On the western side of the Champagne salient Americans stopped the Teutonic advance dead near Neuilly wood, and in a magnificent counter attack threw the enemy back north of the wood.

Huns Hurled Back.

On the Marne front, to the south, American troops, in conjunction with the French, swept the Germans back across the river, which the enemy had succeeded in crossing. The action took place above Jaulgonne. An enemy battalion which had effected the crossing of the Marne sustained heavy losses under the fire of the French-American force. One hundred Germans were taken prisoner and the footbridge used to cross the river was destroyed.

American machine gunners on May 31 took an active part in the defense of Chateau Thierry, which was
