(Special.)—William Roseberry, a sawmill operator who resides at Haines, died at St. Elizabeth Hospital here this afternoon as the result of a bullet wound inflicted last night by his son-in-law, Charles Spearman. Spearman, who was taken into custody last night by City Marshal Randall, at Haines, was brought to Baker this morning by Sheriff Anderson and placed in the County Jail.

The shooting, which took place in front of one of the prominent business places on Main street at Haines, was witnessed by a large Saturday night crowd. According to those who were near, Spearman and Roseberry, were quarreling, when Spearman suddenly pulled a .38-caliber revolver from his pocket and fired point-blank at Roseberry, who immediately sank to the ground. As Spearman fired, E. E. Cochrane, proprietor of a nearby drugstore, rushed to the spot and succeeded in disarming him, before he could fire another shot. Spearman made no resistance and was placed in the City Jail.

Roseberry was immediately rushed to the hospital at Baker in an automobile. When he arrived here he was so weak that the physicians could not open the wound to dress it, fearing that he would die. The wounded man hovered between life and death until about 4 o'clock this afternoon, when he passed away.

Roseberry, who was 50 years old, was a well-known resident of Haines, having been in the sawmill business there for some time. His wife and several children survive.

Spearman was an employee of the Eastern Oregon Light & Power Company, is married and has one child. It is said that family troubles between the two led to the quarrel which ended in the shooting and death of Roseberry.

ROBBERY BARES PLOT

DISREPUTABLE WOMEN DRAW SOLDIERS' PAY IS BELIEF.

Inquiry Is Instituted at San Francisco to Ascertain How Many Women Are Taking Boys' Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—(Special.)—In the investigation of a $4400 robbery at the Utopia rooming-house, Detective Hyatt, ran on to evidence yesterday of a plot to rob the Government by means of fraudulent marriage claims. As a result Eva Stewart is booked at the city prison, and the United States Marshal's office, and the War Department is conducting an investigation which may lead to arrests of disreputable women who are alleged to be receiving allotments from soldiers' pay, by masquerading as their wives.

Mrs. M. Jacoby, a roomer at the Utopia, was robbed of $4400 a week ago and Detective Hyatt arrested Mabel Jones and Ray Walton as suspects in connection with the crime. Through the arrest of this couple he obtained information that led to the searching of the apartment of Eva Stewart. Among her effects was found a check for $107, payable to George Layey, a soldier at Camp Fremont. The detective asked the woman how she got this check and she said it was sent her by her husband.

"Your husband?" said the detective. "Layey is not your husband."

"Well, I mean my sweetheart then," she replied.

Investigations disclosed that she had posed as Layey's wife and since his enlistment she had been drawing money each month from the Government as Mrs. Layey. Layey is in the guard-house in Camp Fremont. Authorities are looking for like cases among women of the night life.

JUDGE KING IS PUZZLED

ATTITUDE OF OSWALD WEST IS HELD INCONSISTENT.

Whirlwind Tour Through Oregon Planned by Judge in Interest of Senatorial Candidacy.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash., April 14.—Judge Will H. King, chief counsel of the Reclamation Service and candidate for the Democratic Senatorial nomination, will leave for the West this week, and beginning May 1 will make a whirlwind campaign through Oregon. Judge King is planning a campaign that will be of interest to the onlookers.

Asked today what he thought of Oswald West's announcement, Mr. King said: "West has been quoted in the newspapers as declaring he would support the nominee of the Republican party if that nominee is McNary. Just how a man can be consistent and run for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator in the primaries, and at the same time say he would support the Republican nominee in the election if a certain Republican should be nominated, is too much for my comprehension."

"I am going after the Democratic nomination and will appeal to the Democrats of Oregon for support, and it is not my purpose, if nominated, to support any Republican nominee, whoever he may be. I am in this contest to win, and starting May 1 will launch a campaign that will enable me to cover the state."

Judge King's comment is the only one thus far obtainable in Washington from any Oregon politician now here. The House members of the Oregon delegation have been interested in and puzzled by the announcement of West; they are still trying to figure out what particular game the former Governor is trying to play, and when it comes to speaking for publication, "mum's the word."

Senator Chamberlain, who has been maintaining friendly relations with both West and King, has come to the pass where he is expected to throw his support to West and, in that connection, attention has been directed to the fact that West endorsed Senator Chamberlain's attack on the war administration, whereas King refused to comment.

YANKEES BEAT HUNS' BEST

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, April 14.—The American troops northwest of Toul again were subjected to a violent artillery bombardment Saturday night. The American batteries sent back an equal number of shells.

BERLIN, via London, April 14.—German troops, according to the official report from headquarters today, made a successful attack against the American north of St. Mihiel.

THE FRENCH GENERAL COMMANDING THE AMERICAN TROOPS IN A NEIGHBORING SECTOR PERSONALLY CONGRATULATED THE PRINCIPAL AMERICAN UNIT'S COMMANDER TODAY ON THE EXCELLENT OFFENSIVE QUALITIES AND THE SPLENDID RESISTANCE OF THE AMERICAN TROOPS.

THE DOCTORS IN THE FRONT-LINE DRESSING STATIONS REPORTED TODAY THAT SEVERAL AMERICANS WHO WERE SLIGHTLY WOUNDED REFUSED MEDICAL TREATMENT UNTIL THE GERMANS HAD BEEN DRIVEN BACK TO THEIR TRENCHES.

THE PRISONERS TAKEN BELONGED TO THE TWENTY-FIFTH AND SIXTY-FIFTH LANDWEHR UNITS, THE SIXTIETH PIONEERS AND THE ULANS.

THE ENEMY FRONT LINES HAD BEEN DESTROYED BY SHELL FIRE, AND DURING FRIDAY'S ATTACK THE AMERICANS TEMPORARILY ABANDONED THEIR OWN FRONT LINE, ALLOWED THE GERMANS TO ENTER IT AND FORCED THEM TO ENGAGE IN HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING IN THE OPEN IN WHICH THE AMERICAN TROOPS GREATLY EXCELLED.

A YOUNG LIEUTENANT, OF WHOSE HOME IS JUST OUTSIDE OF BOSTON, WITH THREE AMERICANS SURRENDERED. ONE OF THEM RAISED HIS PISTOL AS IF TO SHOOT, BUT THE LIEUTENANT SHOT HIM THROUGH THE HEAD, WHEREUPON THE OTHERS LIFTED THEIR HANDS.

FIVE OTHER AMERICANS PENETRATED INTO A GERMAN DUGOUT WHERE 12 OF THE ENEMY WERE SLIGHTLY WOUNDED. THEY RELOADED THE GERMANS' GUNS, BUT OUR MEN THREW GRENADES INTO THE DUGOUT, KILLING FOUR OF THE GERMANS.

THE ENEMY FRONT LINES HAD BEEN DESTROYED BY SHELL FIRE, AND DURING FRIDAY'S ATTACK THE AMERICANS TEMPORARILY ABANDONED THEIR OWN FRONT LINE, ALLOWED THE GERMANS TO ENTER IT AND FORCED THEM TO ENGAGE IN HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING IN THE OPEN IN WHICH THE AMERICAN TROOPS GREATLY EXCELLED.

A YOUNG LIEUTENANT, OF WHOSE HOME IS JUST OUTSIDE OF BOSTON, WITH THREE AMERICANS SURRENDERED. ONE OF THEM RAISED HIS PISTOL AS IF TO SHOOT, BUT THE LIEUTENANT SHOT HIM THROUGH THE HEAD, WHEREUPON THE OTHERS LIFTED THEIR HANDS.
