

BETH ISRAEL SEES 60TH ANNIVERSARY

Auspicious Event Is of Historic Importance to Portland and to Pacific Northwest.

CELEBRATION HELD FRIDAY

Evangelical, Episcopal, Unitarian and Catholic Clergy Will Be Present and Join in Greetings—History of Founding Related.

An auspicious event, one that concerns not only one institution and one people, but also the historic importance to the entire community and to the Northwest, is the celebration of the 60th anniversary of the founding of Congregation Beth Israel, to be held Friday night in the Temple.

Adolphe Wolfe, president of the board of trustees, will give an address of greeting. Rev. W. G. Elliot, Jr., pastor of the First Unitarian Church, will speak and there will be greetings from the evangelical, Episcopal and Catholic clergy represented by Rev. Joshua Stansfield, of the First Methodist Church; Rev. E. H. McCollister, dean of St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral, and Rev. Father George Thompson, of the Church of the Madeleine.

City's History Interwoven.
Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, who is in charge of the Temple Beth Israel, will give the Sabbath lesson. Rev. H. Abramson will read the scripture lesson and Rev. T. L. Elliot, D. D., minister emeritus of the Unitarian Church and one of the pioneer churchmen of the city, will pronounce the benediction.

Particular significance is in the celebration of this 60th anniversary of so influential a church, widely known here and in other parts of the Northwest. One could not write the history of the state without weaving in the story of Temple Beth Israel, its founders, its rabbis and its men and women who have been foremost in all great enterprises and in the upbuilding of the community.

Nineteen Men Were Founders.

Congregation Beth Israel was founded June 12, 1858. The original meeting was held May 2, 1858, in the National Hotel. The men who attended this meeting were M. Mansfield, Jacob Mayer, Samuel Levy, David Simon, L. Kahn, L. M. Lyon, L. Cohen and B. H. Hirsch. In addition to these the following were charter members: H. F. Bloch, Leopold Mayer, Abraham Frank, I. Michelop, S. Blumauer, J. Marks, P. Frankenstein, Abraham Meisenbeck, J. Bergman, A. Loeb, S. Steinhilber. At the first service held in the Temple Beth Israel, the name Beth Israel was adopted. The 19 members took turns in reading the ritual and attending to the congregational activities.

First Synagogue at Fifth and Oak.

In 1861 the congregation bought the property at Fifth and Oak streets and an additional piece of property at Sixth and Oak. This was then far on the outskirts of the young city. The first synagogue was built at Fifth and Oak and in May of 1861 Rev. H. P. Boris came here as cantor and remained for many years.

The dedication of the synagogue was a great event. Rev. Elkan Cohn officiated. Within a short time other members were added and among these early-day men were K. Rabinovitch, S. Rosenblatt, A. Beck, C. H. Friendly, Philip Wasserman, J. Felschner, Joseph Levy, M. Stock, P. Selling and B. Goldsmith. A day school, in which languages and many subjects were taught, was established and continued to operate until the city established its public schools.

Rev. I. Eckman, First Rabbi.

Rev. I. Eckman, of San Francisco, was elected the first rabbi, in 1862. He was succeeded by Rev. J. Schwab, and his successor, Rev. Rabinovitch, in May and Alex Rosenzweig, October 25, 1883. Rev. Jacob Bloch was elected rabbi. Under his ministry the congregation grew rapidly and the present site of the temple at Main and Twelfth streets was purchased. The building was dedicated June 1, 1889.

Rabbi Bloch retired in 1909, after long and faithful service, and was succeeded by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, who resigned in 1906 to go to New York and establish the Free Synagogue. The present minister, Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, succeeded him, ever since administering to his people with fine service and leadership and taking his place as one of the foremost speakers in the Northwest.

The present officers and trustees of the Temple Beth Israel are: President, Adolphe Wolfe; first vice-president, Joseph Simon; second vice-president, M. Sichel; treasurer, Max S. Hirsch; secretary, J. L. White; trustees, F. M. Seiler, Albert Feilchenheim, B. G. Nelson, Milton E. Kahn, Julius Lippitt and Charles F. Berg.

PASTOR ALSO SURPRISED

REV. FRANCIS B. SHORT COMES TO PORTLAND UNEXPECTEDLY.

Wilbur Methodist Church Congregation Hears of Arrival and Plans Luncheon in Honor of New Pastor.

The Rev. Francis Burgette Short, who recently accepted the pastorate of the Wilbur Methodist Church, surprised his people yesterday by dropping into town from Spokane and going a-hunting. And then about 80 of the members of the Wilbur Congregation returned the compliment and surprised the pastor by planning a luncheon in his honor.

The affair was impromptu, being arranged by telephone in a far room in the gold room of the Multnomah Hotel, where a delightful menu was served, and where Dr. Short greeted his church folk informally. Probably early in July a large reception will be held in the Multnomah for the minister and his family. It is expected that Dr. and Mrs. Short and their two sons will be here about July 1.

Dr. W. W. Youngson, district superintendent, presided and introduced the pastor, who gave an inspiring address on the opportunities for a downtown church. At present the meetings of the

SCHOOL FLAGS TELL STORY

Portland Institutions Furnish 3021 Men For War Service.

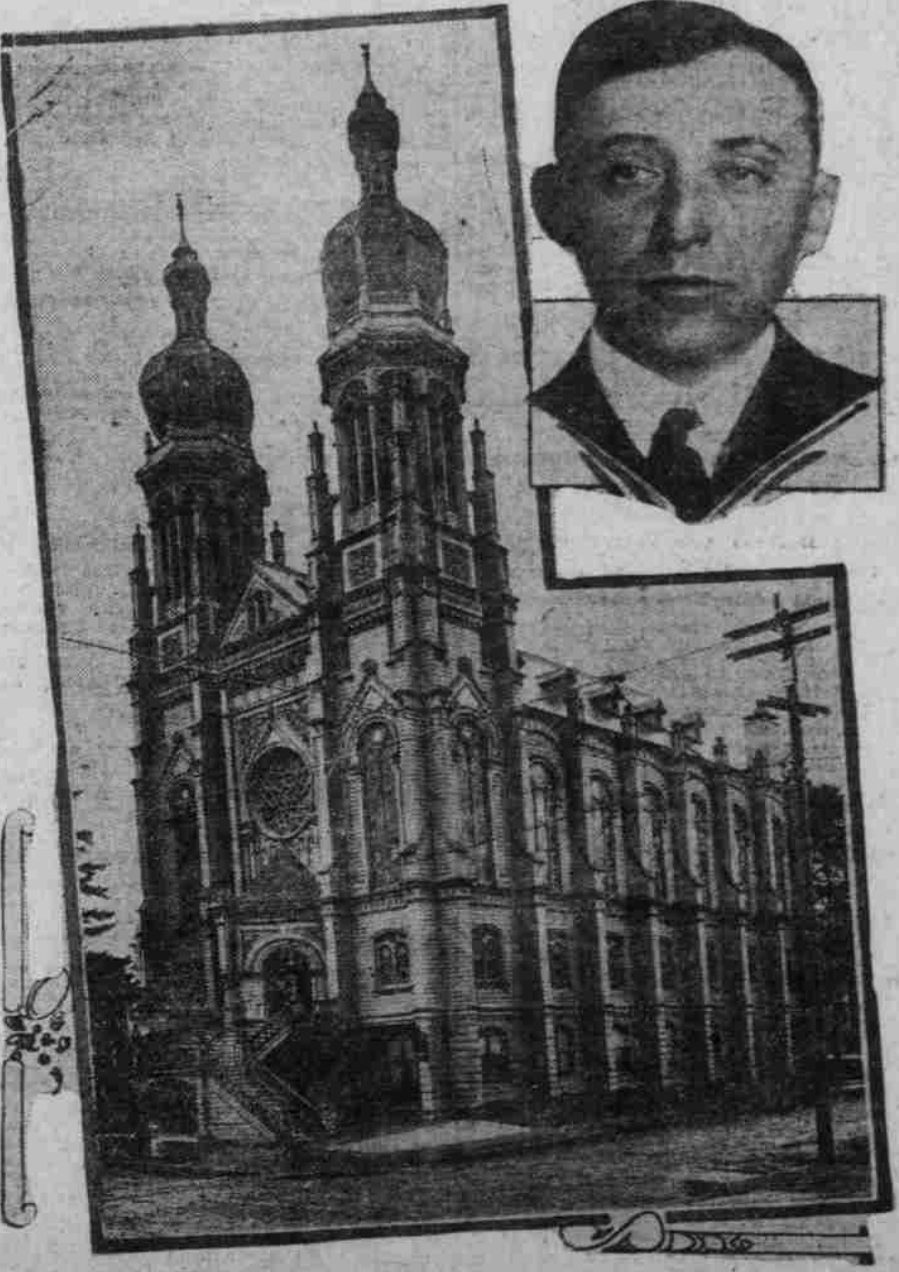

Stars to the number of 3021 adorn the service flags of Portland public schools and more are being added daily, according to Superintendent Alderman. Of the 550 students to graduate from Portland High schools this month, practically all the men who are 21 have signified their intention of enlisting in some branch of the service. Those between 18 and 21 are planning to attend colleges under the new plan announced by the war department.

Of the 3021 stars, the high schools furnished them to Uncle Sam as follows: Washington high tops the list with 274 stars, Jefferson is second with 260, Lincoln 250, James John 20, Franklin 52, and Commerce 24.

Auto Turns Turtle, One Hurt.

RIDGEFIELD, Wash., June 12.—(Special.)—Misses Anna Kreiger and Ross Koethe narrowly escaped death on Monday evening when an automobile which they were driving turned over a few miles east of town. Dr. Warner was summoned, but found only one of the young women seriously injured.

ICE PRICE TO DROP

Cut of 10 Cents a Hundred Is Announced.

CHANGE EFFECTIVE MONDAY

Reduction Is Made Possible by Re-arrangement of Deliveries. Zone System Adopted for Supplying Consumers.

Ice prices are to be reduced in Portland 10 cents a hundred. The reductions are to take effect next Monday. They come as the result of efforts of the Food Administration and are made possible by rearrangement of delivery methods according to a zone system. Announcement of the price cut agreed upon was made yesterday by Assistant Food Administrator Frank M. Warren after a final conference with ice manufacturers and dealers. Mr. Warren's announcement follows: "The Food Administration at Washington has advised all state administra-trators to take such rational measures as are possible in order that the price of ice to the domestic consumer shall not be advanced over last year's basis.

"The only feasible way to secure a reduction from the present price of 80 cents per hundred pounds to 70 cents was by curtailment of deliveries and cutting out the abuse of duplication. The city has therefore been divided into zones and on certain specified days each of the zones will be served with ice, all ice companies delivering in certain zones on specified days.

"Under this plan, each zone will be served with ice on three days of the week. Householders will be notified before the end of the week of their ice deliveries and to what zone they are in and on what days they may have ice delivered.

"The zones will be served on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, while others will be served on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. This may cause temporary inconvenience, but it is only an occasional consumer who wants a delivery of ice every day, his majority filling their ice boxes only once or twice a week or three times at the most. The only change that will be necessary will be in the householder's requirements to the days that deliveries are made to his or her zone.

"With this change the price will be at the rate of 70 cents per hundred pounds in all zones except Portland Heights, which will have a rate of 75 cents per hundred, instead of 80 and 85 cents as at present.

"The question of weights and measures is covered by a city ordinance which is complete regarding this should be made to the city officials.

"The new prices and system of deliveries will go into effect on Monday, June 17.

EDMUND C. GODDARD DIES

Ex-Portland Business Man Succumbs at Farm at Underwood, Wash.

Portland relatives received word yesterday of the death during the morning of Edmund C. Goddard, resident of this city and for many years one of its active business men. Mr. Goddard died at his farm near Underwood, Wash., where he had gone with his wife and daughter a few weeks ago to spend the summer. He had been in poor health for some time. The family home is at 492 Mill street.

Mr. Goddard was born in Monroe, Wis. 56 years ago, and was a graduate of Wisconsin University. He came to Portland and engaged in the retail shoe business in 1905. Later he organized the Goddard-Kelly Shoe Company. The circle of immediate relatives includes the widow and daughter, Miss Elizabeth; the mother, Mrs. Sarah P. Goddard; two sisters and a brother, Mrs. G. H. Marsh, Mrs. Arthur McKinla and Henry W. Goddard, respectively, all of Portland.

LIFE IRKS LAWYER

N. F. Anderson, Despondent, Puts Bullet Into Heart.

ATTORNEY FIRES 2 SHOTS

Nervous Breakdown Causes Act of Prominent Portland Visitor. Police Declare Suicide Was Deliberately Planned Deed.

In a fit of despondency, following a nervous breakdown, N. F. Anderson, prominent attorney of Keweenaw, Ill., shot himself through the heart early yesterday afternoon at the home of his brother, A. W. Anderson, 342 Halsey street. Two shots were fired, both taking effect. He died at 10:45 o'clock last night.

Mr. Anderson, accompanied by a son, had arrived in Portland Tuesday night, coming here in the hope that the change of climate would be beneficial to his health. At noon yesterday he appeared to be in good spirits when his brother left for his grocery store, near by.

Mrs. Anderson had stepped out of the house a few minutes later and upon returning in a short time she discovered her brother-in-law lying on the floor in a pool of blood.

The police were notified and Inspectors Goltz, Coleman, Howell and Morak made an investigation. The evidence was convincing that Mr. Anderson had deliberately planned to commit suicide. Mr. Anderson was about 60 years old. For many years he was prominent as an attorney and in politics in his community. He served a term as United States Attorney in the Keweenaw district. He was a personal friend of William J. Bryan and was well known politically throughout Illinois.

ARMY OFFICERS ARRIVE

MILITARY HEADS OF TRAINING SCHOOL SELECTED.

Soldiers Expected at Benson Polytechnic High School June 15; Kitchens to Be Enlarged.

Officers detailed from the National Army have arrived in Portland to take care of the military part of the Army training school at the Benson Polytechnic High School this summer. The commanding officer of the school is Captain Robert A. Boos, formerly of Camp Lewis. His subordinate officers will be First Lieutenant Michelbrook, First Lieutenant Kimball C. Kaufman and Second Lieutenant L. S. Rinkie. The medical officer of the camp will be First Lieutenant Mervin Smith. The shops of Benson High are being made ready for the soldiers, who are scheduled to arrive June 15. The domestic science department of the public schools is arranging to enlarge the kitchens and in preparation for the task of feeding 300 hungry men the halls of the building are being made into improvised barracks. The first session of the Government school will continue through the summer, but it is quite likely the work will be repeated in similar sessions next year. The Benson shops are large enough to care for the men, but barracks and dining-rooms must be provided by the Government if the work is to be given again after school starts in the fall.
