

RED CROSS DRIVE WORK UNDER WAY

The Dalles Chapter Expects to Go 'Over the Top' by Monday Night, Is Report.

SUBSCRIPTIONS POUR IN

Rivalry Between Red and White Divisions in Portland Promises to Be Keen—Reports From All Parts of State Encouraging.

TWO KICK-OFF MEETINGS SET FOR MONDAY NIGHT.

All captains in Henry Reed's house-to-house division are requested to meet at Liberty Temple promptly at 8 P. M. Monday night.

The Dalles chapter of the American Red Cross now guarantees that it will be "over the top" by Monday night in this second war fund drive of the society.

It backed up its promise by telegraphing a list of the advance subscriptions up to last night, and totaling $4900.

As an indication of the enthusiastic manner in which the Wasco County people are "going after" the campaign, the following tabulation of the early subscriptions was telegraphed:

Three of $50 each, one of $200, 17 of $100 each, 16 of $100 each, with several hundred dollars in smaller amounts.

"Our quota is pretty heavy, but the general opinion is that our people will raise it without a doubt," telegraphed George D. Brodie, campaign manager.

Adolph Wolfe, colonel of the "red rose" division, aroused immense enthusiasm among his team captains by holding an organization dinner.

Red Roses Given Workers. And just to show how completely the "reds" intended to conquer the "whites," Mr. Wolfe invited his "white" opponent, S. Benson, to join the party, while in addition he entertained his guests at the Benson Hotel, which is owned by his rival.

Following the dinner, Mr. Benson did some advertising work on behalf of the division by presenting every Red Cross worker at the Liberty Temple, 150 in all, with magnificent red roses.

Rev. W. W. Youngson was appointed publicity manager of the "reds," with the instructions that the publicity office at the temple was to be provided with a minimum of two lines of "red copy" to every one of "white."

The cashier's office at the temple is fully organized and in charge of O. C. Bortzmeier, who has been assigned to the second Red Cross fund by courtesy of the Municipal Civil Service Board. He announces his assistants as follows:

Assistants Are Named. J. O. Bredemeler, from the City Auditor's office; Miss Lolita Bodman, H. L. German, from the city water office, and George Larson, from the office of Stewart Bros. The cashier's office will be open daily from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

At Mr. Bortzmeier's workers are experienced in campaigns. Mr. Bortzmeier had charge of the finances in the Salvation Army drive and was formerly cashier of the Security National American Bank. Mr. Bredemeler was in the Armenian drive and Mr. Larson in the second Liberty loan campaign.

Ontario Is Enthusiastic. At a card party held April 23 in the Alkey building by Acme Hive No. 923, Lady Maccoabee, 412, was contributed, which was turned over to the war fund yesterday by a committee consisting of Mrs. D. E. Larkin, Mrs. Eliza Richards, Mrs. Anna Gehl and Mrs. Mary Myers.

Enthusiastic reports were received from Ontario of the immense success of the meeting, addressed by Sergeant-Major Christie, With W. Williams, state chairman of the speakers bureau, he left for Burns after holding two capacity meetings.

Lance Corporal Berry, another of the Canadian contingent of wounded veterans, spoke yesterday at Clatskanie and Rainier and will be at Astoria today. Lieutenant W. H. M. Roiston will speak this afternoon at Eugene and at Corvallis tonight, reviewing the Oregon Agricultural College cadets at Corvallis Sunday morning.

Private Banks and Sergeant Clark will speak in Marshfield Sunday night, in Medford Monday afternoon, and in Grants Pass Tuesday evening.

The following Portland and vicinity meetings are scheduled for the Canadian:

Saturday noon—Lieutenant MacKinnon, Civic League luncheon.

Saturday, 4 P. M.—Sergeant Wills, Pleasant Home; Sergeant Whittingham, Portland Y. M. C. A.; Elton Watkins, Deer Island.

Sunday evening—Lance Corporal Berry, Methodist Episcopal Church.

Monday noon—Lieutenant MacKinnon and Raiston, Sergeant Whittingham and Lance Corporal Berry, at members' council, Chamber of Commerce.

Monday night—Lieutenant MacKinnon and Raiston will be at both kick-off meetings, that in the Liberty Temple for the house-to-house campaign, and that in the Chamber of Commerce for the "city-center" campaign; Lance Corporal Berry at Vancouver and Sergeant Whittingham at Sheridan.

Tuesday night—Sergeant Whittingham and Elton Watkins at Oak Grove and Corporal Berry at Nashboro.

Credit Due Not Given.

BEAVERTON, Or., May 17.—(Special.)—Plans for the local Red Cross drive are well under way, despite the fact that the state and county authorities have failed to advise local members as to what is expected of them. The auxiliaries of this vicinity work under the Portland chapter, while the county organization has headquarters at Hillsboro. As a result, the local branches receive no credit for the results of the drive at state headquarters and no credit at county headquarters for the work done in the chapter rooms.

CENTRALIA TEAMS PREPARE Final Instruction Given for Work in Red Cross Drive.

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 17.—(Special.)—Last night a meeting was held by the executive committee and team captains who will wage Centralia's Red Cross war fund drive next week, at which the captains chose their team workers from a list of 40 men previously selected by the executive committee.

Yesterday letters were sent out to 1000 Centralians urging them to subscribe voluntarily before Monday and thus insure the success of the drive.

Last night short talks on behalf of the drive were made in local theaters by N. C. Applegate, Huber Grimm and W. N. Beal. The same man will speak again tonight and tomorrow night.

DANCE CENSORSHIP DUE GOVERNMENT TO SEE 'HOFS' ARE CONDUCTED PROPERLY.

Military Police to Be at All Halls With Authority to Call Forth Soldiers Participating.

On behalf of the Government, strict oversight of public dancehalls and pavilions in and about Portland is immediately to be made effective. The move is in accord with the general Army policy of protecting the men in cantonments and camps from moral taint.

Steps for the Government censorship of dances have been directed by John E. McCourt, of the War Department commission on training camp activities, and David Robinson, special attorney for the Government. Managers of the various public resorts in this immediate section were told of the plans at a conference held Thursday.

So long as the public dances are properly conducted there will be no interference, but transgressions of the rules promulgated will result, first, in the withdrawal of soldiers from the place, and, in more flagrant cases, in the closing of the place.

Details of military police from Vancouver Barracks will hereafter be stationed before the amusement places where dancing is conducted. These men will stand ready to quell any disturbances, whether created by soldiers or civilians. It will be their duty also to call forth all soldiers if questionable characters or actions are discovered at a dance.

HANEY TELLS PROBLEMS Government Attorney Speaker at Realty Board Luncheon.

Bert E. Haney, United States Attorney for Oregon, discussed problems of his office in connection with the war at the luncheon of the Portland Realty Board yesterday.

Sergeant Major Clark, of the Fifth Canadian Battalion, wounded severely three times, told war experiences and of the wonderful work of the Red Cross. Eugene E. Smith, for the Food Administration, urged the realtors to eat more potatoes.

Big Jetty Contract Awarded. ASTORIA, Or., May 17.—(Special.)—The Miami Quarry Company, of which C. L. Huston, of this city, is president, has been awarded a contract by the Government to construct a jetty about half a mile in length at the mouth of the Umpqua River. The work will require about 100,000 tons of rock and cost about $150,000. Work on the contract is now under way. The same company is building a jetty at Raquina Bay, the contract price for which is in the neighborhood of $400,000.
