

L. J. SIMPSON GETS FAVORABLE REPORT

Telegrams Received Show Candidate for Governor Strong in Eastern Oregon.

THREE COUNTIES CLAIMED

Optimistic Messages Say Great Change Has Been Wrought Among Voters by Visit of Candidate to That Section.

Telegrams received yesterday at Simpson headquarters indicate that L. J. Simpson, Republican candidate for Governor, is running strong in Eastern Oregon. The messages bring an optimistic report as to the situation in Harney, Malheur and Union counties, accompanied by the prediction that the Coos Bay candidates in all probability will carry those three prominent counties in the eastern section of the state.

Other Messages Optimistic. Other equally optimistic messages received at Simpson headquarters yesterday from Eastern Oregon follow: Simpson's campaign in Union County a landslide. Business men who didn't give him a thought a month ago now pulling for him hard. Their change followed Simpson's personal visit here.

The main political talk in this county is the marvelous gains made by Simpson for Governor. It is now conceded by most people that the fight now lies between Simpson and the Governor with the former gaining rapidly.

Women Declared to Favor Simpson. Simpson running strong in this county. Looks like a sure winner.

Simpson will get a large majority of the women vote of Union County. This is based on straw ballots taken at club meetings.

Yesterday at noon Mr. Simpson addressed the workers at the Cornfoot shipbuilding yards. During the remainder of the afternoon and until late last night he appeared before a large number of club and social meetings.

E. H. Collis, candidate for County Auditor, is a property owner and taxpayer, has resided in Portland for many years, and for 11 years has been a public accountant.

R. N. Stanfield, Republican candidate for United States Senator, last night attended the dinner given by the East Side Business Men's Club.

Members of the City Council are booked for daily meetings in various parts of the city to explain and discuss the three measures on the city ballot in which they are particularly interested.

E. D. Cusick, candidate for State Treasurer, arrived in the city last night to remain until after the election. He has made a tour of Southern Oregon and the Coos Bay country and the central Willamette Valley country and will now devote the rest of his time to Portland.

Senator Moser's campaign committee announces that "Moser for Governor" meeting which will be held at 8 P. M. tomorrow in Library Hall, Public Library, Tenth and Yamhill streets.

Candidates for Circuit Judge will meet with a warm reception at a luncheon to be given in their honor at the Portland Hotel today noon by the Multnomah Bar Association.

"You will be put on the grid without benefit of clergy," is the announcement to the list of candidates for judgeship, and, judging from the plans which are being formulated by the various lawyers, every word of the announcement rings true.

All lawyers, candidates and friends of the candidates are invited to be present. It will be in charge of a committee consisting of George S. Shepherd, chairman; H. Daniel and E. D. Williams.

County Clerk Beveridge will conduct the opening class of his night school for election board chairmen in Judge Gantenbein's courtroom on the second floor of the Courthouse at 8 o'clock this evening.

'U' ELECTS OFFICERS

University of Oregon Student Body Selects Leaders.

DWIGHT WILSON PRESIDENT

Prominent Athlete of The Dalles Is Named to Executive Chair, and G. Taylor, Douglas Mullarkey, Ella Dewa Are Successful.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 9.—(Special.)—Oregon lived up to its tradition of picking service-trying students to manage the affairs of the student body at the annual election of officers Wednesday. All of the four principal officers elected have been widely active on the campus since entering college.

Dwight Wilson, of The Dalles, who will fill the office of president of the Associated Students next year, is a member of the present student council, president of the junior class, varsity baseball pitcher, and on the Oregon backed up by J. W. Brewer, state director, for more boys. It was the club's T. M. C. A. day program and H. W. Stone, secretary of the association, introduced the speakers including Messrs. Nichols, Newmyer and Atchison.

The club yesterday launched the fight to secure a flat increase in pay of the postoffice employees and railway mail clerks when resolutions urging Oregon's Congressional delegation to get behind House bill No. 3111 were adopted.

Several candidates for state and county offices, including R. N. Stanfield, Ralph E. Williams, L. J. Simpson, were present and introduced. Some one forgot to introduce R. G. Morrow so Judge Morrow had to do it himself.

In honor of the members of The Oregonian Night Hustlers Club, F. C. Harley gave a banquet at the Portland Hotel last night.

Mr. Harley is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, and during the course of the evening thanked the newboys for the support which they have given him during his campaign and said that he hoped they would still support him.

The banquet was opened with a toast by Arch Weinstein, president of the Hustlers Club, in which he expressed the newboys' appreciation for what Mr. Harley has done for them. A vocal solo was given by Morris Blackman, popularly known as "The Newboys' Caruso."

Julius Steinberg, another member of the club, gave a brief talk, in which he commented upon Mr. Harley's qualifications for office and urged the members of the club to rally around and boost for Harley.

Other interesting numbers during the evening were given by Scotty MacCohen, Morris Rogoway, I. Edward Tomkon, Harry Hoefler and C. S. Barton.

T. Cook Pleads Guilty. Thomas Cook pleaded guilty in the Federal Court yesterday and was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail. He was indicted in the "Tilamook Kid case" charged with importing liquor into Oregon in violation of the Federal statutes.

Cook was apprehended at Salem six months ago on his first transportation of the dry law and had just completed a six months' sentence in the Marion County Jail on a state case when he was summoned before the Federal Court for an alleged violation of the United States statutes on the same offense.

Montana Typos to Organize. GREAT FALLS, Mont., May 9.—A state conference of the typographical unions of the state is called to meet in this city next Sunday morning for the purpose of organizing a state body.

The convention is the first called in Montana and it is expected that representatives from every chapel in the state will be present. Delegates are already reporting to the local committee.

certs of the season, the orchestra men, it is said, were paid a mere pittance. But they stuck to their work, even with the added discouragement that the guarantee fund of the Portland Symphony Orchestra this season is about $300 short of the sum required.

M. Christensen was conductor last night, and he led his associates with dignity and high musical ability. Henry Bettman was concert master, and he played with finished skill.

The programme was an even one, representative, sparkling, but containing no music surprises. We heard many old friends in the selections chosen, and these made up a music bouquet calculated to please a home crowd. It did.

"Goldmark's Rustic Wedding Symphony" led the procession of alluring treats in the music feast, and the familiar music, especially in "The Wedding March" and "Serenade" and "Dance," won all.

Weber's "Oberon" overture is a loved contribution, and its brilliancy won again. Borodin's "Sketch of the Steppes of Middle Asia" has marked originality of treatment, but not much beauty to commend it.

STUDENT OFFICERS ELECTED AT UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

FOOTBALL TEAM OF LAST SEASON AND VARIETY WRESTLER.

He is a member of the local chapter of Phi Gamma Delta and of Psi Chi, an upper-class society.

George Taylor, of Westfall, Or., his successful candidate for vice-president, has been a member of the varsity wrestling team for two years and this year was selected to captain the squad. He is actively connected with the Dorm Club and Crossroads, a faculty-student forum.

In the election of Douglas Mullarkey, of Redmond, Or., as editor of the Emerald, the student tri-weekly paper, all traditions regarding that office were broken. Besides being the youngest student ever to edit the Emerald, Mullarkey is also the first editor to be chosen from among other than senior men.

He is a member of the sophomore class and of Sigma Chi, National Fraternity. He has been on the staff of the Emerald since his first day in the university, this year in the capacity as assistant news editor. While in high school he edited and published the Redmond Enterprise, a six-column, four-page weekly paper, and has since been employed on the staffs of newspapers in Bend, The Dalles, Portland and Eugene.

Ella Dewa, secretary-elect, of Klamath Falls, is a junior in the university and prominent in student body activities. She is a resident member of the local chapter of Pi Beta Phi, National sorority.

3000 BOYS IN DEMAND

FARMERS AND ORCHARDISTS IN SORE STRAITS FOR HELP. J. C. Meehan, of Y. M. C. A., Asks Immediate Response to Keep Farms Producing for Fighting Men.

Oregon is crying for 3000 boys to work on the farms and in the orchards this year.

J. C. Meehan, head of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., has a big task on his hands and he needs all the assistance the business man or parent can give him immediately to enlist Oregon's big quota of 3000 helpers.

Mr. Meehan, speaking before the progressive Business Men's Club yesterday, made an emphatic patriotic appeal.

Interest in the Masonic and Eastern Star circles this week centers around the dance which will be given by the Eastern Star Social Clubs of the city in the Masonic hall tonight at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be used for equipment for the Eastern Star Red Cross Auxiliary. Special features will be introduced during the evening.

T. COOK PLEADS GUILTY

Thomas Cook pleaded guilty in the Federal Court yesterday and was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail.

Weber's "Oberon" overture is a loved contribution, and its brilliancy won again. Borodin's "Sketch of the Steppes of Middle Asia" has marked originality of treatment, but not much beauty to commend it.

Quite different and joyously gay in the glorious ballet music from Ponchielli's "Gioconda," and the rendition was a glad riot of color and cheer.

"Entr'acte Gavotte," by Gillet, is another favorite, and it won out. The Bach-Gounod "Ave Marie" is a family friend, is played on the family piano at home, and it received last night a fine, noble setting and rendition, with pipe organ accompaniment added by William R. Boone—and not forgetting the harp.

The Herbert "American" fantasy struck a popular note, and its selections of "The Old Folks at Home," "Dixie," "Columbia" and "Star-Spangled Banner" were quite impressive.

What a pity these symphony concerts are over for a season. They will be missed by the music community. Here's looking for the new symphony season of 1918-19.
