95,000 POSTCARDS.

Perpiexing Problem of Local War Savlogs Stamp Campaign Managers Happily Solved.

One of the perplexities of the local war savings stamp campaign was solved yesterday, when 180 pupils of Lincoln High School, captained by Principal T. Davis, volunteered to address the $5,000 postcards which are to be sent to the registered voters of Portland and the registered voters of Portland and Multnomah County.

Upon the postals will appear the President's proclamation regarding the war savings stamp cause and other information relative to the drive. The magnitude of the task, coupled with the fact that there is no Government appropriation for clerical work, at first dumbfounded the headquarters crew. The generous offer of the students golved the riddie.

Students will copy the names of reg-solved the riddle.

Students will copy the names of registered voters from the precinct books, beginning on Friday, June 14. Similar provisions will be made in other Oregon counties until cards have been sent to every one of the state's 305,000 registered voters.

Approximately 3500 field workers will be called to service for June 28, when be called to service for June 28, when all Portland will be solicited for war savings pledges, according to the esti-mates of Frank McCrillis, who is in mates of Frank McCrillis, who is in charge of the city campaign.

Plans for continuation of the war savings stamp organization in Portland schools through vacation were presented yesterday to the Parent-Teachers' Association at Central Library, S. C. Bratton appearing in behalf of the campaign. It is understood that the association will maintain the school organ-paign. It is understood that the asso-ciation will maintain the school organ-ization throughout the Summer.

The appointment of Miss Harriet Cumming as office assistant to George
W. Caldwell, city manager of the speak-ers' bureau, was announced yesterday.
On Monday the war savings organiza-tion will open new offices at Liberty Temple.

J. D. Casey Stays by Portland.

James D. Casey, formerly traveling freight agent of the Milwaukee lines, one of the old-time Portland traffic men who refused to move away from Portland to accept employment offered by the company elsewhere, has taken a place with the Baggage & Omnibus Transfer Company as a train solicitor. He began his new work
