BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON. Muff Bronson came back with colors flying last night and polished off Alex Trambitas in a most decisive manner in the main bout of the Inter-Ship-yard smoker at the Ice Palace, almost knocking the young Roumanian out in the fifth round of their six-round en-

That Bronson is the greatest in-and-outer Portland fistic fans have ever watched goes without saying. The "ace" men (those who wager their lucre on fights and other results) were so sure that Trambitas would put the skids under Bronson last night that more than $1000 is said to have laid idle at bne of the downtown "hang-

But Muff crossed the boys up and trimmed Trambitas in most artistic fashion. The big jamberee started a few seconds before the close of the second round, when Bronson cuffed Trambitas a hard right cross on the jaw. Alex wobbled in a dazed condition as he started for his corner. Tram bitas came back fairly strong in the third, but Muff was cautious and wast-ed no blows but maintained his lead. Boys Fall From Ring.

Muff had Trambitas bleeding pro-fusely in the fourth and they went at it so hard that both lads fell out of it so hard that both lads fell out of the ring into the laps of spectators. Alex rushed from his corner as the gong sounded in the fifth and un-corked a hard right cross on Bron-son's jaw. It took Muff by surprise. From that time on Bronson rared and with three hard right crosses in suc-cession Trambitas went down for the count of nine. He regained his feet and managed to stick the round out. Bronson tried to measure him for a knockout punch, but failed.

The sixth round found both boys fighting hard, with Bronson trying for a knockout. Trambitas appeared to get stronger, but Bronson ripped a hard left hook to Alex' jaw and he went to left hook to Alex jaw and he went to the mat, but was up in a jiffy and clinched. Bronson missed a hard right swing as the bell sounded. The best that can be said for Trambitas is that he put up a game fight, but Bronson outclassed him every bit of the way. Ingle Is Winner.

George Ingle won a six-round decis-fon from Lee Morrissey, of Salt Lake City. It was a good fight and both boys fought cautlously. Ingle was the boys fought cautiously. Ingle was the aggressor. In the fifth round Ingle tripped on the canvas as he backed away from a clinch and stumbled. Morrissey rushed him to the ropes, but no damage resulted. Ingle opened a cut over Morrissey's left eye and also drew blood from Morrissey's car. The crowd thought Referce Grant's decision should have been a draw.

Joe McCarthy became angry because Sammy Gordon appeared in the ring at the age of 15 years. vearing green tights and proceeded to hastise Sammy for his carelessness, but Joe undertook something he hadn't bargained for. Sammy waltzed away with the decision after a bitter scrap. Bill Ryan showed a wide streak of saffron in his bout with Abe Gordon and after taking a punch in the dining-room which evidently wrecked all the furniture. Ryan quit cold. It started out like a corking good battle.

Eddie Herman has changed his mind about fighting, since Bennie Levy showed Referee Jack Grant that as a fighter Herman is a good bellhop. Grant stopped the bout in the third round and gave the decision to Levy. Stanley Willis and Billy Williams put up a ragged exhibition which the ref-
