"shut-eye" and awoke yesterday morn-ing and read where the Buckaroo man-ager had secured the signature of La-Cloustra to a Portland contraca, Keith broke all speed records in getting into his garments and visiting Fred N. Bay, president of the Shipbuilders' League. After having informed Bay of his troubles. Keith and the league "prexy" visited Judge McCredie at baseball headquarters and notified the Portland magnate that LaCloustra was the property of the Peninsula team and if the former Indian hurler played with any aggregation other than Peninsula it would be over Keith's dead body. Keith became very dramatic and Fred Bay has recommended "Buck" to

Larry Keating for a three weeks stand at the Lyrie in "Unhand Me, Sir!"

But Keith's appeal had the right stuff in it and Lacloustra was informed he would not be allowed to play with the Buckaroos, which edict caused Manager Fisher to resign Carl Clow as a member of the Buckaroo pitching staff, after having released the La Pine youngster Sunday. If these "birds" are primed for tonight's game, Manager Fisher and his Bucka-
