Portland Games to Start at 6:30 P. M. as Last Resort, Beginning Monday.

Unless Crowds Improve Clubs Will Have Hard Time Getting By Until July 9-Double-Headers Today and Tomorrow.

BY JAMES J. RICHARDSON. As a last resort to rally the fans and as a last resort to raily the lails and fancities to the support of the Bucka-roos Judge McCredle yesterday an-nounced that, starting with the first Scattle game Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock on the Vaughn-street grounds, ail games played in Portland hereafter will be of the twilight brand. will be of the twilight brand.

The Portland magnate has tried every imaginable hour to start the games, but Portland is like every other city on the Coast, the fans are too busy with their daily toil to congregate at ball parks during the busy hours of the Twilight baseball is a huge success at Vancouver, B. C. In Sait Lake the evening games are attracting big crowds, and Los Angeles has also adopted the late starting idea.

If the innovation is a paying propo-sition in other cities, Judge McCredie maintains that it will thrive in Portland. In order to get more than a cor-poral's guard at the contests the games have been switched from 3 o'clock to and then 3:30 was tried. Finally it was switched back to 3 o'clock, but till the crowds failed to materialize.

If there is no improvement in the crowds with the advent of twilight bal it is going to be tough sledding for the magnates to stave off disaster until July 9, at which time the league may close its gates and retain title to fran-chises and players.

A double-header is billed for Vaughr street today and tomorrow. Today's fracas starts at 2 o'clock, while tomorrow's contest is billed for 1:30.

The Buckaroos have only annexed one of the three games played this week. Fisher's warriors will have to step out and cop their share of the four remaining games if they wish to hold favor with local fans.

A youngster walked into Judge Mc-Credie's office, at baseball headquar-ters Thursday, and with a confident air asked the Portland magnate if he needed any pitchers.
"My name is Webb and I pitched for What have you got in your vocabulary of twisters?" asked McCredie.

"I can't just tell you what I have, but if it's agreeable I'll report at the ball park tomorrow and try my hand at bending 'em over for you," suggested Webb.

Yesterday the lanky young right-hander put in an appearance at Vaughen street and Manager Fisher gave him a uniform. When Morton was hit hard in the eighth, Fisher con-cluded it was a chance to look Webb

RED CROSS BOUT STOPPED

Kitsap Sheriff Interferes With Plans of Bremerton Folk.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 14.—(Special.)
-Sheriff Dan Davis, of Kitsap County, Wash., tonight is as popular with Bremerton folks as the Crown Prince would be in Camp Lewis. Just when the Bremerton Elks' Lodge, with other organizations of Bremerton, had arranged for a Red Cross boxing show in Bremerton, Sheriff Daniel declared that Mickey King and Frank Farmer would not be allowed to box 10 rounds for the Red Cross or any other organization. Not wishing to buck the Sher-iff's office, the committee called the bout off.

Work had been almost completed or a grandstand at the baseball park. It was anticipated that the Red Cross would have been enriched at least $5000 by the boxing carnival.

Second Half of Shipbuilders' Season Begins Tomorrow.

2 CONTESTS AT ST. JOHNS

Smith-Porter to Meet Standifer-Clarkson and Foundation to Play Cornfoot-Keen Competition Is Promised.

The second half of the Columbia-Willamette Shipbuilders' League sea-son will be launched tomorrow with four good games on tap, two of which will be featured in a double-header at the St. Johns ball park. The first half of the season was a great success, fi-nancially and "artistically," and the second schedule promises to be better than the first. The championship is still in doubt, Foundation and Grant Smith-Porter being tied for the first place, but the game will be played off as soon as possible and the "rag" awarded to the winner.

The double-header at St. Johns will be Grant Smith-Porter vs. Standifer-Clarkson and Foundation vs. Cornfoot. The Vancouver fans are agog over the possibilities of Standifer - Clarkson's winning the pennant in the second half of the season and will invade St. Johns in full force. The "Peerless" battery, Pillett and Marshall, will work for the Vancouver club, and the Barracks city fans are backing the team to the limit. Grant Smith-Porter trimmed Standifer-Clarkson in the first half of the season, but since Manager Peterson has been adding new players to the roster it looks as though Smith-Porter will have a job cut out for them if they expect to repeat the performance, "Speed" Barham, the G. Any one of the above would be a win-ner in any of the circuits West of the Mississippi. Also the Foundation catching staff is not so "worse," Gus Fisher and Bill Gleason. Gleason is one of the heaviest hitters in the league and is a crackerjack receiver. As to Fisher, he is in a class by himself in the Shipbuilders' Leaxue. Gus was the mountain of strenkth to the Sacramento team and his lusty bat kept the Senators ahead in the runs many a time
