Yesterday's Results.

Vancouver 3, Portland 8. Tacoma 2, Seattle 1. Aberdeen 3, Seattle 11.

BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON.

Portland managed to put over its first victory of the season yesterday when Bill Fisher's warriors lambasted the offerings of Kelly, Vancouver's young right-hander, for 12 safe blows, winning the third game of the series, score 8 to 3. The series now stands Vancouver, 2; Portland, 1.

The Buckaroos started out on a rampage in the second inning and chased three runs across. They scored one in the fifth, three in the sixth and shot across the final tally in the seventh just for good luck.

Bill Shoup, the Cleveland recruit right-hander, started out like a champion and twirled a beautiful game until the ninth inning, when he let up long enough for Vancouver to score three runs. Shoup had as many curves as Homer Findley's scenic railway and had the Vancouverites swinging like the proverbial garden gate, allowing only two scattered singles until the eighth inning when three singles in a row failed to net Vancouver a run.

Portland started a rumpus in the second after Lee fitted out to Wolfert. Cox singled and Kibbie was given a base on balls. Ritter doubled down the third-base line, scoring Cox. Peterson singled to center-scoring Kibbie. Shoup singled to center and Peterson scored when Boetzie let Wolfert's throw get a ray.

With two down in the fifth Smith singled, stole second and took third when Kelly walked. Fisher and Sullivan and scored on Lee's scratch hit to third. In the sixth with the bases full Ritter and Peterson scored on Fisher's single to center.

Cox, first man up in the seventh, lined to right-center, but Wolfert and Stewart got their signals crossed, allowing the drive to go for a Portland victory, but scored on Kibbie's single.

Vancouver walloped across with three runs in the ninth. Brown reached first on Peterson's error and scored on Stokke's double. Cook singled, Stokke taking third. Boetzie singled scoring Stokke, Cook reaching second. Cook and Boetzie advanced on a wild pitch. Wolfert singled to left, scoring Cook, and the battle ended.

Today's game starts at 3 o'clock.

Aberdeen Loses Third Straight Contest on Wet Grounds.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 2.—With wet grounds making the playing of both teams erratic, Seattle made it three straight over Aberdeen today by a score of 11 to 8. Timely hitting featured the work of both teams, with local favoring Seattle, which hit when it counted most.

Notes of the Game.

A few drops of rain made their appearance about the fourth inning and it looked as though Jupiter Pluvius might spoil the chances of a Portland victory, but fate was with the Buckaroos and they managed to get by with their first victory.

The crowd was larger than the previous day, and Judge McCrede wore a smile that extended from ear to ear. The Portland manager was pleased with the Buckaroos and expects his players to step out into the lead.

Shmer Joseph Cox, Buckaroo batsman, showed the same present kind of a throwing arm as he possessed when he got on when Ritter booted his grounder in the third and he started to steal second base. Cox dropped the ball and recovered it five feet back of the plate and then threw Boetzie out at second. It was some play.

Wolfert and Stewart pulled the "After you, my dear" stunt in the seventh when they both chased after Cox's drive to right center. They looked arms and rolled after the ball, but Cox had reached third before the ball was returned to the infield. Thank you, boys.
