

FEDERAL LAW NOT VIOLATED BY SECT

International Bible Students Held in Jail on Charge of Breaking City Ordinance.

PAPER IS CLEVERLY EDITED

Pro-Run Propaganda, Says U. S. Attorney, Goes Right to the Limit of the Law, but Keeps Inside the Espionage Danger Line.

In the last week Gus C. Moser, Republican candidate for Governor, divided his campaign activities between the Willamette Valley and this city. Among the points visited early in the week were Salem, Independence, Dallas, Monmouth and Eugene. Thursday night he addressed the Central Labor Council in this city. "I am positively confident of winning the nomination," said Mr. Moser Saturday night. "This is not an idle or boastful campaign statement. It is based on a thorough canvass of the situation and unquestioned assurances of support from all sections of the state."

WIZARD VIOLINIST HERE

MISCHA ELMAN PLAYS AT HELGIG TOMORROW NIGHT.

Programme of Genius Who Has Avowed Critics of Europe and America Is Comprehensive One.

Mischa Elman, the noted violinist, plays at the Helgig tomorrow night, at the Opera House. The magical sweetness of tone that he draws from his Stradivarius of 1722, together with the wealth of temperament, remarkable technical facilities, a bewildering brilliance of technique, combine to bring him homage of a kind not seen before in this generation.

WAR STAMPS

CANCELLING previous instructions, the Oregon War Savings Committee has received notice that the writing of the owner's name on war savings stamps attached to war saving certificates is disapproved by the Postoffice Department, the reason being that, due to the limited space, such writing interferes with registration of certificates, so the practice is being discontinued by the war savings organization.
