

Ready! Offices in the New Gasco Building

At Fifth and Alder

This modern twelve-story building at Fifth and Alder streets will from now on be known as the 'Gasco' Building.

Tomorrow we throw open for rental the seven upper floors—finest office space available in Portland. No expense has been spared to make the GASCO Building modern in every respect. Entrance will be on Fifth street side. A battery of three of the latest type of Otis elevators has been installed.

No inside rooms in the Gasco Building, as the court opens on the east with no outside wall. All rooms have perfect light and ventilation. Every room is new—clean—just finished. All lighting fixtures, plumbing, etc., are of standard quality.
