DANCING! TONIGHT Cotillion Hall

Fourteenth Off Washington. Portland's Finest Amusement Palace. Ball-Bearing Spring Floor. PRIZE WALTZ. AMUSEMENTS.

Soldiers are especially welcome at the park - no admission is charged them, and every day finds a great number as our guests. Skating seems to be the most popular sport with them, but now, since the swimming tank is open, undoubtedly many will enjoy a plunge in this inviting open air tank.

These are the kind of days that bring out the picnic parties, and many happy families will be seen grouped under the trees or in the little Summer houses every afternoon. There is a comic movie and orchestra in the afternoon, and a band concert by Cioffi's Celebrated Band; soprano solos by Beth Groves Young, and a movie at 8:20 in the evening. This entire programme is free to Park guests.

Then, no matter how old or how young you are, you will enjoy the many unique rides and trips on the different concessions. The Rodeo is now open and it offers a thrill, a swinging out into space that simply enlivens as it delights.

Cars leave First and Alder every few minutes-transfer from any part of the city-6-cent fare.
