State Trapshooters' Association's annual tournament being held at Everding Park, the beautiful home of the Portland Gun Club.

Some excellent scores were chalked up in the 150-bird event, with Frank Richl, professional, of Tacoma, high gun with 148. Pete O'Brien, amateur, now a resident of Butte, Mont, and formerly of this city, was next best score with 147 for his day's work. Frank M. Troch, of Vancouver, Wash, broke 146 targets, while Frank Van broke 146 targets, while Frank Van Atta broke 144 and Frank Temple-ton followed close with 143 Hugh Pos-ton, professional, of San Francisco, Was not the least disturbed on account was not the least disturbed on account of the inclement weather and registered 146 smasnes out of 159 attempts. C. D. Plank, professional, of Portland, scattered 145 targets to the winds. Charlie Lieth, of Portland, registered a perfect score in the first leg of the doubles for the Dr. O. D. Thornton trophy when he smashed 12 pairs of targets without a miscue.

Templeton's Run Long.

Dr. C. E. Templeton, of Seattle, enjoyed the distinction of handing in a long run of 123, which followed over from Sunday's shoot. Frank Troeh made the long run yesterday with 103. Ada Schilling participated in yesterday's shoot against her physician's instructions and managed to reach the third trap, when she became ill and was unable to participate further in the shoot.

Peta O'Brien was in rare form in the 150-bird event. He dropped two out of the first 30 and then ran 75 before he falled to connect safely and then ran 44 straight. O'Brien couldn't get started in the first leg of the doubles. Thornton trophy, breaking nual state championship trapshooling tournament and officers were elected

The Vancouver, B. C., delegation, which included J. McIntyre, F. D. Carder, H. J. Leirsch, J. H. Pattison and C. Bowers, did not have much luck in yesterday's event.

Twenty nine shooters entered in a special Red Cross handicap event of 25 targets and Hugh Poston, G. Peret, R. P. Kright, O. D. Thornton and Mark Rickard tied with 23 targets. Hugh Posion wen the shoot-off and the handsome gold watch put up by Dr. A. K. Downs when he smashed 25 straight. The Red Cross fund was enriched $42.40 as a result of the shoot. The shoot of the largest crowds of the present fournament is expected to be on hand. Today's programme includes the Interstate Trapshooters' Association state handicap, W. C. —Making their first away-from-home stand, Bill Fisher's hustling Buckaroos didn't act the least bit timid today. They tamed the Tigers in their own lair to the tune of 5 to 5. The Buck batters found Pitcher Jack Clayton for 11 healthy thumps, several of them extra base knocks and this collection of "Legits" easily produced a quintet of markers.

While his team mates were pounding the pill right nobly, Frank Rapp southpawed a very nice game for the Bucks. The veteran didn't seem to have much, but his ability to work the corners and his coolness in the pinches kept the Tigers down all the way. Rapp was nicked for only six safeties and won a well-deserved victory.
