

SUFFRAGE FIGHT TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

Both Champions of Women and Opposition Confident of Senate Victory.

FILIBUSTER TO BE BARRED

Halls of New Hampshire Announces That He Will Call Up Constitutional Amendment Resolution Next Thursday.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(Special).—Senator Hollis, of New Hampshire, gave formal notice to the Senate today of the intention of the woman suffrage committee to call up the suffrage constitutional amendment resolution next Thursday.

Senator Hollis also announced that while no agreement had been reached as to a time for the vote, it had been agreed among the leaders on both sides of the important issue that there would be no filibuster.

In view of this and the probability that discussion will not be extended, Senator Hollis said it was probable that a vote will be reached on the same day.

Suffrage leaders tonight were making confident predictions of victory, while anti-suffragists insisted that the resolution lacks from three to five votes of the necessary two-thirds majority. One of the most influential of Senators who oppose the resolution said tonight that it would be defeated by four votes.

Ten Votes in Doubt.

On paper tonight ten Senators were classed as doubtful on the issue. President Wilson's influence and other reasons have prompted the suffragists to claim at least seven of these doubtful votes. If they get that many, the resolution will be adopted.

Senators who positively favor the resolution are: Ashurst, Calder, Chamberlain, Colt, Cummins, Curtis, Fall, Fernald, France, Frelinghuysen, Gallinger, Goff, Gore, Gronna, Hardwick, Henderson, Hollis, Johnson, Kilgore, Johnson, South Dakota; Jones, New Mexico; Jones, Washington; Knute, Kentucky; Kirby, LaFollette, Lenroot, Lewis, McCumber, McKellar, McNary, Myers, Nelson, New, Norris, Nugent, Owen, Paine, Pittman, Poindexter, Ransdell, Robinson, Shafroth, Shephard, Sherman, Smith, Arizona; Smith, Michigan; Smart, Nevada; Thomas, Thompson, Vandaman, Walsh, Warren, Watson, Wilfong.

Opposing Senators 29.

Senators who oppose the resolution are: Bankhead, Brookham, Brandegee, Dillingham, Hale, Hitchcock, James, Knox, Lodge, McLean, Martin, Overman, Penrose, Pomeroy, Reed, Sausbury, Shields, Simmons, Smith, Georgia; Smith, Maryland; Smith, South Carolina; Swanson, Tillman, Underwood, Wadsworth, Weeks, Williams, Wolcott, Total 29.

Necessary for adoption with all Senators present and voting, 64. Of the 10 doubtful Senators, the following are expected to vote for it, according to suffrage leaders: Baird, Gerry, Gulon, Kellogg and King—3. Anti-suffragists claim that the following will surely vote against it: Borah, Culberson, Fletcher, Sutherland and Trammell—5.

Two Votes May Be Lacking. Conceding the suffragists the five doubtful Senators listed for them, the total for the resolution would then be 62, or two short of the necessary majority.

But in the face of this prospect the suffrage leaders are by no means downcast. They believe that they will get at least two of the Senators and probably more on whom the anti-suffragists are counting.

They believe that President Wilson's eleventh-hour championship of the resolution will prevail on some of these Senators to vote with them. If these expectations are realized the amendment resolution will be adopted.

Some of the suffragists even insist that Senator Borah, who has steadfastly maintained that the suffrage question is a state and not a Federal problem, will vote with them.

Doubtful Senators Silent. All the doubtful Senators, however, are maintaining strict silence as to their intentions, and it is not likely that any of them will give any indication of his final decision until the roll is called on the resolution.

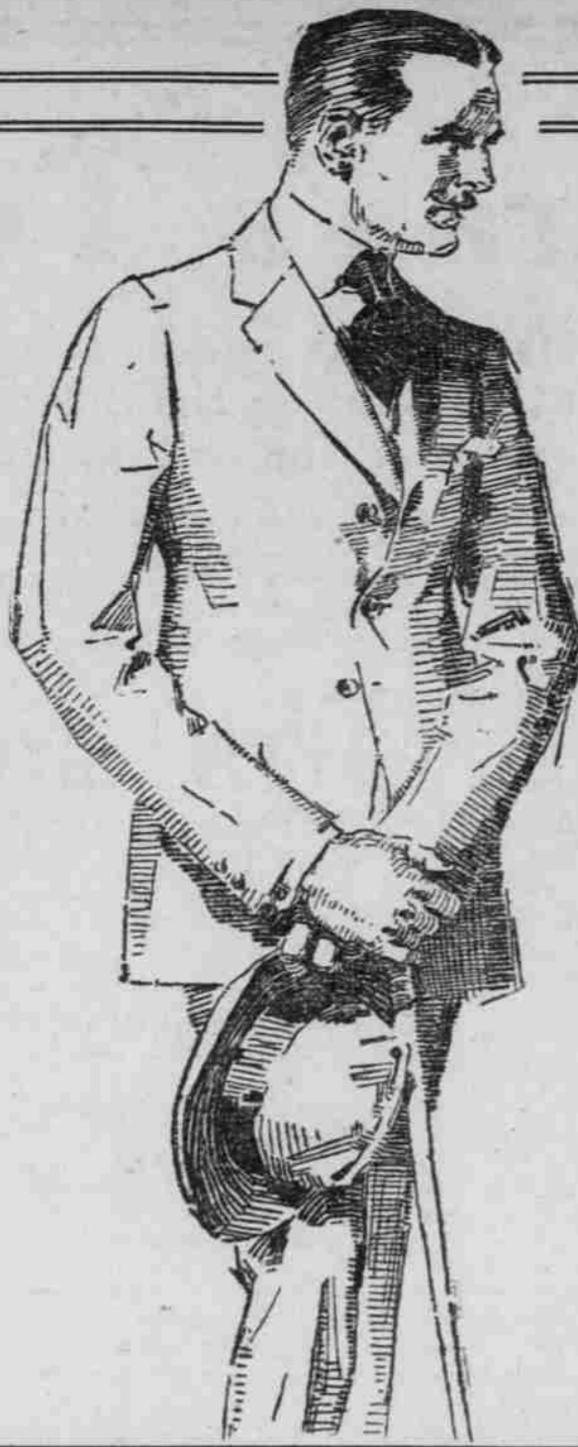

It is also improbable that there will be a full attendance when the vote is taken. In fact, Senator Townsend, of Michigan, announced today his regret that it had been decided to call up the resolution next week, because it would be impossible for him to be here owing to sickness in his family.

Senator Townsend, however, is paired with Senators Sausbury and Shields, who oppose the resolution.

Owing to the two-thirds majority required, two votes against the resolution must be paired with each vote for it.

It is not likely that Senator James, of Kentucky, who is ill, will be present. Senator LaFollette has long been absent and is expected to return next week. The three last named, however, are expected to be in their seats when the roll is called.

Mr. and Mrs. August Strauss, of Milwaukee, Wis., who are enjoying a tour through the West, are at the Portland.

EIGHT FOUND GUILTY

"Pastor" Russell Crew Faces 40 Years' Imprisonment.

COURT INDORSES VERDICT

Joseph T. Rutherford and Seven Associates Convicted on All Four Indictments at Trial Held at New York.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Joseph F. Rutherford and seven other defendants, followers of the late "Pastor" Russell, tonight were found guilty of conspiring to violate the espionage law by a jury in the Federal court.

Violation of the law is not excused by the plea that it was done in the service of God, declared Judge Howe in Federal court here late today, in charging the jury.

The defendants were accused of preaching sedition in "Pastor" Russell's posthumous book, "The Finished Mystery," and with advising resistance to the draft.

Motive Main Consideration. "If you find, said Judge Howe, "that these defendants purposely said, wrote or published what they did in a willful attempt to cause insubordination, loyalty or refusal of duty, or a willful obstruction to the recruiting or enlistment service, this would constitute criminal intention, notwithstanding that you may also find that they intended to serve 'God' and were not conscious of doing anything unlawful, because they did not know the law."

Concerning "The Finished Mystery" and other publications offered in evidence in the trial, Judge Howe said: "It makes no difference whether the language is original with the defendants or is quoted from some other author. If the defendants selected, printed, sold or otherwise published a book or paper containing it, the use of quotation marks does not relieve them from liability from such use and publication."

Court Approves Verdict. When the jury filed into the courtroom and the foreman announced that all of the defendants had been found guilty on all four counts, in the indictments against them, Judge Howe's comment was that the verdict was "thoroughly right."

The maximum penalty which can be imposed on each defendant is 40 years' imprisonment.

Besides Rutherford the defendants were William E. Van Amburgh, Robert J. Martin, Fred H. Robinson, George H. Fisher, Clayton J. Woodworth, A. Hugh McMillan and Giovanni de Cecca.

OFFICIAL BODY WILL DEAL WITH BRITISH HOME AFFAIRS.

Lloyd George Sounds Warning Against German Attempts to Undermine Allied Morale.

LONDON, June 19.—Chancellor Bonar Law, in the House of Commons, and Earl Curzon in the House of Lords today explained a report that another Cabinet of home affairs was to be created.

Mr. Bonar Law said it was simply intended to appoint a committee to deal with drastic sets of questions and the ultimate authority would be the war Cabinet.

During the debate in the House of Commons several members criticized the extravagance of the government finance and the needless multiplying of official bodies.

The Chancellor, in reply, contended that in such a tremendous affair as the war some extravagance was inevitable, but, he said, the government was doing everything possible to check the expenditures and taking control of commodities have saved the country many millions.

Sinn Feiners Likely to Escape.

GOOD DIGESTION A JOY

Good digestion is not appreciated until you lose it. Then you cannot afford to experiment on remedies. Strong medicines are hard on weak stomachs.

To be able to eat what you want and to digest it is a priceless blessing. If you have lost it do not be deceived by the claims of predigested foods and stomach tonics, so-called.

There is no tonic for the stomach that is not a tonic for every other part of the body. As the blood goes everywhere, an improvement in its condition quickly results in strengthening weak organs. Rich, red blood is absolutely necessary to digestion. If your stomach is weak and you are troubled with gas, sour risings in the throat, a feeling of pressure about the heart and palpitation, try the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

So many dyspeptics have been helped by this simple treatment that every sufferer from indigestion should try it. The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., has issued a free book, "What to Eat and How to Eat," that should be in every home. It gives just the information that you want regarding your diet. The company will mail Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, postpaid, at 50c per box or your own druggist can supply you. Do not pay more.—Adv.

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says: "I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation. Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well. My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.
