

"GOD OF HUN AND TURK NOT OUR GOD"

Teuton Inflamed by Faith That Transcends Life, Says Dr. Lovejoy.

TELLING APPEAL IS MADE

Portland Physician Who Has Seen Horrors of War in Europe Urges Women of America to Do Their Full Duty.

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

Make no mistake, Dr. Esther Clayton Lovejoy isn't seeing interviewers just for the idle pleasure of being showered with airy publicity and congratulatory or fulsome praise over the interesting adventures that have been claiming her attention in war-torn Europe...

Doctor Has Seen Much

Dr. Lovejoy returned yesterday from a lecture tour which has engaged all her time since last February, when she landed in New York from France...

Huns Recognize Their Values

"But the terrible Hun is inflamed by a faith that transcends life. He believes he is in the right. It is my observation that the attitude of a German soldier is that a French woman should feel herself honored and fortunate favored of God in bearing a Boche child...

War Hits Women Hardest

"French mothers are wonderful women. They smile and look proud of the boys they have given to France but when they speak of their daughters held by the Hun their tones are grief-stricken...

War Hits Women Hardest

"I do not want to be quoted as saying what any German says, or does or thinks. These are my own opinions. I know the German military values. I make my own deductions. My travels carried me all over France as a Red Cross representative and the Red Cross has sent me back here, and I will follow its call again to France. I have listened to stories that would fill books. I have seen the material love of a French mother sheltering a Boche baby at her breast...

Age Is Wonderful One

"This age has done marvelous things. Do you remember reading in history where scientists used to take children and by some process dwarf and warp their bodies to make them puppets and entertainers? It is the same today...

Lonfer Statement Recalled

"I'm glad we have an anti-loafer law, but I am disappointed in this respect, that it does not include women. America has women loafers as well as loafer men."

W. C. PETERS ALLEGES INFIDELITY AS REASON FOR SEPARATION

W. C. Peters, who filed suit yesterday for a divorce from Maxine Peters, alleging infidelity, asserts he permitted his wife to travel for a month with Homer P. Ford, a Portland forger now serving a term in the penitentiary...

Three more witnesses were called yesterday by John F. Logan, counsel for the defense, to testify concerning the mental condition of Xarifa Jane Faling, whose $500,000 estate, given to C. Lewis Mead and Thomas N. Strong, is being contested on the ground that she was not in possession of her faculties when she signed the will.

Mead denies testimony previously given by Mrs. Katherine Becker to the effect that she was given to understand by him that Mrs. Faling had named her in the will. Mrs. Becker testified that such a conversation took place at San Francisco in the Fall of 1915, while Mr. Mead yesterday testified that he was in San Francisco in March, and was not in California at all during the Fall of that year.
