

PORTLAND TO HELP RED CROSS AUCTION

Two Chevrolet Autos Donated to Cause by Patriotic Coast Dealers.

VALUABLE PIN ALSO GIVEN

Business Firms and Public-Spirited Individuals Send in Many Articles for Sale Beginning Thursday Morning.

TAKE RED CROSS AUCTION DONATIONS TO Y. M. C. A.
Because the Liberty Temple is fully occupied by preliminary work of the Red Cross campaign, arrangements were made yesterday to have donations for the Red Cross auction stored at the Y. M. C. A. Firms or individuals desiring to contribute articles to be sold may take them to the Y. M. C. A. at any time.

Business firms and public-spirited individuals yesterday volunteered many valuable articles for the Red Cross auction that is to be held next Thursday in front of Liberty Temple. From the nature of the donations it is evident that the auction will be one of the big money-makers of the campaign.

First in value is the donation of two automobiles that will be sold to help fill the Red Cross war chest. The first of these machines, a Chevrolet, was given to the auction committee on Wednesday by Regner & Fields, Inc., the Portland agents. Yesterday, through the mediation of this firm, the Chevrolet manufacturers in California donated a second car to the Portland committee. The machines will be placed in front of Liberty Temple today and the public will be given an opportunity to participate in the sale.

Another important gift was volunteered yesterday by M. Sichel. This is a thermos motor restaurant for six people. It includes all the necessities and luxuries for an automobile outing, and is valued at least $100, although the auction committee hopes that it will bring even more, since the money is to go to the Red Cross.

A magnificent gold Knights Templar pin was donated to the Red Cross auction yesterday by a Portland woman.

"My husband who owned it is dead," she said. "My present husband is not a Sir Knight."

"So I thought it best to give the pin to the Red Cross."

A gift that was appreciated by the committee came recently from Mrs. J. Westberg, of San Francisco, a resident at the Ramapo Hotel. It is a handsome wreath, made by Mrs. Westberg's mother.

LACKAYE ORPHEUM STAR

CELEBRATED AMERICAN ACTOR TO OPEN HERE TOMORROW.

Three Big Features in Vaudeville Which Begins Engagement at Hellig Sunday Matinee.

Wilton Lackaye, celebrated American actor, who has been associated with many of the greatest dramatic successes in the United States, will reign as headliner of the Orpheum show which will open at the Hellig Theater tomorrow afternoon. The Lackaye show will be on the boards for only three nights and four matinees, a concert at the Hellig preventing the Orpheum from giving an extra Wednesday night performance.

Mr. Lackaye's big-time vaudeville vehicle is "The Fort," a play written by Hall McAllister. It is said to be admirably suited to the style of the star and holds intense interest from the quiet beginning to the startling denouement, through all of which Mr. Lackaye's refinement and mastery of the stage art predominate.

Wilton Lackaye has the reputation of being the best-dressed actor in the United States. He is referred to in theatrical and club circles as "Lackaye, the immaculate."

An extra attraction of the Lackaye Orpheum show is Claire Rochester, phenomenal soprano-baritone, and the third big-type feature is the cat of Lester Sheehan and Pearl Regay, who offer "Five Foot Fancies." Mr. Sheehan formerly was the dancing partner of the celebrated Bessie Clayton.

Omega Lodge Meets Today.

There will be a special meeting of Omega Rebekah Lodge this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Orient Hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. The purpose is to elect delegates to the state assembly.
