

CARS SMASHED ON LINNTON ROAD

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anning, 611 Elliott Avenue, Taken to Hospital, Seriously Injured.

AUTO TAKES 150-FOOT FALL

Spectacular Accident Occurs at Head of Thurman Street, Machine Turning Over Six Times, but No One Dangerously Hurt.

Two persons were seriously injured, two others slightly hurt and three machines were badly wrecked in two automobile accidents occurring a few hundred yards apart and within a few minutes of each other on the St. Helens road, two miles below Linnton at about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The injured are: Harry Anning, aged 22, 611 Elliott avenue, three ribs fractured, scalp wounds and internal injuries. Mrs. Harry Anning, aged 20, serious internal injuries, fractured arm and scalp lacerations. Harry Anning, Jr., aged 7, severe scalp wounds. Miss Beale Seymour, aged 16, 181 East Fifty-fourth street North, fractured wrist.

Unknown Woman Cause of Accident. Their light touring car, in which Mr. and Mrs. P. Campbell were also riding, was precipitated down a 30-foot embankment when some unknown woman entered, driving a heavy machine, struck the Anning machine from behind and sent it hurtling down the steep embankment.

Sudden Blowout Alleged Cause. The Campbell machine was standing at the roadside when the Colby car struck it. Mrs. Campbell said she crashed into the Campbell car during a momentary loss of control of the machine, which was caused by a sudden blowout.

Auto Turns to 150-Foot Fall. In an attempt to make sharp turn at the head of Thurman street, Mrs. Frank Fruhit, of 525 Tenino street, backed her car over the curb and she and seven occupants were tossed hither-yon by the machine as it rolled to the bottom of a hill 150 feet at the bottom of the incline.

Mrs. Fruhit was the only person to stay with the automobile until it came to a standstill; she hung on to the wheels. Six times the machine turned over in its flight. Mrs. Fruhit was the only member of the party to escape serious injuries; she sustained painful bruises and a few minor cuts about the body.

ISHII REACHES U. S.

Friendship Message Brought by New Ambassador.

CO-OPERATION IS PROMISED

Munitions at Vladivostok Not to Be Permitted to Fall Into German Hands—Imprecative to Send Japanese Troops to France.

A PACIFIC PORT, April 21.—Viscount Kikujiro Ishii, Japanese Ambassador to the United States, arrived here today on his way to Washington to assume his duties. He is accompanied by his wife and K. Debuschi, secretary of the Embassy.

"True friendship is only proven upon trial, and the strength of the friendship existing between the peoples of the United States and Japan has not been known until now," was the keynote of Ambassador Ishii's message to the people of this country, given shortly after his arrival here.

"Japan is now doing its utmost to put at the disposal of the United States as much as it can of its merchant marine," said Viscount Ishii. "The people of Japan are ready to co-operate with the United States in every way possible. When I returned from my mission to this country and told my people of the spirit of the reception given me, the Japanese were much moved with admiration."

"Regarding the Siberian question, this developed since I left, and I cannot say just what moves have been made. Japan is not prepared to take any part in the Siberian question. It should be deemed necessary by all the allied powers to enter Siberia, or take some other measures, Japan will hesitate to take necessary steps. That is, as soon as it is the common desire of the allied powers."

"The United States has supplied vast quantities of munitions to Russia. Japan also has furnished great supplies. This is all now in the docks at Vladivostok. All the allies must take steps to keep this from falling into the hands of Germany. Fortunately there has been no means of transport."

Japanese Embassy at Washington, and who was formerly first secretary of the Japanese legation at Peking. "The internal troubles between North and South China have been grave," said Debuschi, "but the menace of the Germans in their west seems to be tending to consolidation of the peoples of China. Japan will not interfere with China. No other government should. There have been men in Japan who have said Japan must settle China's troubles, but China is settling them. It may take some time before there is a union, but I believe it is in sight."

"There are very few Germans in China now. Their propaganda is not as serious as it was before China sent the German Minister away, and ousted his agents."

Liberty Bonds Not Wanted. At the police station Burich told Captain Moore that he had not and did not intend to buy a liberty bond unless he were compelled to in order to retain his job at the chair factory.

God's Kingdom Believed Near. "At the same time we do not want to see the Kaiser win any more than does any other citizen of this country," said Burich, "but we believe that this war will not last long, and when it terminates the Kingdom of God will be established world-wide, supplanting all forms of existing governments."

Leader Insists Law Not Violated. When informed of the arrest of Burich and Simpson yesterday, Mr. Miller expressed surprise. He admitted knowledge that the paper was to be distributed throughout the city yesterday, but contended that in his opinion the distributors were acting cheerfully within their rights and with no intention of transgressing any law.

NINE RUSSELLITES ARRESTED. Thousands of Seditious Papers Confiscated in Seattle. SEATTLE, April 21.—Circulation of a paper purporting to have been published in Brooklyn, N. Y., and carrying accusations against the Protestant and Catholic churches of America instigated Government action against the members of the International Bible Students' Association in this city, met with R. R. Rankin, then acting United States Attorney, and gave him the assurance that they would cooperate with the Government officials in suppressing the further circulation of that publication and other literature not acceptable to Government officials.

hat. The reason for this is that some have fully consecrated themselves to the Lord and they conscientiously believe if they are to assist him they shall have a part in his kingdom of righteousness, and that if they destroy the taking of human life this will destroy them eternally. The law provides that such shall be given non-combatant service. Members of the International Bible Students' Association have claimed classification under this statute.

At the police station Burich told Captain Moore that he had not and did not intend to buy a liberty bond unless he were compelled to in order to retain his job at the chair factory. He admitted having subscribed to the Red Cross, but said he was opposed to wearing a button as evidence of the fact. Simpson admitted that he had not invested in the Liberty Bonds, but had contributed to the Red Cross. Both Burich and Simpson are native-born American citizens and, prior to the time "The Finished Mystery" was barred from sale, served as agents for its sale.

"We were not aware that we were violating any law in distributing this publication," said Burich, "following his arrest. With us it is entirely a matter of religious convictions. From our interpretation of the Scriptures, we consider it wrong to wear warlike and take human life. But we are not opposed to war and fighting by others."

When informed of the arrest of Burich and Simpson yesterday, Mr. Miller expressed surprise. He admitted knowledge that the paper was to be distributed throughout the city yesterday, but contended that in his opinion the distributors were acting cheerfully within their rights and with no intention of transgressing any law.

Professor Thomas Maintains Society Takes Wrong View.

HOTEL INCIDENT EXPLAINED

Mrs. Granger Defended as Mature and Ambitious Young Woman, Who Never Dreamed of Committing Indiscretion.

SOME OF PROFESSOR THOMAS' VIEWS. The American university shares the defects of the American public. The institution from which I was dismissed is, in my opinion, the most liberal in America, but it shows an unwillingness to concede any sphere of privacy in sexual life.

My own association with women has been varied, but always of a constructive, not a destructive, kind, according to my standards. I have met many women in many situations which would be called compromising, have gained through this much new experience, and have incidentally been instrumental in raising a number of the persons concerned to higher levels of efficiency.

CHICAGO, April 21.—(Special.)—Professor W. I. Thomas, dismissed from the University of Chicago and acquitted in the Municipal Court yesterday, today gave to the press a statement in which he set forth his philosophy of life and action, and for the first time gives his explanation of the Brevort Hotel incident, where he registered himself and Mrs. Granger as husband and wife.

"The hotel incident is described as follows: "As to Mrs. Granger, she is a mature and ambitious young woman. Her life is mainly centered in her child and in a self-development which would lead to the development of the child. In her association with me she was, consciously or unconsciously, seeking a means which would assist her to that end. She is incapable of any of the sentimentalities which she did not say but which the reporters wished her to say."

Mrs. Granger Ambitions. She has read a number of my 'life histories' in manuscript, and she has stated that when she previously lived in Chicago she knew a girl who had a remarkable history. On her own account she saw this girl and arranged to get her history, for possible literary use.

ASTORIA, Or., April 21.—(Special.)—The percentage of Class 1 men among those registered in Clatsop County for the selective military draft is so much larger than in other counties in Oregon, as well as elsewhere, that it has caused the department to start an investigation of methods in classification employed by some boards. There were 2452 men registered in Clatsop County, an increase of that number 1126, or nearly 50 per cent, are listed in Class 1.

DR. PENCE WILL SERVE

MINISTER TO TAKE UP Y. M. C. A. WORK AT CAMP LEWIS.

Frencher Will Occupy Local Pulpit on Sundays, Giving Reminiscence of Time to War Service.

Dr. E. H. Pence, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, who has done a great work for the liberty loan and other patriotic drives and campaigns, has been called, together with a few other ministers of the Northwest, to special service in Camp Lewis and will accept.

Much Experience Admitted. "There are, of course, regions of private life in which the state and the public do not interfere. In matters of food, clothing, in our religious, and to some extent in our artistic interests we are left untroubled. But there is also a large region of sexual life, both inside and outside of marriage, in which the state and the public should not concern themselves."

CLATSOP TO START INQUIRY. ASTORIA, Or., April 21.—(Special.)—The percentage of Class 1 men among those registered in Clatsop County for the selective military draft is so much larger than in other counties in Oregon, as well as elsewhere, that it has caused the department to start an investigation of methods in classification employed by some boards.

MRS. DOOLEY'S ADVICE TO WORKING GIRLS. Milwaukee, Wis.—"I wish all girls who work and suffer from functional disorders would profit by my advice and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I was married, when I came home from work at night, I would be just worn out with pains which dragged me down. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I can work from morning until night and it does not bother me, and I wish all girls who suffer as I did would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Mrs. H. Dooley, 1135 25th Street, Milwaukee, Wis."

Working girls everywhere should profit by Mrs. Dooley's experience, and instead of dragging along from day to day with life a burden, give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It has overcome just such conditions for thousands of others, and why not for you? For special advice, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.
